

PAST AND DONE IN THIS PRESENT Seffion of PARLIAMENT, the eleventh of June 1640.

ACT I

ACT ANENT THE CHOOSING OF Robert Lord Burghlie to be Prefident in this Court and Session of Parliament, in respect of the absence of the Kings Commissioner.

HE Estates of Parliament prefently conveened by His Majefties fpeciall authoritie, Confidering, that in respect of the absence of His Majefties Commissioner, they are necessitate to make choyle of one of their number to be Prefident in this prefent Seffion of Parliament, And understanding the fufficiencie of Robert Lord Burghlie for that charge, They all in one voice, with one confent, did nominate, elect and choose the faid Robert Lord Burghlie, to bee Prefident, and to proceed in this prefent Selfion and Court of Parliament, for difcuffing and handling of the matters to be determinat thereintill.

ACT II

ACT ANENT THE CONSTITUTION Of the Parliament, and all subsequent Parliaments.

CHE Estates of Parliament presently conveened by His Majesties or Parliament prefently conveened by this Majesties special authoritie, Confidering that this prefent Parliament was indicted by His Ma-jestie, for ratifying of such Acts as should be con-cluded in the late Assemblie of the Kirk cluded in the late Affemblie of the Kirk, for determining all Civill matters, and fetling all fuch things as may conduce to the publick good, and peace of this Kirk and Kingdome, And confidering the feverall complaints of this Kirk unto Parliaments from time to time, proceeding from her continuall experience of prejudice and ruine, through many perfons, and fpecially of Prelates their attempting to voyce or do any thing in name of the Kirk, without either bearing Office in the Kirk, or having commission from the Kirk, And the Acts of the late Generall Assemblie, condemning the office of Bilhops, Archbilhops, and other Prelates, and the civil places and power of Kirkmen, as their voycing and ryding in Parliament; and craving the abolishing of these Acts of Parliament, which grants to the Kirk or Kirkmen vote in Parliament, to be abrogate, as prejudiciall to her Liberties, and incompatible with her spirituall nature; Confidering also that there are conveened in this prefent Parliament, by His Majefties speciall indiction, warrant, and authoritie, the Nobilitie, Barons, and Burgeffes, the Eftates of this Kingdome, who have a full and undoubted power to proceed and determine in all matters concerning the publick good of this Kingdome, and that notwithstanding of the absence of the Prelates, who by former Lawes were appointed to bee members of Parliament : And to the effect none prelume to move any question thereanent, The saids Estates now conveened, as faid is, have declared, and by these presents declares this present Parliament holden by the Nobilitie, Barons, and Burgesses, and their Commissioners, the true Estates of this Kingdome, to be a complete and perfect Parliament, and to have the famine power, authority and jurifdiction, as abfolutely and fully, as any Parliament formerly hath had within this Kingdome in time by-gone; And ordaines all Parliaments hereafter, to be so constitute, and to consist onely in all time comming, of the Noblemen, Barons, and Burgeffes, as the members and three Effates of Parliament : And refcindes and annulls all former Lawes & Acts of Parliament, made in favours of what loever Bilhops, Archbishops, Abbots, Pryors, or other Prelates or Churchmen whatsoever, for their ryding, sitting, or voycing in Parliament, either as Churchmen, or the Clergie, or in name of the Church, or as representing the Church, as an State or member of Parliament, by reason of their Ecclefiasticall Offices, Titles, Dignities, or Benefices, and namely, the 231. Act, Parl. 15. K. Ja. 6. 1597. anent the Kirk, and fpecially parfons and prelates, representing the third Estate and the 2. Act Parl. 18. K. Ja. 6. 1606. anent the reflitution of the estate of Bishops, and their ACT III. ACT ANENT THE CHOOSING . of Committees out of every Estate.

He Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened, by ver-tue of His Majefties fpeciall authority, Confidering that there have divers queftions arifen in: this prefent Parliament, anent the freedome of the Parliament, either to choofe, or not to choofe Committees for Artiof election of them, & anent their use and power: By reason the same is not yet determined nor fet down by any Acts of former Parliaments; for removing whereof, & avoyding the great prejudice which by experience they find will hereby redound to this Kingdom, and to the liberty, freedom & dignity of the fupreme Courts of Parliament, They have thought it neceffary that a folidOrder be fet down, as wel declaring the Liberty of the Parliament, in the manner of their proceedings by themfelves alone, or by Committees for Articles, as prefcribing the form and manner of the election of these Committees for Articles, and defining their use, power, and manner of proceeding to be observed in all times coming. AND THEREFORE have statute and declared, That according to the Liberty of all free Judicatories, an ent their own preparatorie Committees, all subsequent Parliaments, may according to the importance of Affairs for the time, either choofe, or not choofe feverall Committees for Articles, as they shall think expedient, And that any fubsequent Parliaments making election of Committees for Articles, to prepare matters for them, shall proceed in manner following, To wit, That these of the Noblemen, shalbe named and chosen by the Noblemen themfelves, out of their number. And by the Barons Commissioners of Shires by themfelves out of their number; And the Burgeffes, Commissioners of Burrowes by themselves out of their number. The names of the which perfons fo named and chosen out of every Estate, (not exceeding for every Committee, the number prefcribed by the Act of Parliament, 1587.) being openly read and made known to the whole Eftates fitting in plain Parliament, The faid Eftates having received any propositions (which are ever first to bee prefented to themfelves) by an Act, shall authorize the faid perfons with power to treat.

treat, reason, and confult upon the expediencie or inexpediencie of fuch Articles allanerlie as shalbe committed and recommended unto them by the Estates, and to set down such reasons and motives, as they can devise, whereby to inforce either the passing or rejecting of the famine in Parliament, To be reported, with the faid Articles, to the remanent Of the faid Estates assembled in Parliament, that they may deliberate and advise thereupon, and that after discussing of the reasons given in either for, or against the samine, The said Estates may ordain such of the faids Articles as they find to deferve confideration to bee formed and past as Articles to bee voyced in plain Parliament. And in cafe it shall happen them to omit or forget to make report to the Estates, as faid is, of any of the faids Articles, with their reasons for, or against the fame, It shalbe lawfull in that case to the in-givers of the saids Articles, to propone the famine again in plain Parliament, that they may there be determined and decided. And farther, to the effect that the faids Estates may be in readines to receive all Articles which shalbe given in and prefented to the Parliament, and either to give answer thereunto themfelves, if they shall think it expedient, or otherwise to recommend the fame to the faid Committee, to be digested by them, and reported, as faid is. IT is thought fit and declared, That the rest of the Estates, by and befide these of the severall Committees to the Articles shalbe holden continually to fit for receiving, advising, and discusfing of all Articles, Propositions, Overtures, and Matters shall be presented to them from the beginning of the Parliament to the clofure thereof. And fuch like, after all the faids Articles are past and discust by the faids Estates in manner forefaid, That they shall take such a competent time as they shall think requisite, according to the number and importance of the Affaires in hand, To revise and confider the famine again before the day of voycing, That they may be well and ripely advised thereanent.

ACT IV. ACT ANENT THE RATIFICATION Of the Acts of the Affembly.

H E Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by His Majefties fpeciall Authoritie, Ratifies, ap-proves and perpetually confirmes the Act of the Generall Alemblic to the Generall Affemblie holden at EDINBURGH in the moneth of August last by-past, made upon the feventeenth day of the faid Moneth, and in the eighth Seffion of the faid Affembly, intituled, Anent the fix causes of our bygone evils, whereof the tenour followes. THE Kings Majestie having graciously declared, that it is His Royall will and pleasure, that all questions about Religion, and matters Ecclesiasticall, be determined by assemblies of the Kirk, having also by publick Proclamation indicted this Free Nationall Affembly, for setling the present distractions of this Kirk, and for establishing to

OF KING CHARLES.

Аст 4. of a perfect peace against fuch divisions and dif-orders as have been fore difpleating to His Majeftie, and grievous to all his good fubjects. And now his Majesties Commissioner, John Earl of Traquaire. instructed and authorized with a full Commission, being present and fitting in this affembly, now fully conveened and orderly constitute in all the members thereof : according to the order of this Kirk, having at large declared His Majesties zeal to the reformed Religion, and His Royall care and tender affection to this Kirk, where His Majestie had both His Birth and Baptisme, His great displeasure at the manifold distractions and divisions of this Kirk and Kingdom, and His defires to have all our wounds perfectly cured with a faire and fatherly hand; And although in the way approven by this Kirk, tryall hath been taken in former Assemblies before, from the Kirk Registers, to our full fatisfaction, yet the Commissioners Grace making particular inquirie from the members of the Affembly, now folemnly conveened, concerning the reall and true caufes of fo many and great evills, at this time past, had so fore troubled the peace of this Kirk and Kingdome, IT was represented to His Majesties Commissioner, by this Affembly, that, befide many other, the main and most materiall causes were first the preffing of this Kirk by the prelates, with a Service book or book of Common prayer, without warrant or direction from the Kirk, and containing, belide the popifh frame thereof, divers popifh errours and ceremonies, and the feeds of manifold and groffe fuperftitions and idolatrie, With a book of Canons, without warrant or direction from the Generall Affembly, establishing a tyrannicall power over the Kirk, in the perfons of the Bifhops, and overthrowing the whole Discipline and Government of the Kirk by Assemblies; With a book of Confectation and Ordination, without warrant of authoritie Civill or Ecclefiasticall, appointing offices in the house of God, which are not warranted by the word of God, and repugnant to the Difcipline and Acts of our Kirk; And with the High Commission, erected without the confent of this Kirk, fubverting the jurifdiction and ordinary Judicatories of this Kirk, and giving to perfons meerly Ecclefiasticall, the power of both fwords, and to perfons meerly civill, the power of the keyes and kirk cenfures. A fecond caufe was the Articles of Perth, viz. the observation of Festivall dayes, kneeling at the Communion, Confirmation, Administration of the Sacraments in private places, which were brought in by a null Affembly, and are contrary to the Confeffion of Faith, as it was meant and fubscribed, Anno 1580. and diverse times fince, and to the order and conftitution of this Kirk. Thirdly, the change of the Government of the Kirk, from the Affemblies of the Kirk, to the perfons of fome Kirkmen, ulurping priority and power over their Brethren, by the way, and under the name of Epifcopall Government, against the confession of Faith, 1580. against the order set down in the book of policie, and against the intention and constitutions of this Kirk from the beginning. Fourthly, the civill places and power of Kirkmen, their fitting in Seffion, Councell, and Exchequer, their ryding, fitting, and voycing in Parliament, and their fitting in the Bench as Juffices of Peace, which according to the Conftitutions of this

8 this Kirk, are incompatible with their spirituall function, list them up above their Brethren in worldly pomp, and doe tend to the hinderance of the Ministerie. Fiftly, the keeping and authorizing corrupt Assemblies at Linlithgow 1606. 1608. at Glasgow, 1610. at Aberdene 1616. at S. Andrewes 1617. at Pearth 1618. which are null and unlawfull, as being called and conftitute quite contrary to the order and conftitutions of this Kirk, received and practifed ever fince the Reformation of Religion, and withall labouring to introduce Novations into this Kirk, against the Order and Religion established. A fixth cause is, the want of lawfull and Free Generall Affemblies, rightly conftitute of Pastours, Doctours, and Elders, yearely, or oftner, pro re nata, according to the Liberty of this Kirk, expressed in the book of policie, and acknowledged in the Act of Parliament 1592. after which, the whole Affembly, in one heart and voyce, did declare, that these and fuch other, proceeding from the neglect and breach of the Nationall Covenant of this Kirk and Kingdome, made anno 1580. have been indeed the true & main causes of all our evils and distractions, AND therefore ordain, according to the Constitutions of the General Assemblies of this Kirk, and upon the grounds respective above-specified, That the forefaid Service-book, books of Canons, and Ordination, and the High Commission, be still rejected, That the articles of Pearth be no more practifed, That Episcopall government, the civill places and power of Kirkmen, bee holden still as unlawfull in this Kirk, That the above-named pretented affemblies at Linlithgow 1606. 1608. at Glasgow 1610. at Aberdene 1616. at S. Andrewes 1617. at Pearth 1618. be hereafter accounted as null, and of none effect; and that for prefervation of Religion, and preventing all fuch evils in time comming, Generall Affemblies rightly constitute, as the proper and competent Judge of all matters Ecclesiasticall, hereaster be keeped yearely, and oftner pro re nata, as occasion and necessitie shall require (The necessitie of these occasionall Affemblies being first remonstrate to His Majestie by humble supplication)As alfo that Kirk Seffions, Presbyteries, and Synodal Affemblies, be conftitute and obferved according to the Order of this Kirk ; Which Act, with all and fundrie the particular heads, claufes, and articles therein contained, The Estates now conveened by His Majesties indiction, warrant and authoritie forefaid, Ratifies, approves, and confirmes in all points, in manner as the fame proports; And gives thereunto the strength of a Law and Act of Parliament, and ordaines execution to passe thereupon as effeirs, And rescindes, casses, and annulls all Acts and Decrees of Parliament and Councell formerly made, contrair and in prejudice of the faid Act, or any part thereof.

ACT V.

ACT ANENT THE RATIFICATION Of the Covenant, and of the Affemblies fupplication. Act of Councell, and Act of Affemblie concerning the Covenant.

HE Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majesties special authoritie, confidering the supplication of the Generall Assembly at Edinburgh the 12. of August 1639. to his Majesties high Commission ner, & the Lords of His Majesties Honourable Privie Councell, and the Act of the Councell the 30. of August 1639. containing the answer of the faid supplication, & the Act of the faid General Affembly, ordaining by their Ecclefiasticall constitution, the subscription of the Confession of Faith & Covenant, mentioned in their Supplication, And withall, having fupplicated His Majestie to ratifie and enjoyne the famine by His Royall authoritie, under all civill paines, as tending to the glorie of God, prefervation of Religion, the Kings Majesties honour, and the perfect peace of this Kirk and Kingdome, Do ratifie and approve the faid supplication, Act of Councell, and Act of Affembly, and conforme thereto, Ordaines and commands the faid Confession and Covenant, to be subscribed by all His Majesties Subjects, of what rank and qualitie foever, under all civill paines, And ordaines the faid Supplication, Act of Councell, and Act of the Affembly, with the whole Confession and Covenant it felfe, to bee infert and registrate in the Acts and books of Parliament; And alfo or daines the famine to be prefented at the entrie of every Parliament, & before they proceed to any other Act, That the fame bee publickly read and fworne by the whole members of Parliament, claiming voice therein, otherwife the refufers to fubscribe and swear the fame, shall have no place nor voice in Parliament. And fuch like ordaines all Judges, Magistrates, or other Officers of whatsoever place, rank or qualitie, and Ministers at their entrie, to fweare and fubscribe the famine Covenant, Whereof, and of the faid Supplication, Act of Councell, and Act of the Affembly, the tenour followes, &c.

THE SUPPLICATION OF THE GEnerall Affembly conveened at EDINBURGH the 12. of August 1639. to his Majesties high Commissioner, and the Lords of his Majesties Honourable Privie Councell.

Ee the Generall Affembly, confidering with all humble with and thankfull acknowledgment, the many recent favours beftowed upon us by His Majeftie, and that there refteth nothing for crowning of His Majefties incomparable goodneffetowards us, but that all the members of this Kirk and Kingdome be joyned in one and the fame Confeffion and Covenant with God, with with the Kings Majeftie, and amongft our felves: And conceiving the main lett and impediment to this fo good a work, and fo much wished by all, to have been the Informations made to his Majestie, of our Intentions to shake off civill and duetifull obedience due to Soveraignty, and to diminish the Kings greatnes and authoritie, and being most willing and defirous to remove this and all fuch impediments which may hinder and impede fo full and perfect an Union, and for clearing of our loyaltie, WEE in our own names, and in name of all the reft of the Subjects and Congregations whom we reprefent, do now in all humility reprefent to your Grace, His Majefties Commiffioner and the Lords of His Majefties most Honourable Privie Councell. and declares before God and the world, that we never had, nor have any thought of with-drawing our felves from that humble and duetifull obedience to his Majestie, and to his goverment, which by the descent and under the reigne of 107. Kings, is most chearfully acknowledged by us and our predeceffours : and that we never had, nor have any intention nor defire to attempt any thing that may tend to the diffionour of God, or the diminution of the Kings greatnesse and authoritie : But on the contrary, acknowledging our quietnes, stabilitie and happines to depend upon the fafety of the Kings Majefties Person, and maintenance of his greatnes and royall authoritie who is Gods Vice-gerent fet over us, for the maintenance of Religion and ministration of Justice, Wee have folemnly fworn and do fweare, not only our mutuall concurrence and affiftance for the caufe of Religion, and to the uttermost of our power, with our meanes and lives, to fland to the defence of our dread Soveraigne, his perfon and authority, in the prefervation and defence of the true Religion, Liberties and Lawes of this Kirk and Kingdome, but alfo in every caufe which may concerne his Majefties honour, shall according to the Lawes of this Kingdome, and the duties of good Subjects, concurre with our friends and followers in quiet manner, or in Armes, as we shalbe required of his Majestie, his Councell, or any having his authority. And therefore being most defirous to cleare our felves of all imputation of this kinde, and following the laudable example of our predeceffours, 1589. do most humbly fupplicate your Grace, his Majefties Commissioner, and the Lords of his Majefties most honourable Privie Councell, to injoyn by act of Councell, that this Confession and Covenant, which, as a testimony of our fidelity to GOD, and loyaltie to our King, wee have fubfcribed, be fubfcribed by all his Majefties Subjects, of what ranke and quality foever.

ner, and Lords of Privie Councell, compeired perfo-nally John Earle of Rothes, James Earle of Montrofe, John Lord Lowdown, Sir George Stirling of Keir Knight, Sir William Douglas of Cavers Knight, Sir Henry Wood of Bonytoun Knight, John Smyth Burgeffe of Edinburgh, Mr. Robert Barclay Proveft of Ir-wing, Mr. Alexander Henderson Minister at Edinburgh, and Master Archbald Johnstown Clerk to the Generall Assembly, and in the name of the present sitting Generall Assembly, gave in to the Lord Commiffioner and Lords of Privie Councell, the petition above written; which being read, heard, and confidered by the faids Lords, they have ordained, and ordain the fame to be infert and registrate in the bookes of Privie Councell, and according to the defire thereof, ordaines the faid Confession and Covenant to be subscribed in time comming by all his Majefties Subjects of this Kingdome, of what rank and quality foever.

THE ACT OF THE GENERALL ASSEMBLY, Ordaining by Ecclefiafticall authoritie, the fubfcription of the Confession of Faith and Covenant.

He Generall Affembly confidering the great hap-pineffe which may flow from a full and perfect U-nion of this Kirk and Kingdome, by joyning of all in one and the fame Covenant with God, with the Kings Majeftie, and amongft our felves, having by our great Oath declared the uprightnes and loyalty of our intentions in all our proceedings and heaty of our intentions in all our proceedings, and having withall fupplicated his Majefties high Commissioner, and the Lords of his Majesties honourable Privie Councell, to injoyne by Act of Councell, all the Lieges in time comming to fubfcribe the Confession of Faith and Covenant, which as a testimony of our fidelity to God, and loyalty to our King, wee have fubfcribed, And feeing his Majefties high Commissioner, and the Lords of his Majesties honourable Privie Councell, have granted the defire of our Supplication, ordaining by civill authority, all his Majesties Lieges in time comming, to fubscribe the forefaid Covenant, that our union may be the more full and perfect, We by our act and conftitution Ecclefiafticall, doe approve the forefaid Covenant, in all the Heads and Claufes thereof, and ordaines of new, under all Ecclefiafticall cenfure, that all the Masters of Universities, Colledges, and Schooles, all Schollers at the passing of their their degrees, all perfons fuspect of Papistry, or any other errour, and finally, all the members of this Kirk and Kingdome, fubfcribe the fame, with these words prefixed to their subscription: The Article of this Covenant, which was at the first subscription referred to the dctcrmination of the generall Assembly, being determined. And thereby the Five Articles of Perth, the governement of the Kirk by Bishops, the civill places and power of Kirke-men, upon the reasons and grounds contained in the acts of the Generall Assembly, declared to be unlawfull within this Kirk, wee (ubscribe according to the determination foresaid. And ordaines the Covenant, with this declaration, to be infert in the Registers of the Assemblies of this Kirk, Generall, Provinciall, and Presbyteriall, ad perpetuam rei memoriam; and in all humility supplicates his Majesties high commissioner, and the honourable Estates of Parliament, by their authority, to ratifie and injoyne the fame, under all civill paines, which will tend to the glory of God, prefervation of Religion, the Kings Majesties honour, and perfect peace of this Kirk and Kingdome.

The Confession of Faith, subscribed at first by the Kings Majestie and his Houshold, in the yeare of God 1580. Thereafter by Persons of all rankes, in the yeare 1581. By ordinance of the Lords of the secret Councell, and acts of the Generall Affembly. Subscribed again by all forts of Persons in the yeare 1590. By a new ordinance of Councell, at the defire of the Generall Affembly: with a generall Band for maintenance of the true Religion, and the Kings Person. And subscribed in the yeare 1638. By Us, Noblemen, Barons, Gentlemen, Burgeffes, Ministers, and Commons, then under subscribing : Together with our resolution and promises for the causes after specified, to mainetaine the (aid true Religion, and the Kings Majestic, according to the Confession fore-(aid, and acts of Parliament. And now, upon the Supplication of the Generall Affembly to his Majesties high Commissioner, and the Lords of his Majesties honourable Privy Councell, subscribed again in the yeare 1639. by ordinance of Councell, and Act of the Generall Affembly.

Ee all, and every one of us under-written, proteft, that after long and due Examination of our owne confciences, in matters of true and falfe Religion, Wee are now throughly refolved of the Trueth, by the word and Spirit of God; And therefore wee be-lieve with our hearts, confesse with our mouths, fub-for be with our hearts, and confessely affirms before fcribe with our hands, and constantly affirme before

God, and the whole World, that this onely is the true Christian Faith and Religion, pleafing God, and bringing Salvation to man, which now is by the mercie of God revealed to the world, by the preaching of the bleffed Evangel, and received, be-leeved, and defended by many and fundry notable Kirks and Realmes, but chiefly by the Kirke of Scotland, the Kings Majeftie, and the three Estates of this Realme, as Gods Eternall Treth,

ΧŞ

Trueth, and onely ground of our Salvation, as more particularly is expreffed in the Confession of our Faith, stablished, and publickly confirmed by fundry Acts of Parliaments, and now of a long time hath beene openly profeffed by the Kings Majestie, and whole body of this Realme both in Burgh and Land. To the which Confession and forme of Religion, wee willingly agree in our consciences in all points, as unto Gods undoubted Trueth and Veritie, grounded onely upon his written Word. And therefore, wee abhorre and detest all contrarie Religion, and Doctrine: But chiefly, all kind of Papiftrie, in generall and particular heads, even as they are now damned and confuted by the Word of God, and Kirk of Scotland : But in speciall, we detest and refuse the usurped authoritie of that Roman Antichrist upon the Scriptures of God, upon the Kirk, the civill Magistrate, and consciences of men, all his tyrannous lawes made upon indifferent things against our Chriftian libertie: His erroneous Doctrine against the sufficiencie of the written Word, the perfection of the law, the office of Christ, and his bleffed Evangel: His corrupted Doctrine concerning originall finne, our naturall inabilitie and rebellion to Gods Law, our Justification by faith only, our imperfect Sanctification and obedience to the Law. the nature, number and use of the Holy Sacraments : His five bastard Sacraments, with all his Rites, Ceremonies, and falfeDoctrine, added to the ministration of the true Sacraments without the word of God : His cruell judgement against Infants, departing without the Sacrament : His absolute necessitie of Baptisme: His blasphemous opinion of Tranfabstantiation, or reall prefence of Christs Body in the Elements, and receiving of the fame by the wicked, or bodies of men: His dispensations with folemne Oaths, Perjuries, and degrees of Marriage, forbidden in the Word : His crueltie against the innocent divorced : His divellish Masse: His blasphemous Priesthood : His profane Sacrifice for the fins of the dead and the quicke: His Canonization of men, calling upon Angels or Saints departed, worfhipping of Imagerie, Relicts, and Croffes, dedicating of Kirks, Altars, Dayes, Vowes to creatures, His Purgatorie, Prayers for the dead, praying or speaking in a strange language, with his Proceffions, blasphemous Letanie, and multitude of Advocates or Mediators : His manifold Orders, Auricular Confession: His desperate and uncertain Repentance; His generall and doubtfome Faith; His fatisfactions of men for their finnes : His Juftification by works, opus operatum, works of Supererogation, Merits, Pardons, Peregrinations, and Stations : His holy-water, baptizing of Bells, conjuring of Spirits, croffing, saning, anointing, conjuring, hallowing of GODS good creatures, with the superstitious opinion joyned therewith; His worldly Monarchie, and wicked Hierarchie: His three folemne vowes, with all his fhavelings of fundry forts : His erroneous and bloudie decrees made at Trent, with all the subscribers and approvers of that cruell and bloudie Band, conjured against the Kirk of GOD: And finally, we deteft all his vain Allegories, Rites, Signes and Traditions, brought in the Kirk, without, or against the Word of GOD, and Doctrine of this true reformed Kirk: To the which wee joyne our felves willingly in Doctrine, Faith, Religion, Discipline, and use of the holy

14 Sacraments, as lively members of the same in Christ our Head: Promising and fwearing by the Great Name of the Lord our GOD, that wee shall continue in the Obedience of the Doctrine and Discipline of this Kirk, and shall defend the fame according to our vocation and power all the dayes of our lives, under the paines contained in the Law, and danger both of Body and Soule, in the day of GODS fearefull Judgement: And feeing that many are stirred up by Sathan, and that Roman Antichrift, to promife, fweare, fubfcribe, and for a time use the holy Sacraments in the Kirk deceitfully, against their own confciences, minding thereby, first, under the externall cloak of Religion to corrupt and fubvert fecretly GODS true Religion within the Kirk, and afterward, when time may ferve, to become open enemies and perfecutors of the fame, under vain hope of the Popes dispensation, devised against the Word of GOD, to his greater confusion, and their double condemnation in the day of the LORD JESUS: Wee, therefore, willing to take away all fufpicion of hypocrifie, and of fuch double dealing with GOD and his Kirk, Proteft, and call The Searcher of all hearts for witneffe, that our mindes and hearts doe fully agree with this our Confession, Promile, Oath, and Subscription, fo that Wee are not moved for any worldly refpect, but are perfwaded only in our confeiences, through the knowledge and love of GODS true Religion, printed in our hearts by the holy Spirit, as wee shall answere to him in the day, when the fecrets of all hearts shall be disclosed: And because wee perceive, that the quietnes and stabilitie of our Religion and Kirk, doth depend upon the fafetie and good behaviour of the Kings Majeftie, as upon a comfortable inftrument of Gods mercy, granted to this Countrey, for the maintaining of his Kirk, and ministration of Justice amongst us, we proteft and promife with our hearts, under the fame Oath, Handwrit, and paines, that wee shall defend his Person and Authoritie, with our goods, bodies, and lives, in the defence of Chrift his Evangel, Liberties of our Countrey, ministration of Justice, and punishment of Iniquitie against all enemies within this Realme, or without, as wee defire our GOD to bee a strong and mercifull defender to us, in the day of our death, and comming of our Lord JESUS CHRIST; To whom with the Father, and the holy Spirit, be all Honour and Glory eternally.

IKE AS many Acts of Parliament not only in generall do abrogat, Lannull, and refcind all Laws, Statutes, Acts, Conftitutions, Canons, civill or municipall, with all other Ordinances and practique penalties whatfoever, made in prejudice of the true Religion and Professiours thereof: Or of the true Kirk discipline, jurisdiction, and freedome therof: Or in favours of idolatrie and fuperstition: Or of the Papisticall Kirk: As, Act 3. Act 31. Parl. 1. Act 23. Parl. 11. Act 14. Parl. 12. of K. Fames the fixt, That Papiftrie and Superfition may be utterly suppressed according to the intention of the Acts of Parliament repeated in the 5. Alt, Parl. 20. K. Fames 6. And to that end they ordaine all Papifts and Priefts to bee punished by manifolde Civil and Ecclefiafticall paines, as adverfaries to Gods true Religion, preached, and by Law established within this Realme, Act 24. Parl. 11. K. James 6. as common enemies to all Christian Government, Act 18. Parl. 16. K. James 6. as rebellers and gain-flanders of our Soveraigne Lords authority, Act 47. Parl. 3. K. Fames 6. and as Idolaters, Act 104. Parl. 7. K. Fames 6. But alfo in particular (by and attour the Confession of faith) do abolish and condemne the Popes Authority and Jurifdiction out of this Land, and ordain the maintainers thereof to be punished, Act 2. Parl. 1. Act 51. Parl. 3. Act 106. Parl. 7. Act 114. Parl. 12. K. Parl. 11. K. James 6. do condemn the monuments and dregs of by-gone Idolatry, as going to the Croffes, observing the Festivall dayes of Saints, and fuch other superstitious and Papisticall Rites, to the dishonour of GOD, contempt of true Religion, and fostering of great errour among the people, and ordain the users of them to be puni-Thed for the fecond fault as Idolaters, Act 104. Parl. 7. K. James 6.

LIKE AS many Acts of Parliament are conceived for maintenance of Gods true and Christian Religion, and the purity thereof in Doctrine and Sacraments of the true Church of GOD, the liberty and freedome thereof, in her Nationall and Synodall Affemblies, Presbyteries, Seffions, Policie, Discipline, and Jurisdiction thereof, as that purity of Religion and liberty of the Church was used, professed, exercifed, preached, and confessed according to the Reformation of Religion in this Realme, As for instance, the 99 Att Parl. 7. Act 23. Parl. 11. Act 114. P. 12. Act. 160. Parl. 13. of K. James 6. ratified by 4. Act of King Charles. So that the 6. Act Parl. 1. and 68. Act Parl. 6. of King Fames 6. in the yeare of God 1579. declare the Ministers of the bleffed Evangel, whom G O D of his mercie had raifed up, or hereafter fhould raife, agreeing with them that then lived in Doctrine, and Administration of the Sacraments, and the people that professed Christ, as hee was then offered in the Evangel, and doth communicate with the holy Sacraments, (as in the reformed Kirks of this Realme they were publikely administrate) according to the Confession of Faith, to bee the true and holy Kirk of Chrift Jefus within this Realme, and difcerne and declare all and fundry, who either gain-fay the Word of the Evangel, received and approved, as the heads of the confession of faith, professed in Parliament, in the yeare of God 1560, specified also in the first first Parliament of King Iames 6. and ratified in this present Parliament, more particularly doe specifie, or that refuses the administration of the holy Sacraments, as they were then ministrated, to be no members of the faid Kirk within this Realme, and true Religion, prefently profeffed, fo long as they keep themfelves fo divided from the focietie of CHRISTS Body : And the fublequent Act 69. Parl. 6. of King James 6. declares, that there is none other Face of Kirk, nor other Face of Religion, then was prefently at that time by the favour of GOD established within this Realme, which therefore is ever stilled, Gods true Religion, Christs true religion, the true and Christian Religion, and a perfect Religion, Which, by manifold Acts of Parliament, all within this Realme, are bound to professe to subscribe the articles thereof, the Confession of Faith, to recant all doctrine and errours repugnant to any of the faid Articles, Act 4. and 9. Parl. 1. Act 45. 46. 47. Parl. 3. Act 71. Parl. 6. Act 106. Parl. 7. Act 24. Parl. 11. Act 123. Parl. 12. Act 194. and 197 Parl. 14. of King Iames 6. And all Magistrates, Sheriffs, &c. on the one part are ordained to fearch, apprehend, and punish all contraveeners. For instance, Act 5. Parl. 1. Act. 104. Parl. 7. Act 25. Parl. 11. K. Fames 6. and that notwithstanding of the Kings Majesties licences on the contrary, which are discharged and declared to be of no force, in so far as they tend in any wayes to the prejudice and hinder of the execution of the Acts of Parliament against Papists and adversaries of true Religion, Act 106. Parl. 7. K. Iames 6. On the other part in the 47. Act Parl. 3. K. Iames 6. it is declared and ordained, leeing the caufe of Gods true Religion, and his highnes Authority are fojoyned, as the hurt of the one is common to both, and that none shall be reputed as loyall and faithfull fubjects to our Soveraign Lord, or his authority, but be punishable as rebellers and gain-standers of the same, who shall not give their Confession, and make their profession of the said true Religion, and that they who after defection shall give the Confession of their Faith of new, they shall promise to continue therein in time comming, to maintaine our Soveraigne Lords Authority, and at the uttermost of their power to fortifie, affist, and maintain the true Preachers and Professions of Chrifts Evangel, against whatsoever enemies and gain-standers of the fame : and namely, against all fuch (of what foever nation, estate, or degree they be of) that have joyned, and bound themfelves, or have affifted, or affift to fet forward and execute the cruell decrees of the Councel of Trent, contrary to the true Preachers and Professions of the Word of God, which is repeated word by word in the Articles of Pacification at Perth the 23 of February 1572. approved by Parliament the last of April 1573. ratified in Parliament 1587. and related, Act 123. Parl. 12. of K. Iames 6. with this addition, that they are bound to refist all treasonable uproares and hostilities raised against the true Religion, the Kings Majestie, and the true Professions. LIKE AS all Liedges are bound to maintain the K. Majesties Royall Person, and Authority, the Authority of Parliaments, without the which neither any lawes or lawfull Judicatories can be established, Act 130. and 131 Parl.8.K. Iames 6. and the fubjects liberties, who ought only to live and be governed by the Kings lawes, the common lawes of this Realm allanerly, allanerly. Att 48. Parl. 3. K. James the first. Att 79. Parl.6. K. James 4. repeated in the Ait 131. Parl.8.K. James 6. Which, if they be innovated or prejudged, the Commission anent the Union of the two Kingdomes of Scotland and England, which is the fole Act of the 17. Parl. of K.Fames 6. declares fuch confusion would enfue, as this Realm could be no more a free Monarchie, because by the fundamentall lawes, ancient priviledges, offices, and liberties of this Kingdom, not onely the Princely Authority of his Majesties Royall descent hath beene these many ages maintained, but alfo the peoples fecurity of their Lands, livings, rights, offices, liberties, and dignities preferved. And therefore for the prefervation of the faid true Religion, Lawes, and Liberties of this Kingdom, it is statute by the 8. Act, Parl. I. repeated in the 99. Act, Parl. 7. Ratified in the 23. Act, Parl. 11. and 114. Act, Parl. 12. of K. Fames 6. and A. Alt of K. Charles, that all Kings and Princes at their Coronation and reception of their Princely authority, shall make their faithfull promise by their solemne Oath in the presence of the Eternall G O D, that, enduring the whole time of their lives, they shall ferve the same eternall GOD to the uttermost of their power, according as he hath required in his most holy Word, contained in the Old and New Testament : And according to the fame Word , shall maintain the true Religion of Chrift Jesus, the preaching of his holy Word, the due and right ministration of the Sacraments now received and preached within this Realme (according to the Confession of Faith immediatly preceding) and shall abolish and gain-stand all false Religion contrary to the fame, and shall rule the people, committed to their charge, according to the will and command of GOD, revealed in his forefaid word, and according to the laudable Lawes and Constitutions received in this Realme, no wayes repugnant to the faid will of the eternall GOD, and shall procure, to the uttermost of their power, to the Kirk of GOD, and whole Christian people, true and perfect peace in all time comming: and that they shall be carefull to root out of their Empire all Hereticks, and enemies to the true worfhip of GOD, who shall be convicted by the true Kirk of GOD, of the forefaid crimes, which was alfo observed by his Majestie, at his Coronation at Edinburgh, 1633. as may be feen in the Order of the Coronation.

IN OBEDIENCE to the commandement of God, conform to the practife of the godly in former times, and according to the laudable example of our Worthy and Religious Progenitors, and of many yet living amongst us, which was warranted also by Act of Councell, commanding a generall Band to bee made and fub/cribed by his Majefties Subjects, of all ranks, for two causes : One was, for defending the true Religion, as it was then reformed, and is expressed in the Confession of Faith, above-written, and a former large Confeffion eftablished by fundry acts of lawfull General Affemblies, and of Parliament, unto which it hath relation fet down in publick Catechifmes, and which had beene for many yeares with a bleffing from Heaven preached, and profeffed in this Kirk and kingdom, as GODS undoubted Truth, grounded onely upon his written Word. The other caufe was, for maintaining the Kings Majestie, his Person, and Estate, the true worship of GOD, and

and the Kings authority being fo ftraitly joyned, as that they had the fame friends, and common enemies, and did stand and fall together. And finally, being convinced in our minds, and confeffing with our mouths that the present and fucceeding generations in this Land, are bound to keep the forefaid Nationall Oath and Subscription invislable, Wee Noblemen, Barons, Gentlemen, Burgesfes, Ministers, and Commons under-scribing, confidering divers times before, and especially at this time, the danger of the true reformed Religion, of the Kings honour, and of the publick peace of the Kingdome, by the manifold innovations and evils generally contained, and particularly mentioned in our late supplications, complaints, and protestations, doe hereby professe, and before GOD, his Angels, and the world, solemnly declare, that with our whole hearts wee agree and refolve all the dayes of our life constantly to adhere unto, & to defend the forefaid true religion, and (forbearing the practife of all novations, already introduced in the matters of the worship of GOD, or approbation of the corruptions of the publick government of the Kirk or civill places and power of Kirkmen, till they be tryed and allowed in free affemblies, and in Parliaments) to labour by all meanes lawfull to recover the parity and liberty of the Gospel, as it was established and professed before the foresaid novations: And because after due examination, wee plainely perceive, and undoubtedly beleeve, that the innovations and evills contained in our Supplications, Complaints, and Protestations have no warrant of the word of GOD, are contrary to the articles of the forefaid Confessions, to the intention and meaning of the bleffed reformers of Religion in this Land, to the above-written acts of Parliament, and doe fenfibly tend to the re-establishing of the Popish religion and tyranny, and to the subversion and ruine of the true reformed religion, and of our liberties, lawes and estates, Wee also declare that the forefaid confessions are to be interpreted, and ought to be understood of the forefaid novations and evills no leffe than if every one of them had been expressed in the forefaid confessions, and that we are obliged to detest and abhorre them amongst other particular heads of Papistry abjured therein. And therefore from the knowledge and confciences of our duty to GOD, to our King and Countrey, without any worldly refpect or inducement, so farre as humane infirmity will suffer, withing a further measure of the grace of GOD for this effect, Wee promise, and sweare by the Great Name of the Lord our GOD, to continue in the Profession and obedience of the forefaid Religion, That wee shall defend the same and refift all these contrary errours and corruptions, according to our vocation, and to the uttermost of that power that GOD hath put in our hands, all the dayes of our life. And in like manner with the fame heart, wee declare before GOD and Men, that wee have no intention nor defire to attempt any thing that may turn to the difhonour of GOD, or to the diminution of the Kings greatneffe and authority: But on the contrary, wee promife and fweare, that wee shall, to the uttermost of our power, with our meanes and lives, stand to the defence of our dread Soveraigne the Kings Majestie, his Person, and Authority, in the defence and preservation of the forefaid true Religion, Liberties and Lawes of the KingAcr 5.

Kingdome: As alfo to the mutuall defence and affiftance, every one of us of another, in the fame caufe of maintaining the true Religion, and his Majesties authority, with our best counfell, our bodies, meanes, and whole power against all forts of perfons what soever, So that what soever shall be done to the least of us for that cause, shall be taken as done to us all in generall, and to every one of us in particular. And that wee shall neither directly nor indirectly suffer our felves to be divided or withdrawn by what loever fuggestion, allurement, or terrour from this bleffed and loyall Conjunction, nor shall cast in any let or impediment, that may ftay or hinder any fuch refolution as by common confent shall be found to conduce for 10 good ends. But on the contrary, shall by all lawfull meanes labour to further and promove the fame. And if any fuch dangerous and divifive motion be made to us by word or writ, wee, and every one of us, shall either suppresse it, or, if need bee, shall incontinent make the same known, that it may be timously obviated. Neither doe wee fear the foul afperfions of rebellion, combination, or what elfe our adverfaries from their craft and malice would put upon us, feeing what wee doe is fo well warranted, and arifeth from an unfained defire to maintain the true worship of God, the Majesty of our King, and peace of the Kingdome, for the common happinesse of our felves, and the posterity. And because wee cannot look for a bleffing from God upon our proceedings, except with our profession and subscription wee joyne fuch a life and conversation as beseemeth Christians, who have renewed their Covenant with God; Wee therefore faithfully promife, for our felves, our followers, and all others under us, both in publike, in our particular families, and perfonall carriage, to endeavour to keepe our selves within the bounds of Christian libertie, and to be good examples to others of all Godlinesse, Sobernesse, and Righteousnesse, and of every duty wee owe to God and Man. And that this our Union and Conjunction may bee observed without violation, Wee call the living GOD, the Searcher of our Hearts, to witneffe, who knoweth this to be our fincere Defire, and unfained Refolution, as wee shall answer to J Esus CHRIST, in the great Day, and under the pain of GODS everlafting wrath, and of infamie, and loffe of all honour and refpect in this World, Most humbly beseeching the Lord, to strengthen us by his holy Spirit for this end, and to bleffe our defires and proceedings with a happy fucceffe, that Religion and Righteoufneffe may flourish in the Land, to the glory of GOD, the honour of our King, and peace and comfort of usall. In witneffe whereof wee have fubicribed with our hands all the premiffes.

The article of this Covenant, which was at the first subscription referred to the determination of the Generall Assembly being determined, And thereby the Five articles of Perth, The governement of the Kirk by Bishops, The civill places and power of Kirkmen upon the reasons and grounds contained in the Asts of the Generall Assembly declared to be unlawfull within this Kirk, Wee subscribe according to the determination foresaid.

ACT RESCISSORIE.

H E Estates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Maje-fties special authority, Confidering that the office of Bishops and Archbishops, and all other prelates, the civil places and power of Kirkmen, as their voycing and ryding in Parliament, are condemned by the Assemblies of this Kirk, And confidering the several acts and complaints of this Kirk unto Parliaments from time to time against any persons, especially of prelates their attempting to vote or doe any thing in name of the Kirk, without either bearing Office in the Kirk, or having Commission from the Kirk, with her frequent supplications to the Parliament, for dissolving of all prelacies; Confidering also the petition of the Commissioners of the late General Assembly, humbly craving the rescission of all Acts of Parliament, which grants to the Kirk or Kirkmen, of what sever fort allowed or difallowed, as reprefenting her, or in her name, the priviledge of ryding & voting in parliament, as prejudicial to her liberties, and incompatible with her spirituall nature, declares that the sole & onely power and jurisdiction within this Kirk, stands in the Kirk of God as it is now reformed, and in the General, Provincial, Presbyterial Affemblies, with the Sessions of the Kirk, established by act of Parliament in June 1592.cap. 1140. which act the faids Eftates now conveened by his Majefties fpeciall indiction, warrant and authority, revives and renewes in the whole heads, points, and articles thereof (with this expresse declaration, that according to the last clause in the Act of the late Generall Assembly of the 17.0f August, the necessitie of occasional Assemblies be first remonftrate to his Majeftie by humble fupplication) to ftand in full ftrength as a perpetuall law in all time comming, notwithstanding of whatsoever acts & statutes made in the contrair thereof, in whole or in part, which the Estates conveened, as faid is, casses and annuls in all time comming, and declares, that it is and fhall be lawfull to the Presbyteries of this Kirk, to exact and receive from subjects of all qualities, their Oath of the Confession of Faith and Covenant, with the Subscription thereof, to examine Pedagogues of the fons of Noblemen, passing out of the Countrey, to give them Testimonials, according to former Acts of Parliament, to give and direct admonitions, private or publick, to perfons joyned in marriage for adherence, to defigne manfe and gleibs to minifters, to appoint stent-masters for reparation of Kirks and Kirkyards, and for maintenance of the Masters of Schooles, and to stent the parochioners, conforme to the A& of parliament, to admit Ministers upon the prefentations from the lawfull Patrons, or fure devoluto, which ihall happen hereafter. Or unto Kirks which fall not under patronages suchlike and as freely as they did or might have done off before. And to doe all and what soever things which before pertained to Presbyteries, and were usurped by the prelates, And that notwithstanding of what sover acts or statutes made in the contrair in favours of Bilhops, Archbilhops, or other prelates, which the Estates authoauthorized in manner forefaid, caffes and annuls. And specially the Estates forefaids casses and annuls the 23. Act 1597. anent the Kirk and speciall persons and prelates voycing in Parliament, and representing the third Estate, the 2. Act 1606. anent the restitution of the state of Bishops, and their representing the third estate, the 8. Act 1607. anent the Chapter of S. Andrewes, the 6. Act. 1609. anent the Commissariats and jurisdiction given to Bishops and Archbishops, the first Act 1612. anent the ratification of the Acts of the pretended Affembly of Glafgow, 1610.the first and second Acts 1617.anent the election of Bishops and restitution of Chapters, without prejudice alwaies to the Ministers, serving the cure of any emoluments allowed to them in part of their stipend, the first Act 1621. anent the ratification of the Articles of the pretended Affemby holden at Perth. And finally, the Estates foresaid, conveened by authority, rescindes and annulls all and what soever Acts of Parliament, Lawes, and Constitutions, in fo far as they derogate, and are prejudiciall to the fpirituall nature, jurifdiction, discipline, and priviledges of this Kirk, or of her Generall, Provinciall, Presbyteriall Affemblies, and Kirk-feffions, and fo far as they are conceived in favours of Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots, Priors, and others, Prelates or Kirkmen what sever, their dignity, title, power, jurisdiction and estate in this Kirk and Kingdome, or in favours of the civill places and power of Kirkmen, of what foever fort allowed or dis-allowed, for their riding, fitting, and voycing in Parliament, either as Kirkmen, or the clergy, or in name of the Kirk, or as representing the Kirk, either in regard of their Ecclefiastick titles, offices, places, and dignities, or in regard of the temporality or spirituality of their Ecclefiastick benefices, or other pretext what sever, with all acts and conftitutions of convention, counfell, or feffion, or other Judicatory whatsoever, and all practifes and customes what soever, introduced in favours of the faids offices, titles, benefices, or perfons provided thereto; And declares all perfons civill or ecclesiafticall, centured, deprived, confined, or banished, by vertue of what soever acts, decreets, or sentences, given and pronounced by the faids Archbishops and Bishops, or others their colleagues and affociats in their Ecclefiafficall courts, holden by vertue of the acts forefaids, or any of them, or by vertue of the pretended high Commission, and all acts interponed thereto, against the perlons foresaids, for not obedience of the foresaids Acts, or any of them which are now repealed, as faid is, or for not acknowledging their faids courts, or for their pretended contumacy, and not compearance to answer before them, To be null, and of none avail, force, nor effect, and the forefaids perfons to be reftored and reponed against the fame, fuch like as if the famine had never been given nor pronounced.

ACT VII

ACT FOR PLANTING OF KIRKES Unprovided with Ministers through the Patrons default.

HE Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall authority, Confidering the lamentable condition of a great number of Congregations, lying deftitute of Ministers, fince the affembly at Edinburgh, and before, by the negligence of Patrons and others, having interest, to the great prejudice of the Confider

the Gofpel, Therefore do require the Presbyteries, with confent of the Parochins, with all diligence to plant these vacant Kirks, which by the overfight of any Patrons what loever, have lyen fix moneths unprovided. And ordain the Lords of Seffion to give forth fentences and letters in the ordinary forme, for payment of the former flipends of these Kirks, to such as the Presbyteries shall admit, or have already admitted to the office and cure of the ministery in these Kirks, with confent of the Parochins, as faid is, while the famine former stipends of these Kirks be changed by the Lawes of the Countrey. And it is alwaies declared, that this admission, standing good for the prefent intrants their time, is and shall be without prejudice to the right of patronage belonging to his Majesty, or to any other Kirk-patron what loever when so their Kirks shall fall to vaike.

ACT VIII.

ACT ANENT ADMISSION OF Minifters to Kirks which belonged to Bifhopricks.

HE Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall authority, Confidering that the right of patronage and power of prefenting of Minifters to divers Kirks within this Realme, have been acclaimed and poffeffed by the fometime pretended Bifhops and Archbifhops within this Kingdome, by vertue of the 2. Act of Parliament 1606. anent the reflitution of the effate of Bifhops, or by fome other right, or pretence of right, to the very great grief and prejudice of this Kirk, her juft liberty and poffeffion fince the Reformation, by Superintendents, and the Commiffioners of the Kirk before the erection of Presbyteries. And fince by Presbyteries themfelves, who have been refpective in poffeffion, for providing and planting of all Kirks within this Kingdome, belonging to the Bifhopricks, And that even fince their annexation 1587. upon the fute and calling of the Congregations and Paroches, where the Minifters were to ferve in the function of the Minifterie, which is moft TROBALING CHARLES. TH 7 23 Acr. 8 most evident by the 7. act of the 1. Parliament of our dearest father, in the yeare 1567. and by the affignation to Ministers of flipends, out of the thirds of benefices, and letters of horning constantly used to bee direct by deliverance of the Lords of Sellion upon the provisions and admittions of Miniffers to the faids stipends out of the thirds of benefices by Superintendents, Commiffioners of the Kirk and Presbyteries respective without any presentation at all, both before and fince the act of annexation 1587. whereby the Ministers to provided and admitted did brook and enjoy the fruits and rents alligned, and their ftipends during their fife time, and many of their yet living due ftill brook and enjoy the fame. And suchlike, the forefaid priviledge and the right of the Kirk is evident by divers Acts of her Generall Affemblies made thereament, and by her frequent grievances against the ulurpation of Prelats and others, upon her faid right and polleffion, and effectally by her protestation against the forefaid two Acts of Parliament of King Limes the 6. his Majetties Umwhile dearest father, holden in the yeare 1606. whereby the Prelats pretended right of patronages, and advocations of Kirks, and defrauded the Kirk thereof. And now feeing the faid Act of that Parliament in the yeare 1606. is refeinded, caffed, and annulled in this prefent Parliament, and it is most reasonable, that the Kirk be reftored now a ter the abolition of the Estate of Bishops, to the wonted rights, priviledges and liberties which the had, and was in posselsion of before the restitution of Bishops, Therefore the faids Estates of Parliament conveened, as faid is, decernes, statutes and ordaines, that according to the faid 7. Act of the first Parliament of the Kings Majesties Umwhile dearest father, the full power of providing of all Ministers to Kirks, which the faids pretended Bifhops have been in ule to provide, fince the faid A& of their reflitution' 1606. Ihall hereafter belong and appertaine to the Kirk and that in all time coming, Presbyteries (who are now in place of Superintendents and Commissioners of the Kirk) within their feverall jurifdictions, shall provide and admit Minifters to all these vacand Kirks, which before were acclaimed by the forefaids. Bishops, by the faid Act of restitution 1606. to the fruits and stipends thereof, but prejudice alwayes to any patronages of Kirks, which belong either to the Kings Majesty, or to any Laick patron, or to any Nobleman, Baron, or Burgesse right and possession before these late troubles, and but prejudice of the interest of the paroches, according to the Acts and practife of the Kirk fince the Reformation: And declares that the faid provision and admission with collation and institution fol-Iowing thereupon, shall be a sufficient right and title for the Intrant to possesses and enjoy the whole fruits, rents and stipends what sever belonging to the Kirk, and to the Ministers serving the cure thereat. And ordaines the Lords of Sefsion, and all other Judges competent, to give out decreets and fentences, letters conforme, horning, and inhibition, and all other executorialls upon the faid provision and admission of Ministers by Presbyteries, collation and institution following thereupon, fuchlike as they are in ufe to doe upon collation and inftitution, following upon prefentations from lawfull patrons.

ACTIX

DISCHARGING THE GOING OF ACT Salt-pans and Mylnes upon the Sabbath day.

Orfamekle as the Estates of Parliament presently conreened by His Majefties special authority, Conside-Fing that GODS publick worship upon the Sabbath day is hindered, and the Sabbath day prophaned by the going of Mylnes and Salt-pans upon the Sunday; For remeed hereof, the Estates of Parliament presently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall authority dif-charges and prohibites all Salt-pans and Mylnes within this Kingdom, from all going, grinding, making of Salt, or any wayes working upon the Sunday in any time hereafter : And ordaines the Salters, Millers, and other fervants in the faids Mylnes and Salt-pans, to attend GODS publick worship every Sunday hereafter, under the paines and censures contained in the Acts of the Affembly, or other Kirk-Acts set down hereanent. To the which Acts, the faids Estates of Parliament interpones the civil fanction and authority of Parliament for the better execution thereof.

ACT X.

ACT DISCHARGING SALMONDfishing on Sunday.

He Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall authority, Confidering the great a-bufe and prophanation of the Sabbath day, occasioned T bufe and prophanation of the Sabbath day, occafioned by the fifting of Salmond upon that day, whereby many people are with-holden from divine exercife, & are imployed in the ordinary works of their calling, or other wayes have opportunity to mif-fpend their time in unlawfull actions, contrary to the Law of GOD, and Acts of this reformed Kirk: Therefore, for remeed thereof in all time comming, inhibites and difcharges all manner of Salmond-fifting upon the Sabbath day, under the paine to the contraveeners, to be punished as breakers of the Sabbath day, by the confifcation of the nets and fish to the behoofe of the poore.

ACT XI

ACT AGAINST PAPISTS.

WINDERHE Estates of Parliament now presently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall authority, ratifies and ap-proves all and whatfoever acts and ftatutes of Parlia-ment, Convention, or Secret Councell, made against Papists, against fayers and hearers of Masse, and amunicate perlons for papiftry, or for refetting of Jesuits and excommunicate Papists, and against the resetters of the foresaids perfons, or any of them, in the whole heads and articles thereof; And fpecially but prejudice of the generality foresaid, ratifies and approves the Act of Parliament made by his Majesties Father of blessed memory, Parl. 13. cap. 164. and Parl. 14. cap. 193. 194. and the Act made Parl. 20. cap. 5. in the whole heads and articles thereof, And declares, that witting and wilfull refetting of the perfons forefaids, shall be understood to be committed by thele, who (after lawful intimation to be made at the head Burgh of the Shire where they dwell and make their refidence for the most part, and at the market Crosse of Edinburgh, of the names of the Jesuits, Seminary Priests, and excommunicate perfons for the causes forefaid) refets the perfons forefaids by the space of three nights together, or three nights at feveral times (which is the manner of intimation prefcribed by the faid 13. Parl. cap. 164. and by the faid Parl. 20. cap. 59. and that the perfons refetters in manner forefaid, shall be lyable to the paine and punishment contained in the faid Acts, without farther verifying of their notice and knowledge except the intimation forefaid. And alfo declares, that the faids Acts of Parliament ratified, as faid is, shall comprehend not onely men, but women of all quality, and that they and their refetters shall be lyable to the paines therein contained. And fuch like, the Estates ratifies and approves the act of Parliament made by his Majesties Father, Parl. 16. Cap. 17. intituled Act anent non-Communicants, and ordaines every perfon non-communicant, to be lyable to the paines therein contained. And wills and ordaines all Ministers within their Parochins, and all Presbyters within their Presbyteries to take tryall and cognition of the premisses, and that as fully as the Bishops or Archbishops might have done by the forefaids acts or any of them; And abrogates the faids acts in so far as any power is thereby granted to the faid Archbishops and Bishops anent the premiss.

ACT XVII

STATUTARIE APPOINTING PARLIAments to be holden once every three yeare.

He Effates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Maje-The files fpeciall Authoritie; Confidering that by reafon of his Majeflies ordinary refidence forth of this his ancient and na-tive Kingdome, the grievances and complaints of his good Subjects cannot have fo free and eafie accesse to his Majesties eares, as the fame may be conveniently reprefented to his MajeftiesCommiffioners, and the Estates of Parliament from time to time, and how necessary it is that frequent Parliaments be keeped within this Kingdome for preservation of the puritie of the true Religion now by Gods providence established within the same, and for the equall and impartiall administration of Justice to all his Majesties Subjects, and maintaining of peace and concord amongst them, by applying of the true and lawfull remedies to their grievances and complaints, and timous suppressing of all abuses and corruptions, which otherwayes from small beginnings will grow to great diforders, (which frequent Parliaments were continually observed in this Kingdome before his Majesties Father, of happie memorie, went into England;) Have ftatute and ordained that every three yeare, once at least a full and free Parliament shall be holden (and oftner as his Majestie shall be pleased to call them) within the bounds of this Kingdome, in the most commodious place and convenient time to be thought upon, appointed and affixed by his Majeftie or his Commiffioner for the time, and the Estates of Parliament, before the ending and clofing of every Parliament, and to be the laft Act thereof. And the whole Effates witheth, that as it was their happineffe to have his Majefties prefence at all Parliaments, while the King had his relidence in this Kingdome, fo that his Majestie would be pleased to be present at each Parliament, and they humbly supplicate his Majestie for that effect.

ACT XVIII

ANENT THE KEEPERS OF THE CASTLES Of Edinburgh, Striveling, and Dumbartanc.

He Effates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefiles fpeciall Authority; Confidering that the commandement of the Caftle of Edinburgh, wherein the most part of the publike Registers and Records, and the Honours of the Kingdome are keeped; and ficlike the commandement of the Caftle of Striviling and Dumbartane, being a charge of great weight and importance, concerning as well the Kings Majesties honour and fafetie, as the fecuritie and fafetie of this whole Kingdome, ought not to be committed but to fuch perfons, as are knowne and approved by the whole courfe of their life, to be true and faithfull Subjects

31 Subjects to his Majesty, and trustie and well affected Countrey-men, loving, and tendering the peace, prosperitie, and good of this whole Kingdome, and the prefervation and advancement of the true reformed Religion, now therein by Gods providence established and professed, and intertaining of Unitie betwixt the King and his good Subjects : Have therefore statute and ordained, and hereby statutes and ordains that the custody and keeping of the faids Castles shall be only intrusted to fuch perfons as are natives, borne and bred within this Kingdome, known and esteemed to be of the qualitie forefaid, without exception, and who before their entrie and admission to what soever charge, place, or service within the said Castles, or any of them, either as Captaines, Constables, Commanders, Souldiers, or Servants within the fame, shall be bound and oblisht by a solemne oath to be given and made by them, and every one of them, to make faith that they shall faithfully employ what soever power, charge, or fervice committed, or that shall be committed to them within the faids Castles, or any of them, fo far as they can, or in them lyes, to the Kings Majesties honour and fafetie, to the peace, fafetie, good, and prosperitie of this Kingdome, and common-wealth, and to the prefervation and advancement of the true reformed Religion therein presently established and professed, as they will answere to God: Like as incase it shall happen any of the persons forefaids, to doe or attempt any thing contrarie to the premisses, or any part thereof; It is statute and declared that they shall be punished with all rigour, as Traitours and common enemies to the King and Countrey : And farther, That the Captaines and Commanders of the faids Castles, shall be chosen by his Majestie from time to time by advice of the Estates of Parliament, and that such as shall happen to be placed therein betwixt Parliaments, shall be first tryed and found by his Maje-Ities Councell to be of the qualitie above-exprest, and shall have the charge thereof only, to the next enfuing Parliament, by the which they shall of new be tryed and allowed, or otherwise his Majestie shall place otherstherein by the advice of the Estates, as faid is : Alwayes without prejudice of the Earle of Mar his heritable right of the keeping of the Castle of Striviling.

ACT XIX. ANENT PRODUCTION OF THE REGIfters and Records of Parliament to the first Seffion of each Parliament.

hibite and produce the fame, as they shall be required by the Estates in time of Parliament, that they may have the use and inspection thereof upon all occafions, as they shall thinke expedient for clearing of whatfoever difficulties · And ficlike that the Clerk of Register, or some having power from him, and intrusted with the keeping of the Registers, shall be present at all times, and shall be ready to give extracts to the Lieges in their particular affaires, upon their reasonable charges, and expenses, and both these under the paine of deprivation of the party contraveening any of the faids members of the Acts, or to be otherwayes more mildley or feverely punished, as the Parliament shall finde the fault to demerit.

ACT XX. G ALL PROXIES TO DISCHARGING ΒE Admitted in Parliament, and that no forraine Noble-man shall have place and voice in Parliament, unleffe they have ten thousand merkes of land- rent within the Kingdome.

He Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall Authoritie, Confidering how farre the dignity, honour, and authoritie of the high and fupreme Court of Parliament, which is the great Councel of this Kingdom, hath been and is yet likely to be farther diminifhed & weakened by two reatons, one is the ujving of power of voicing and markets one is, the giving of power of voicing and reafoning to Proxies and Procurators in absence of such as are als much tyed to give their personall judgement, as their personall prefence, and hathall these honours, riding, sitting, reasoning, and voicing in Parliament, only conferred on them and their Successfours perforally; fo that it is as abfurd that they should give power to any, to reason or voice for them, as to give any power to ride and to fit in their place of honour, and dignitie : And it might tend to the weakning and utter overthrow of Parliaments: For thus the absence of the most part of the best qualified, and experienced might be supplied by Proxies granted to a few, and of leffe abilities. The other is, the granting to ftrangers, having titles of honour conferred on them without any other interest in this Kingdome, power of fitting, riding, reafoning, confulting, and voicing in this Court of Parliament, whereas none should be members of this Court but fuch as have enterest by Birth, Bloud, or Inheritance within this Kingdom, and fo may be fenfible of the prejudice or advantage following the lawes and conftitutions thereof: Therefore the faids Effates ftatutes & ordains, that hereafter all Noblemen, viZ. Dukes, Marqueffes, Earles, Vicounts, and Lords, shall give their perfonal presence in all Parliaments, & fo being perfonally prefent, realon, and advise, & voice, and no wayes by proxies or procurators: but difchargeth any fuch procurator and commissions in all time comming: and that no perfons shal hereafter have any place or voice in Parliament, as faid is, but fuch Noblemen before specified; and Commissioners from Shyres and Burrows, as have enterest, either by Birth, Bloud, or by Inheritance within this Kingdome, and that proportional to the honor and dignity they carry, which in the least proportion for every Nobleman must be ten thoufand marks by yeare of land rent. And that notwithstanding any gifts or patents granted, or to be granted to any perfon whatfoever. Suchlike the estates foresaid, casses and annulls all acts and constitutions any wayes derogatory to this prefent Act or any part thereof.

He Estates of Parliament now presently conveened by his Majesties special authority, for the explanati-on of the 18. Act of the late Parliament holden at E-dinburgh, in the moneth of June 1633. year, intituled, Anent the Exchequer, Finds, declares, flatutes, and ordaines, that the validity or invalidity of Infeftments of his Highnefle property, or of any other Infeftments, may not be difcuft nor decided in Exchequer, neither by way of Action, Exception, or Reply, but that the difcuffing and decifion thereof, is onely proper to the Lords of Seffion. It is added, that the Exchequer are onely Judges to matters concerning the managing of the KingsRents and Cafualities. ACT XXIII. IN FAVOURS OF THESE WHO HELD their lands of Arch-bifhops, Bifhops, or of their Chapters.

He Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefties fpecial Authority;confidering that the Offices of Arch-bifhops, Bifhops, Archdeanes, Deanes, and others the members of their Chapters are now abolifhed out of this Kirke and Kingdome: And herewith alfo taking to their confideration that there is fundrie Noble-men, Gentle-men, and others within this Realme, who held their lands of the faids Archbifhops, Bishops, Archdeanes, Deanes, and others, members of Chapters (who are now abolished forth of this Kirke and Kingdome, as faid is) for payment of certaine yearely few dueties, and fulfilling of certain claufes irritant, and performing of other conditions contained in their Infeftments, Takes, and Rights: And who not knowing to whom they shall now pay their saids dueties, and fulfill the other conditions of their Infeftments and Rights, may be prejudged by incurring of the failzie, and danger of the clause irritant of their faids Rights for not payment of their few and other dueties therein specified: And by the incurring of the certification contained in the Acts of Parliament fet downe anent the payment by Vassels of their few dueties to their Superiours : The faids Effates for remeed hereof, and for eschewing of the prejudice and danger that may come hereby, Findes and declares, that these Noble-men, Gentle-men, and others who by their Infestments, Takes, and Rights, are adebted in payment of few and Take dueties, or oblight in fulfilling of any other conditions to the faids Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeanes, Deanes, or other beneficed perfons, members of their Chapters now abolished, as faid is, are not, and shall not be in mora, for not payment of their faids dueties, and not fulfilling of the other conditions of their Rights: And that the claufe irritant of their Infeftments, Takes, and other Rights shall not runne against them; Nor yet the certification of the faids Acts of Parliament militat against them, for not payment of their faids dueties, and not fulfilling of the other clause of the Rights during the intervall of time, betwixt the first day of April 1638. yeares, and sensione, and in time coming, while order be taken by the Estates of Parliament, anent the way and manner of payment of the forefaids few and other dueties for the fayds Noble-men, Gentlemen, and others forelaids, their fecurity for the payment thereof, and while the fame order fo to be taken by the Estates hereanent, be publickly notified to all the Lieges, notwithstanding of any clause irritant, contained in the foresaids Infestments and Rights: And notwithstanding of the certification of the Acts of Parliament set downe against these who payes not their few dueties to their Superiours.

ACT XXIIII

ANENT VASSALS OF ERECTIONS, THAT They be not fubject in double payment, nor the fuperiours defrauded of their few dueties.

HE Eftates of Parliament conveened by his Majefties fpeciall Authoritie: Confidering that whereas by the generall furrender of Kirke lands and erections, made by the Superiours and Titulars thereof, in favours of the Kings Majeftie: It is fpecially provided, that the faids Superiours and Titulars notwithftanding their furrender forefaid, fhall have right to the Few-fermes, and duties of the Vaffals and Fewars of the faid Kirk lands and erections, till the Kings Majesty make paiment to them of the prices of the faid Few-firmes, and duties modified by the Lords, and others of the Commission for furrenders and teinds. And ficlike the Fewars and Vaffals of the faid Kirk lands and erections', are obliged by their new infeftments under the great Seale, to pay the faids Fewfermes and duties to the Kings Majestie and His Successions And foare lyable to double payment thereof, without remeed bee provided. It is therefore statute and ordained by the faids Estates, that the faids Fewars and Vaffals of Kirke lands and erections, their heirs and fucceffours, shall bee obliged to make thankfull payment of the faids Few-fermes, and duties, and fervices used and wont, contained in their Infertments, and whereof the faids Superiours and Titulars have beene in possession preceding that furrender forefaid to the faids Superiours and Titulars, their heirs and fucceffours, aye and while they get payment of the prices modified by the faids Lords, and others of the Commission forefaid : And that Letters of horning and poinding shall be granted to that effect, without prejudice alwayes to his Majestie and his Successions, of the Superiority of the faids Fewars and Vassals furrendred in manner forefaid, and without prejudice to them of their infeftments, taken to be holden of his Majestie and his successions: Like as it is declared, that the faidsFewars and Vassals of Kirke lands and erections, have beene in bona fide in payment of the faids Few-fermes and dueties to the faids Superiours and Titulars of all termes by-gone, according to the provision contained in the faid generall furrender.

ACT XXV.

APPOINTING ALL GRIEVANCES TO Begiven in plaine Parliament.

HE Estates of Parliament presently conveened by his Majesties special Authority, confidering that the Act of Parliament made in Anno 1594. in the 14. Parliament of King Fames the 6. cap 218. whereby all matters and grievances to be given in to Parliament, are appointed to be given to his Majesties Clerk of Register, and by him presented to the Estates, Hath bred great hurt, and prejudice to the liberties, and free-dome of this Kirke and Kingdome, and Subjects thereof in time bygone, as is evident by experience of the evils that hath flowed therefrom. Therefore, the faids Estates for remeed hereof, retreats, refcinds, casses, and annuls the forefaid Act of Parliament, and declares the fame to be null and of none availe, force, nor effect in all time comming: And ordaines and appoints all grievances, and other matters that are to be handled and treated of in Parliament hereafter, to be given in, and prefented in open and plaine Parliament in all time comming.

ACT XXVI

Parliament of the Kings umwhile dearest Father, All Councels, Conventions or Affemblies without the Kings command or licence, are alfo discharged, under the paines ordained by the Acts of Parliament, against such as unlawfully convocates the Kings Lieges: And that also by fundry other preceding Statutes and Acts of Parliament made by his Majesties most noble Progenitors, the foresaid Leagues, Bands, Counfels, Conventions, and Meetings, are likewife discharged. And herewith alfo the faid Estates, taking to their confideration what was the true end and meaning for making of the forefaid Acts, & how farre the fame in equitie and reason can be extended, findes and declares that the forefaid Acts and Laws particularly and generally before exprest, is not, nor cannot bee extended against any Bands, Leagues, Counfels, Conventions, Assemblies, Committees, or Meetings, made, holden, and kept by the Subjects, for maintenance and prefervation of the Kings Majestie, the Religion, Lawes, and Liberties of the Kingdome, or for the publick good, eyther of Kirk or State. But the said Estates findes and declares, that all these Bands, Conventions, Committees, and other meetings made and keeped by the Estates and Subjects of this Kingdome, for the publike good of King, Kirke and State, and intended for the defence and prefervation thereof fince the beginning of these present troubles, are not prohibited nor discharged by the foresaids Lawes and Acts of Parliament, particularly and generally before rehearfed, nor none of them. And can no wayes be underftood, nor interpret to fall within the compasse of the discharge and prohibition of the forefaids Acts, and doth no wayes contraveene the same, nor none of them. And therefore the saids Estates ratifies, approves, and allowes all the faids Bands, Conventions, Committees, and other Meetings, which are, and have beene made and keeped within this Kingdome, for the defence and prefervation of the Kings Majeftie, the Religion, Lawes, and Liberties of this Kirke, and Kingdome, fince the beginning of the present troubles thereof. And declares the fame to bee lawfull and legall deeds, and that they doe no wayes contraveene the foresaids Acts of Parliament respective above mentioned, nor none of them, nor no other Law, nor constitution of this Kingdome.

ACT XXX

ANENT THE WARD AND MARRIAGE OF Thefe who fhall happen to be killed in the defence of the Religion and Liberties of Kirke and Kingdome.

He Effates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall Authority, Taking to their confideration the prejudice that may come to thefe Subjects, who holds their lands ward of the Kings Majefty, or of any other Superiour what foever, and fhall happen to be killed in the defence and maintenance tenance of the Religion, and of the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdome, during the time of the present troubles thereof, hath statute and ordained, and hereby statutes, ordaines, and declares, that the profit and benefit of the ward marriage, none entresse, and reliefe falling by the decease of any of these who shall happen to be killed in manner and for the caufe forefaid, with the whole commoditie that can follow upon the fame, shall onely pertaine, and freely be given and difponed to the heires Relick and Bairnes, of thefe who shall happen fo to be killed as followes, viz. Where the Relicke and remanent Bairnes (by the heire) shall be found provided by the Defunct, Then in that case the whole benefite of the ward marriage, none entresse and reliefe shall folely belong to the heire. But where the Relicke and remanent Bairnes (by the heire) be's not found provided, in that case the benefite of the marriage shall onely pertaine to the heire, and the profite, commoditie, and benefite of the ward, none entresse, and reliefe shall be imployed and used for the entertainment and maintenance of the Relicke and Bairnes unprovided : And alfo for the entertainment of the heire, if he have no other meanes for maintenance: And what is overplus by the Relicke and Bairnes, their entertainment forelaid, ordaines the same superplus to be imployed for the provifion of the faid remanent Bairnes, by the heire unprovided, as faid is. Providing alwayes, that the faids heires, and other perfons forefaids, to whom the benefite of the faids ward, marriage, none entresse, and reliefe is appointed to pertaine in manner respective before rehearsed, Be's found not to have fludden against the maintenance of Religion, lawes and liberties of Kirke and Kingdome, contrair to the late Covenant, ratified in this prefent Parliament : And also the faids Estates findes and declares, that the Kings Majestie, and all other Superiours whatsoever of the faids ward, holdings, shall be altogether secluded from the benefite of the forefaid ward, marriage, none entresse, and reliefe falling by decease of their Vassals, in manner, and for the cause before rehearfed.

ACT XXXI

SECOND PARLIAMENT Acr 33.

Stewartries, Regalities, and others what foever within this Kingdome, in every thing which concernes the publick, and for the maintenance of the Armies, and other necessar imployments through the whole Kingdome, in fuch forme and manner as the faids Commiffioners, or fo many of them as are a Quorum, in manner after-specified, shall direct and appoint : And generally with full power to them to doe all and fundrie other things requisite, anent the ordering, directing, managing, profecuting, and executing of all affaires, and bufineffe of this Kingdome, which may or can conduce to the weale of this Kingdome, or any part thereof : And which ought, and fhould, or fhall be needfull to be done by them, for maintenance and prefervation of the Religion, and liberties of this Kingdome, anent the premiffes: Without prejudice alwayes of the ordinarie Judicatories, as faid is. And further, with power to the faids Commiffioners of Effate, to nominate and conftitute Commissioners, over-feers, and all other officers, as well in the Armie as in the Countrey, fo oft as occasion and neceffity shall require, for maintaining of the Armie in every thing neceffar, and for exercifing and difcharging of all other things needfull for the publick, through the whole Kingdome, (without prejudice of the generall Commissars gift) And it is hereby ordained that the forme and manner of the proceedings of the faids Commiffioners of Estate, and the places of their refidence respective, shall bee in manner after-specified, viz. There shall be two constant places of their refidence, whereof the one shall be at Edinburgh, or any other convenient place, where they may most conveniently and fafely fit and refide, And the other shall be constantly at the Armie, who shall keepe correspondence the one with the other, anent their proceedings. And it is ordained, that there shall be twelve of every Eftate for both Committees, making eighteene for every Committee; and the Quorum to be thus, viz. Three of each estate, when the Estates are full, or any feven promiscuously, when any of the Estates keepeth not, and when any of the perfons nominate upon this Commission shall decease, it shall be leisome to the most part of the Quorum of that Estate in Edinburgh, or at the Camp respective, to appoint any other of their owne Estate in place of the perfon deceasing, viz, The Quorum at Edinburgh, or other-where elle, to nominate the perfonin place of the partie inlacking of the Commission appointed to refide at Edinburgh or other-where elfe: And the Quorum of the Committee at the Camp to nominate the perfon in place of the partie inlacking of the Committee at the Camp. And it is ordained that the forenamed Commissioners divide their numbers proportionally, and with fuch equalitie, as neither the Armie nor the Countrey at any time shall want a competent number, to sit and refide constantly for determining of all matters incumbent to them : And what ever the forefaid Quorum of perfons at Edinburgh, or in the Countrey, or moe of them, and what ever the forefaid Quorum of perfons, or moe of them being at the Camp shall determine, decerne, and ordaine, in any cause, businesse, or debate incumbent to them, the fame shall have the full strength of a valide and lawfull

decreet and fentence, or what ever businesse, or conveniencie, shall be prescribed by the foresaids Quorums respective, or either of them, the fame shall be as valide, as if it were done by the whole number; Providing alwaies, that none of the faids Quorums, either these who shall refide at Edinburgh, or these who shall be with the Armie severally by themselves, shall ingage in warre with any Nation, or make capitulation of agreement, without mutuall confent of the whole, at the least of both the Quorums. And because it is expedient, that the faids Commissioners of Estate have a sufficient trustie and able Clerke, for keeping of all the Records, Registers, Acts, Bands, Warrands, and other Papers whatfoever, which concerne the Publick, or the faids Judicatories: And the Estates of Parliament having reall experience of the truft, qualification, and ability of Master Adam Hepburne of Humbie, for discharging of the same office and place, Therefore the faids Estates of Parliament doe hereby create, nominate, and constitute the faid Master Adam Hepburne to be Clerke to the saids Commissioners of Estate, and other of them, with all Priviledges, Liberties, Casualities, Fees, and Immunities belonging thereto: With power to him to fubstitute Deputes, one or moe, for whom he shall be answerable: To the effect, that either he, or his Deputes, may be alwayes present: So that none of the faids Judicatories be interrupted for want of Clerkes. Which Clerke forefaid, and his Deputes, shall have the trust, charge, and keeping of all the Papers, Registers, Records, and others forefaids, which concerne the Premisses, and the Acts, and Subscriptions of the faid Clerk and his Substitutes, shall make as great faith as the Acts and Subscriptions, of any other Clerke within this Kingdome. The faids Commissioners and Clerks being countable to the Estates of Parliament : With power also to the faids Commissioners, or the Quorum refiding at Edinburgh, or other where else, to conveene the whole bodie of the Estates, when they shall finde necessity: And this Commission to endure aye and while the next meeting of Estates, either in Convention or Parliament : And that the fame be discharged by either of them. And it is hereby declared, That if any of these whose turne fals to be present, shall be absent, by whose neglect the businessie may be disappointed, The faids Quorums, or any of them shall enjoyne such paines and penalties, either upon their perfons or goods, as they shall find the saids persons of the faid Committee to demerit for their absence from any of the faid places respective. And because there will fall out in the campa neceffity either of treaties, confultations or publike declarations, to shew the reasons of the Demands and proceedings in the Asfembly and Parliament, and the prejudices against either of them, The Estates ordaines Master Archbald Iohnstoun Procurator for the Kirk, as best acquaint with these reasons, and prejudices, to attend his Excellence, and to be prefent at all occasions with the faid Committee, for their further information and clearing thereanent, with power to any of the faids Quorums, to take the oathes of these who are presently abfent for their faithfull, dutifull, and diligent endeavours in the performance of their duetie in the foresaid Commission: Like as it is here-

ACT XXXIV.

ANENT THE COMMON RELIEFE.

The Article Orlomuch as at the Convention of the Estates, holden in Fanuarie 1640. years, It was voluntarily offered, that for defraying of the common charges, and for other neceffars and urgent expences, every man fhould pay the tenth part of his yearly Rent, as well to Burgh as Land-ward, for the Cropt and yeare of God, 1639. conforme to the valuations to be made within and without Burgh respective: And for that effect did voluntarily oblige themfelves thereunto, as the bands granted thereanent by the Heritours within the feverall Presbyteries and Burghs more fully proports : Which band and whole tenour thereof, the faids Eftates now conveened in Parliament, ratifies and approves in all points as the fame is conceived, as well anent the payment of the faid tenth part, as anent the retention of the proportionall part of the annuall Rent in manner therein express : And ficlike, in respect that the burdens of the common charges daily increaseth, and that the Heritours to Land-ward, and Burgeffes within Burghs beare the fame, conforme to their rents, trade, houfe-mails, and others, whereby yearly profit and commoditie arifeth, without respect to their moneys: Therefore it is ordained, that the moneys or annuall rent, or life-rent shall beare an equall and proportionall burden with the faid rents, trade, and houfe-mails by way of retention, as well for the forefaid tenth part, as in all other burdens, the Countrey is, or shall bee put unto by generall order, and the termes of retention to be conforme to the termes of payment of the faid tenth part, or of any other burden imposed, or to be imposed upon the faid rents, trade, or others forefaid, after the proportion thereof shall bee determined by the Commissioners, Auditours of the accompts of the common burdens, appointed for that effect, untill which time no debtours shall have power to retaine any part or portion of his annuall rent or life-rent further then the faid tenth part for the crop and year 1639. And because the prefent expedition, or any other exallanerly. pedition hereafter requires advancement by the Heritours and Burghs, of the two part of the foote-men and horfe-men their pay con-, forme to the rents and valuations of each Shire and Burgh which will bee only in fome Sherifdomes and Burghs: And to the effect that the burden may bee equall through the whole Kingdome: Therefore it is ordained, that the faid advancement and provision shall be put in compt by the Shire, Burgh, Regiment, or Company, who shall fend out their men in the faid expedition, or in any other expedition or fervice neceffar, as the Councell of Effate and Generall shall command

Acr 34.

49 command, and the faids accompts, to bee given in to the faids Commissioners Auditors thereof, who shall have power to comptroll, fit, or allow the fame: Which compts being fo fitted and allowed, shall be a part of the common burthen to bee ramburfed and allowed to the advancers thereof: And because a great part of the Presbyteries and burghs of this Kingdome have not as yet reported their valuations perfectly and rightly, done conforme to the generall order: Therefore it is ordained, that all the presbyteries and burghs within this Kingdome, who have not as yet made report of their faids valuations in forme and manner above-specified, shall report the same betwixt and thetwenty day of June instant, be-fouth Tay, and betwixt and the first day of July next to come be-north Tay, and that either under the hands and subscriptions of the sworne men, appointed within each presbyterie, testifying the same to bee true upon their conscience and credit according to their knowledge after the most exact and true informations they could get, or otherwayes, under the hands of the heritors or magistrates, upon their consciences, and credit: or last, by the fubscriptions of the heritors and magistrates their hands, but with this caveat, that what is concealed of land, rent, trade or other rent (whereby profit or commodity arifeth, or didarife the fayd yeare) the whole rent thereof, or the equivalent and availe of the fame, shall bee confiscate to the publick use, and the generall collector appointed to uplist and receave the same, and if need bee, to pursue therefore. And (that no fubterfuge and concealment be used in valuations) it is appointed, that all land, trade, shipping, salmond-fishing, and other yearly commodity what soever, whereby profit did arise the fayd yeare, shall bee fully and truely given up without partiality, as the up-givers will either bee answerable on their consciences, or the heritors upon the hazard of confilcation. And likewife it is ordained, that all money whatfoever, which payes annuall rent to any perfon not lyable in the foresaid contribution, shall pay a proportionable part of their sayd annuall rent to the publick use, as the same shall be imposed, as well for the faid tenth part as for the burthens hereafter to be imposed: And for that effect, the valuers to take particular notice of fuch fummes, and in cafe any delay or refuse, to fend in their faids valuations to the Clerk of the fame at Edinburgh, betwixt and the faids dayes respective, in that case it is declared, that the delayers or refufers shall bee esteemed and valued conforme to their retoures or otherwayes, as the Committee at Edinburgh shall thinke fit, and a proportion layed on accordingly, which they shall be holden to pay without any deduction or favour in time comming: And fuch like for in-bringing of the monys, conforme to the faids valuations, it is appointed, that there be collectors chosen in every presbyterie (where there are none chosen as yet) by the Gentle-men and heritors, and that the Commissioners of shires see the fame done, and cause the faids collectors (so be chosen) fubscribe bands for doing of their diligence, and making payment of the collection to the generall collector, and fend the same into Edinburgh to him. And where the valuations are already brought in, and collectors already made, it is ordained, that the faids collectors shall, Sadan S with

Έ

THE SECOND PARLIAMENT. ACT 34. 50 with all possible diligence, fend all the money they have to the principall Collector at Edinburgh, and shall use all possible diligence for the reft, and give in their diligence to the faid principall Collector, With certification, if any, lyable in payment of the faid tenth part, fhall not pay to the faids Collectors the fummes due by them, conforme to the faids valuations, the faid principall Collector or his deputes shall use all lawfull execution against them where the bands are subscribed and where the bands are not fubscribed, they shall be repute, and us fed as non-Covenanters. And to take away all objections for not paying of the faid tenth part, it is appointed, that every Presbyterie and burgh shall fend in their moneys, due for the tenth part, without deduction of any part of it, except what is allowed for pay to their officers before the first of February last, and prices of victuall delivered to Commissars, for the publick use, or by warrant from the Com. mittee: And if they have not ready money, they shall borrow the fame, from any perfon or perfons to burgh or land-ward, where it may be had upon their owne fecurity : And if any perfon or perfons, of what soever ranke, degree, or calling, shall refuse to lend the fame (referving alwayes fo much thereof, as may reafonably ferve his owne private use, and his family, according to this estate and quality) upon the faid fecurity, It shall bee liefome to them, to conveene them before any ordinary Judge, or Committee of the thire, or Presbytery: Which being lawfully proved, by writ, witneffe, or oath of party, that they have money, and refuse to lend the same, They shall beholden as opposites to the common cause, and the money to bee confiscate, the one halfe to the apprehenders, and the other to the publick use: And because there is a present necessity of moneys, by and attour the faid tenth part, Therefore it is appoynted, and ordained, That every presbyterie within this kingdome shall lend to the publick use, the twentieth part of the rent, contained in the valuations, and that by and attour the faid tenth part, upon declaration and Act to bee made by the Committee from the Estates, that the same is given and lent by them for the publick businesse, to bee repayed, together with the annuall rents thereof, when a common courfe is laid downe, and profecute for reliefe of the common burthens, to bee ended with all possible diligence: And the furthest fhires to returne their bands or money betwixt and the first day of July next; Or otherwayes it shall bee liesome to the faid Committee, from the Estates, to find out the money in manner, and with certification forefaid, and to defigne to the havers of the faid money any Noble-men, Gentlemen, Burgeffes, or fubftantious wealthy men, within each presbytery, one or moe, who shall be oblisht to give band or security to the faids lenners, for repayment thereof, and annuall rents for the fame, in the ordinary forme, the fumme not exceeding the faid proportion of the faid twentieth part of the valuation of the faid presbytery. For reliefe of the which perfons, one or moe who shall give band or fecurity forefaid, the whole heritors of the faid presbytery, as well to burgh as landward, shall be bound, conforme to the proportion of their rents and ducties: and for that effect, shall have action of reliefe against them, in cafe in cafe of diftreffes : And fuch like, it is declared, That all the Bands, Contracts, and other oblifhments for fummes of money already borrowed for the publick use, shall be relieved and payed by all the heritors within this Kingdome, as well to Burgh as land-ward, conforme to the valuations proportionally: And that thefe who have fubscribed the faids bands, contracts, and other oblifhments forefaids, shall have their reliefe of the whole Shires and Burghs, conforme to the feverall proportions, as well thefe who have fubfcribed, as thefe who have not lubfcribed the faids bands and other forefaids: And where the valuers and collectors, chosen, or to bee chosen, refuse to go on and perfeet the faids valuations, or collect the tenth part in manner above fpecified, in that cafe they or any of them shall bee holden and repute as enemies to the common cause: without prejudice alwayes, in case after their fayd refufall to the heritors and magistrates, to doe any of the other two alternatives, and in cafe the fayd Heritors or Magistrates delav after the faids dayes respective, the foresayd certification to be valide against them in manner forefaid : And it is hereby dechared, that if any perfon or perfons within or without Burgh shall upon their oathes declare to the faids Valuers or Auditours, that they pay annuall rent to ftrangers, dwelling without this Kingdome, of whom they cannot have the retention of the proportionall part of the contribution due out of the faid annuall rent, in that cafe the faids valuers or auditours shall defaulk proportionally to the faids perfon or perfons contribution of their trade, craft, rent, and estate, as they shall finde agreeable to equity and reafon. And fuch like, it is hereby declared that this prefent Act, nor no claufe therein shall bee any ground of Suspension to any debtour for retention of the principall fummes adebted by him, and byrun annuall rents: But that every creditour may fute, crave, and charge for the fame after the day of payment, as accords of the law: As alfo it is statute and ordained, that these debtors who shall not pay their annuall rents termly at least within fix moneths after each terme of payment of the faid annuall rent, shall have no retention of the faid proportionall part of the faid contribution. And fuch like, it is hereby declared, that this prefent manner of stenting for the faid collection and contribution shall no wayes prejudge any person whatsoever in succeeding taxations; But that every mans right and claime anent the prejudice may arife concerning the fame and manner thereof, whereby any man can inftruct, enorme leftoun, and that he was unequally ftented, Is hereby fpecially referved hinc inde. And laft, It is ftatute and ordained, that the Lords of Seffion shall bee Judges to all Suspensions to be raifed in the faid collection and contribution in fuch forme and manner asthey are, and have been in matters of taxation.

ACT XXXV

ORDAINING SUMMONDS TO BE DIRECT and execute against the persons, who are culpable of the crimes and faults, contained in the Act, to compeare before the next Seffion of Parliament.

THE Effates of Parliament conveened by his Majefties fpeciall Authoritie, Confidering the prefent strait and exigencie, menacing the ruine of this Kingdome, and how necessary it is, for preventing thereof, that these who have beene the authors, or are the maintainers and affifters of these courses that are destructive to the liberties of this Kirk and Kingdome, and that either by their false fuggestions and calumnious relations of the Estates of this Kingdome, and their proceedings to his Majestie, or by their comming in Armes against this their mother Countrey, and contributing to further our Adversaries in their intended and professed plots and violences, for the fubduing and destroying this Kingdome, or by their rising in Armes within the Countrey, fortifying and keeping of Castles, and houses against the Estates, who defend the Countrey against all forraigne invalions and fubjection, or by deferting their native Countrey in fuch an extreame necessitie, and with-drawing from them all the affistance they can: That all these and others in the like condition be diffinguished, and censured according to the severall degrees of their tranigreffion against the State and Kingdome, Therefore they grant full power and warrand to the Committee, which is to fit at Edinburgh, for to direct in their name precepts to the Lion King of Armes, and his brethren Heraulds and Meffengers, to passe, warne, and charge in name of the faids Estates, the persons underwritten:

And all others whom the faid Committee upon like probable grounds can suspect to have been the Liefing-makers, and tellers, and falfe accufers of the States of this Kingdome, and their proceedings to the Kings Majestie, as seditions, rebellious and treasonable, to have beene the instigatours, framers, and up-drawers of the strange Proclamations, and Declarations made against his Majesties Subjects and Estates, as Rebels and Traitours, or to have risen, or rise in Armes, and concurre with the adverfaries, for fubduing of this their native Countrey, or to fortifie, keepe, or detaine Strengths, or Castles against the Estates of this Kingdome, who stand to their Covenant, for

53 Acr 36. for defending their Religion, Crown, and Countrey, Or wittingly and willingly to with-draw their affiftance from their mother Countrey, in this extremity, and contribute their help and countenance to the adversaries, and all others who are either authours, abetters, maintainers, or suppliers, or art and part, or have any hand in countenancing and concurring with our adversaries, to the subduing and destroying of this Kingdome, and efpecially thefe that have feemed to joyne with us, and have subscribed the Covenant, for to compeare personally on day at Edinburgh before the Parliament at the next Seffion thereof, to answer unto these and all other crimes of that kinde, which may bee layed to their charge, and that under the paine of treason and forefaultrie for their contumacie, in cafe of not compearance: Like as the Estates declares that these precepts being subscribed by the Prases and Quorum of the Committee foresaid, shall bee as sufficient, as if they were subfcribed in Parliament.

ACT XXXVI

KINGS VASSELS FAVOURS O F THE IN of ward-lands, recommending their prejudice by the Act 1633. to the confideration of the next Anno Parliament, and in the meane time while then, sufpending the force and execution of that Act.

H E Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall Authority, Taking to their confide-ration the bounty and benevolence of the Kings Ma-jefties most noble Progenitors, King James the fe-cond, and King James the fourth, giving their Vassels De liberty to fet ward-lands few: And likewife confidering how the Kings Vaffels of ward-lands are fecluded from that benefite by the Act 1633. which feemeth to be done by mif-information of the Kings Majesty, and contrary to the intention of the Parliament, to debarre the Subjects of the bounty and benevolence of the Kings Majesty towards them, which was formerly granted by his Progenitours, Recommendeth the ferious confideration hereof, with the meaning and intention of the Kings, and the Eftates, in fetting downe of the forefaids Acts, and how farre the fame Acts can be extended to the prejudice of the Vassels (the Act Anno 1633. being only a ratification of a former Act made in favours of the Subjects, and appointing the fame to be extended to lands holden of the King and Prince, and not a direct Act for these lands) to the next meeting of the Parliament : And in the meane time, while the determination thereof, the Estates suppresses and fufpends the force and execution of the Act 1633 against the KingsVassels of ward-lands, and exeemes them from that Act during the faid interim.

ACT XXXVII

APPOINTING THE FEES FOR THE Procurator, the Clerk, and Agent for the Kirk.

He Effates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majeflies fpeciall Authoritie, Taking to their confi-deration, the defire of the laft Affembly, and the fup-plication of the Commissioners of the Kirk, craving that the Advocate for the Kirk, the Clerk of the Af-fembly, and the Agent for the Kirk, may be provided to Fees and Penfions, for their fervice in that charge out of the Kirk rents belonging to the late Bishopricks, as they have had their Pensions payed to them out of the same, fince the Reformation. For the Procurator of the Kirk had affigned to him foure last, halfe last cost, extending to fix chalders twelve bowles meal and malt out of the readiest duties of the Bishopricke of orknay yearly : In place whereof, after the restitution of Bishops Anno 1606. there was five hundreth pounds ordained to be payed out of the Kings Checker to the Advocate for the Kirk: Like as the Clerk of the generall Affembly, fince the Reformation, and before the reftitution of Bishops, and by the Bishops themselves, conforme to their Band in Janu. 1610. yeares, had five hundreth markes payed to him yearly, and the Agent for the Kirk had a continuall penfion payed to him out of the Kirk rents for his charge. And herewith alfo, the faid Estates confidering the necessitie of the faids Officers of Advocate, Clerk, and Agent for the Kirks businesse, with the weight of that charge, and continuall attendance requisite thereto, ordaines, and appoints the fumme of a thousand markes of Fee and Pension to be payed yearly to Master Archbald Johnstoun present Advocate for the Kirk, and to his successions, chosen and appointed by the Assembly in that place for the Fee of that charge, as Procurator for the Kirk, and the fumme of five hundreth markes to be payed yearly to the faid Master Archbald Johnstoun as present Clerk to the generall Assemblies of the Kirk, for the Fee and Penfion of that office, and to his Succeffours chosen and appointed by the Assembly in that place, for the difcharge thereof and fervice thereintill : And the fumme of other five hundreth markes of Fee and Penfion yearly to bee payed to Master Robert Dalgleish present Agent for the Kirk, and to his Succeffours chosen and appointed by the Assembly in that charge. And in respect, that the Advocate, Clerk, and Agent for the Kirk, must have their continuall refidence at Edinburgh, for attending the affairs of the Kirk, and that the faids Fees and Penfions ought to bee payed out of the Bishops rents, and that the faids officers, should be payed thereof, out of the nearest and most commodious rents, belonging to

to the faids Bishopricks, Therefore the faids Estates, ordaines the faids fees and penfions to be payed to the faids prefent officers, and to their successours respective, in that charge out of the readiest of the few duties, and out of the quotes of Testaments of the diocesse of S. Andrews, Glasgow, and Edinburgh, according to the proportion and division to be determinate and set down, by the Committee, from this prefent Parliament appointed to remaine at Edinburgh : and ordaines the forefaids fees, to be payed conforme to that division by the heritors, fewars, fermorers, and others adebted in payment of the few duties of the faids three Bishopricks, and by the collectors, and intrometters with the faids quotes of Testaments : And also ordaines the Lords of Seffion to direct letters on this prefent Act, and upon the determination and division of the faid Committee, at the instance of the Advocate, Clerk, and Agent for the Kirk, present and to come, for payment to them yearly, of their faids fees and penfions abovespecified. And because that the present Procurator, Clerk, and Agent, have been ferving the Kirk, in these places these two yeares by-gone, without receiving their fees otherwayes due to them, and that the rents of the faids two veares, are yet untaken up, by the pretended Bishops of Edinburgh, Glasgow, and S. Andrews, but are restand in the tenants and collectors hands, Therefore they ordaine their entrie of payment, to be to the crop and yeare of God, 1638. yeares.

ACT XXXVIII

ORDAINING THE WHOLE SUBJECTS And Lieges of this Kingdome to obey, maintaine, and detend the Conclusions, Acts and Constitutions of this prefent feffion of Parliament, and to fubscribe the band appointed for that effect.

N the Parliament holden at Edinburgh, the eleventh day of fune 1640. yeares, the Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened, by his Majefties fpeciall authority, Confidering that whereas, after many petitions and fupplications given in and prefented to his Majeftie, and the Lords of his fecret councell, by divers of the Nobility, Barons, and Burgeffes of this Kingdome, for granting a free Generall Affembly and Parliament, for reforming of many great abufes and novations, tending to the overthrow of the true reformed Religion, and undoing of this Kirk and Kingdome, devifed and brought in by the late pretended Bifhops, who by their fubtle practifes, during his Majefties abfence, thefe many yeares, had ingroft in their perfons, all the Ecclefiaftick and civill Power of this his Majefties ancient and native Kingdome; It was granted by his Majeftie, out of his Royall Juftice, and accorded

THE SECOND PARLIAMENT Act 38. 56 ded by the Articles of Pacification, made at his Majesties camp in the moneth of June, 1639. yeares last by-pait, that a free generall Affembly and Parliament should be indicted by his Majestie, and that all matters Ecclesiasticall should be determined by the Affemblies of the Kirk : and matters civill, by Parliaments, and other inferiour Judicatories, established by Law : And that according thereunto, his Majestie did indict an Assembly to be holden at Edinburgh, the twelfth of August, and a Parliament for ratifying the Conclusions of the same allembly, and setting down such other things as might conduce to the peace and good of the Kingdome, To be holden at Edinburgh the twenty fixth of August last by-past. In the which affembly, the matters concerning the puritie of the true reformed Religion, and peace of this Kirk, after great debate, delayes, and protracting of time, made by John Earle of Traquaire, his Majesties Commissioner, being at length concluded upon day of August, 1639. yeares; the Parliament fitting the down, immediately thereafter, upon the penult day of the faid moneth of Angust, the ratifications of the Conclusions of the fame affembly, and many other matters of great importance, conducing necessarily to the setling of the peace of this Kingdome, being proponed in Parliament, were likewise shifted and delayed, and the clofing of the Parliament protracted from time to time, unto day of November last by-past : At the which time, the the faid John Earle of Traquaire did take upon him without the confent of the Eftates, to prorogate the forefaid Parliament, to the fecond day of Fune instant, not only contrary to the Articles of Pacification, but alfo to the prejudice of the Liberties of the Parliament: for prefervation whereof, the faids Estates were forced to make a declaration in Parliament against the fame: And that albeit fince the faid day of November, unto this time, the faids Eftates have used all possible meanes to give his Majesty full satisfaction, both by their peaceable carriage at home, and by fending their Commissioners to acquaint his Majestie with all their just defires, and the reasons thereof, yet they have not onely received no answer, but upon the contrary, their proceeding in the faid Parliament, being untruly related, by the faid Fohn Earle of Traquaire, have been condemned as Rebellious without hearing, And our Commiffioners fent for clearing thereof, all reftrained in private houses for a long time, and fohn Lord Lowdown, being one of them committed to the Tower, where he is still detained prisoner : The Castles of Edinburgh , and Dumbartane have in the meane time beene fortified and provided with all fort of Ammunition, in great abundance, and Garifons of Souldiers, (not being natives of this Kingdome) put therein, the Garifon in the Castle of Edinburgh, dayly killing diverse of the inhabitants of this Citie, and fpoyling their houfes with mulquets and great Ordnance : all thips belonging to this Kingdome arrefted in Ergland, and Ireland : and many of them coming from other places, layed waite for, and taken by the way : their owners and paffen-

gers spoyled of their goods and apparell, layed in the yrons, and barbaroufly abused : A Commission granted to the General of the English forces by fea and land, to kill, deftroy, and subdue this whole nation, a printed Declaration put forth, denouncing war against it, perfwading, exhorting, and provoking the other two Kingdomes to grant subsidies, and take Armes against the inhabitants of this Kingdome as traitours and rebells : And the Parliament of Ireland hath proceeded to farre as to declare them to bee fuch : All which they have hitherto endured patiently, and thereby given an evident demonstration to the world of the loyalty of their affections to their Soveraigne, which no extremitie shall ever make them to forget: And now being preft by the prefent exigence of the Effate of this Kingdome, and bound by the necessity of that naturall duety they owe to themfelves and their posterity, to provide for the fafety of the Common-wealth, and their owne, and timoufly to prevent the utter ruine of this Nation, which can no longer fubfift under fo great a burden, That time appointed being come, to the which the Parliament was prorogate, and no advertisement come from his Majestie to them anent any course to bee taken, for remeeding of the great diforders, they being the great Councell of the Kingdome, could not bee altogether fo forgetfull of themfelves, and deficient to their Countrey, as to suffer this Parliament which they had so often petitioned from his Majestie, which was conditioned and accorded by the faids Articles of Pacification, and indicted by his Majefties Authority, to bee deferted and expired without any conclusion to the good of the Common-wealth in fo great extremity: But rather, thought themfelves bound in conficence and duety to proceed to the determination of fuch matters as are necessary for the establishing of the peace of this Kirk and Kingdome, as being the expressed and speciall ends of all their Supplications, and agreeable to the faids Articles of Pacification, without trenching any wayes on Soveraignitie, or derogating in any fort from his Majesties Royall Authority : but on the contrary, only looking first upon the constitutions of the generall Affembly, paft in prefence of his Majefties Commissioner, and the necessary confequences thereof, and then providing remedies for the present evils of the Kingdome, by removing the cause, and establifhing neceffary conclusions for preventing the like hereafter : In doing whereof, as they have proceeded uprightly in the way of Justice, and with all due reverence, and regard to his Majesties Authority, and thereby have stopped the calumnious mouthes of their adverlaries, so they rest assured, that his Majesty after due examination of their proceedings, finding the fame agreeable to the fundamentall lawes and cuftomes of this his ancient and native Kingdome, and no wayes repugnant to Monarchicall government, will out of his Royall Justice and goodneffe give his full confent thereunto; And thereby totally remove and extinguish all ground and occasion of controversie against his faithfull and loyall Subjects, restore this Kingdome to a perfect and follid peace, which they pray the LORD to put in his Majesties Royall Heart, that he may long and prosperously reigne over over them. And on the other part, confidering from by-gone experience how malicious and diligent their adversaries will be to calumniate thefe their proceedings, and by their fuggeftions to the KingsMajeffie, and to the Lieges, to kindle and entertaine factions and divisions thereanent, and how neceffary it is for the fafety and peace of this Kirk and Kingdome, that the members of both doe unanimoufly with heart and hand teffifie by their fubfcription their refolution, and obligation to acknowledge this Parliament fo often defired by their petitions and fupplications, and conveened by his Majesties solemne indiction, according to the Articles of Pacification, to be a free, lawfull, and neceffarie Parliament, and to obey, observe, and maintaine the fame for themselves constantly and faithfully, and to the uttermost of their power, to joyne and concurre, in their feverall stations and callings, with others to advance, further, and affift the execution, obedience, and observing of the Acts and Constitutions of this prefent Parliament, as the most fit and necessarie remedies of the by-gone and present evils and distractions of this Kirk and Kingdome, and for prefervation of the Religion, laws and liberties thereof, and of his Majesties Authoritie, and that in the first Parliament which shall be holden hereafter within this Kingdome, and at all other occasions, against any opposition whatsoever, except in so farre as shall hereafter be thought fit and expedient by the common advise and consent of the Estates : They have ordained, and ordaines the Band under-written, to be fubfcribed by all the Members of Parliament prefent and abfent, and by all Noble men, Barons, Burgesses, and all other Subjects and inhabitants of the Kingdome, in their Shires, and Burghs, as they shall be directed by the Commissioners of Parliament left at Edinburgh, and to be reported to the Clerk, betwixt and the first day of September next, with certification, that fuch as refuse, or post-pone, and delay to subfcribe the fame, shall be holden as Enemies and Opposites to the common Cause, confisting in the maintenance of the true reformed Religion, and of the laws, and liberties of this Kingdome, and his Majesties Authoritie.

Where the second states of the second states and the second states of th termoft of our power, To joyne and concurre with our perfons and effates, every one of us according to our feverall flations and callings, in the maintenance of the freedome and lawfulneffe of the forefaid Parliament, and in the advancement, furtherance, and affiftance of the execution, obedience, and obfervation of the Acts and Conftitutions thereof, as the moft fit and neceffarie remedies of the by-gone and prefent evils and diffractions of this Kirk and Kingdome, and for the prefervation of Religion, laws, and liberties thereof, and of his Majefties Authoritie, and that in the first Parliament, which shall be holden hereafter within this Kingdome, and at all other occasions, and against any opposition whatfoever, except in fo far as shall be hereafter thought fit and expedient, by the common advife and confent of the Effates. In witneffe whereof we have figned and fubfcribed these prefents with our hands, At, &c.

ACT XXXIX.

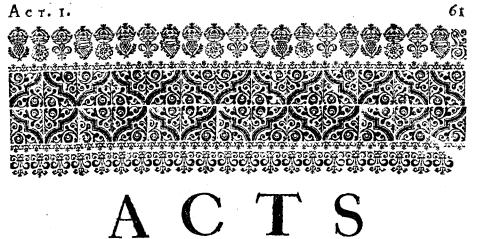

DECLARING THE PARLIAMEN Current, and continuing the fame while the ninetcenth of November next.

He Eftates of Parliament prefently conveened by his Majefties fpeciall Authoritie, Continues this prefent Parliament, and all matters and actions belonging thereto, while the nineteenth day of November next to come: At the which day, ordaines the whole Eftates to be prefent, and to attend at Edinburgh, or where it fhall happen the fame to be appointed to be holden for the time: And in the meane time declares the fame Parliament to be current to the day forefaid : And ordaines the whole Acts and Statutes concluded in this prefent Seffion of the faid Parliament, to ftand and have the force and ftrength of Laws, fuch like as any Acts and Statutes of any preceding Parliaments in any time by-gone : And ordaines the fame to be published and printed, notwithstanding of the continuation thereof to the day forefaid.

AND IN LIKE MANNER, A COMMISSION hath beene granted by the Committees of the Parliament of Scotland, bearing date the last of October, and the 4 day of November, 1640. and in the words following:

Ee the Commissioners of the Parliament of Scotland, being a full number of both the Quorums thereof, under-fubscribing: Forfomuch as the Kings Majesty, our dread Soveraign hath been graciously pleased, upon our humble supplications, to appoint a Treaty, and Conference at Rippon betwixt our Commissioners, chosen, and sent by Us for that effect, and a number of the Peeres of England, who accordingly met, and have accorded upon certain Articles, as well anent the maintenance of our Armie, as anent the ceffation of Arms during the Treatie. And becaufe the time for the enfuing Parliament of England could not permit the Treaty to come to the wifhed conclusion there, his Majeftie was therefore likewife pleafed to transferre the faid Treatie to London, where the faid Parliament is to hold, that there these entrusted by his Majestie, and Estates of Parliament, may have the better time and place to treat, and conclude thereanent.

Therefore Wee the faid Commissioners, being a full number of both Quorums thereof under-fubscribing, by vertue, and conforme to the Commission granted to us by the Estates of Parliament, doe not onely approve the faid Articles already agreed upon, and fubfcribed by our faid Commissioners at Rippon, but also doe by these presents give full power, warrant & Commission to John Earle of Rothes, Lord Lesley, &c. Charles Earle of Dumfermling, Lord Urguhart and Fuby, Gc. John Lord Loudoun, Sir Patrick Hepburne of Wachtoun, Sir William Douglas of Cavers, William Drummond of Riccarton, John Smith of Edinburgh, Mr. Alexander Wedderburne of Dundy, and Hugh Kennedy, of Air, as members of the Estates of Parliament. And because many things may occurre, concerning the Church, and Affemblies thereof: Therefore befides thefe of the Estates we nominate, and appoint Mr. Alexander Hendersone, and Mr. Archibald Johnstown, whom we adjoyne for that effect; With power to them, or any feven of them, there being alwayes two of every Estate, to passe to the said City of London, and there, or at any other place convenient (mutually to be agreed upon) to meet, and conveen with any who shall be appointed by his Majesty, and Estates of Parliament of England for the forefaid Treaty, giving, granting, and committing; like as we by these presents give, grant, and commit to them in manner forefaid, full power, warrant, and commission to treat, confult, advise, determine, and agree, as well anent the satisfying, and granting of our Demands, as in obtaining, and fecuring a fetled peace for all time comming, conforme to the instructions given to them herewith, or which shall be sent to them hereafter by us, or any one one of the faid Quorums at the Campe of Edinburgh thereanent. With power to them, as faid is, to do everything which may conduce for the better and eafier obtaining of our faid demands, and establishing a fetled peace, conforme to the faid particular inftructions, in fuch like manner as we might do if we were all perfonally prefent our felves in full number, promifing to hold firme and stable all, and every thing our faid Commissioners in manner forefaid shall do in the Premiss, conforme to the faid instructions. And in case it shall be found expedient, or necessary to adde any more Commissioners to the forefaid perfons, these who shall so be sent, authorized under our hands, or the full number of any of the faid Quorums, shall have a like power, and Commission by vertue of these presents with the fore-named Commissioners, in such like manner, as if their names were particularly exprest herein. In witnesse whereof these presents are subscribed at Newcastle and Edinburgh the last of October, and 4. of November, 1640.

And forasmuch as by vertue of the said Commissions, the Commissioners therein authorised, have treated, and by the assistance and blessing of God have agreed upon the heads, and articles following.

ARTICLES OF THE LARGE TREATY concerning the establishing of the peace betwixt the Kings Majestie, and his people of Scotland, and betwixt the two Kingdomes, agreed upon by the Scottish and English Commissioners, at the City of Westminster, the seventh day of August. 1641.

He Scottish Commissioners (having given in the Declaration following, viz. W E E doc fill in all Loyalty, as becomes humble and ductifull Subjects, acknowledge our dependency upon his Majefty as our dread Soveraign, whether his Majefty live in Scotland or England, and shall alwayes, and in all things witneffe our high respects and best affections to the Kingdome and Parliament of England, according to the strong bonds of nature and religion, 72 religion, by which the two Kingdomes are joyned under one Head and Monarch: yet as wee are fully affured that the Kingdome and Parlia. ment of England, is for the present farre from any thought of usurpation over the Kingdome and Parliament of Scotland, or their Lawes and Liberties: so, for the preventing the misunderstanding of the Posterity and of Strangers, and for fatisfying the scruples of others not acquain. ted with the nature of this Treaty and the manner of our proceedings, which may arife upon our comming into England, and our treating in time of Parliament, We doe by these declare and make known, that neither by our Treaty with the English, nor by feeking our peace to bee established in Parliament, nor any other actions of ours, doe wee acknowledge any dependency upon them, or make them Judges to us or our Lawes, or any thing that may import the fmalleft prejudice to our Liberties, but that wee come in a free and brotherly way by our informations to remove all doubts, that may arife concerning the proceedings of our Parliament, and to joyne our endeavours in what may conduce for the good and peace of both Kingdomes, no otherwife then if by occasion of the King his refidence in Scotland Commissioners in the like exigence should be sent thither from England) DID DEMAND, that his Majesty would bee graciously pleased to command that the Acts of the late Parliament may bee published in his Highnesse name as our Soveraign Lord, with confent of the Eftates of Parliament conveened by his Majesties authority.

WHEREUNTO it is answered and agreed, That for as much as the Kings Majesty, at the humble defire of his Subjects, did call and conveen a Parliament to be holden at Edinburgh the 2. of fune, 1640. wherein certain Acts were made and agreed upon, which Acts his Majeftie (for the peace and good of his Kingdome) is pleafed to publish in his owne name with confent of the Estates, and therefore commands that the faid Acts bearing date the 11. day of June, 1640. be published with the Acts to be made in the next Selfion of the fame Parliament: and that all the faid Acts, as well of the precedent as of the next Seffion, to be holden, have in all time comming the strength of Lawes, and to be univerfally received, and obeyed by all the Subjects of the Kingdome of Scotland.

His Majesty doth in the word of a King promise the publishing of the faid Acts in fuch fort as is above specified.

As for the manner of publishing the faid Acts, his Majesty approves that the Declaration of the Estates in the beginning of the Acts, and the conclusion at the end, may be past in filence at the publishing of the Acts, and left out in the printed Copies: And if any thing shall further occurre concerning the manner of publishing the said Acts, his Majefties Commissioner may then offer it to the Estates to be confidered of, his Majesty being most assured that the Estates of Parliament will have a great care not to fuffer his Majesties authority to be prejudiced in the managing of these great affaires. Tertio Decembris, 1640.

THESECOND DEMAND, that the Caftle of Edinburgh, and other ftrengths of the Kingdome fhould, with the advice of the Effates of Parliament, according to their first foundation be furnished, and uled

for defence and fecurity of the Kingdome. I S A GREED UNTO.

THE THIRD DEMAND, that Scottifh men within his Majefties Dominions of England and Ireland, may be freed from centure for fubfcribing the Covenant, and be no more prefled with oathes and fubfcriptions unwarranted by their Lawes, and contrary to their Nationall oath and Covenant approved by his Majefty.

It is thereto answered and agreed in his Majesties name, upon Decemb. 1640. That as his Majefty hath granted your first and fecond De-8. mands, so doe we in his Majesties name answer to the third: That all thefe who in his Majesties Dominions of England or Ireland have been imprisoned, forfeited, or censured any other way for subscribing of the Covenant, or for refusing to take any other Oath contrary to the fame, shall be freed of these censures, and shall be fully restored to their Liberties, Eftates, and Possefions. And for time comming, that the Subjects of Scotland, as Subjects of Scotland, shall not be constrained to any oath contrary to the Lawes of that Kingdome, and the Religion there established: but such of the Kingdome of Scotland as shall transport themfelves into the Kingdome of England or Ireland, and there be fetled Inhabitants, either by way of having inheritance or free-hold, or by way of fetled Trades(by which the way of trading of the Factors of Merchants, nor of Merchants them felves is not to be underftood) shall be fubject to the Lawes of England or Ireland, and to the oathes established by the Lawes, and Acts of Parliament in the faid Kingdomes refpectively, wherein they live, and have their ordinary and conftant refidence, and not otherwayes. And the English and Irish shall have the like Priviledge in Scotland, 8. Decembris. 1640.

To the fourth Demand, craving that his Majefty may be gracioufly pleafed to declare, as an Act of Royall Juffice, ferving much to his owne Honour, for the eftablishing of his Throne, and for the good and Peace of both Kingdomes, That whofoever shall be found upon Tryall and Examination by the Estates of either of the two Parliaments (they judging agains the Perfons subject to their owne Authority) to have been the Authors and Causers of the late and present troubles and combustion, whether by labouring to make, and foment Division betwixt the King and his People, or betwixt the two Nations, or any other way, shall be liable to the Censure and Sentence of the faid Parliaments respectively, Conforme to the Paper of Decemb. 9. 1640.

It is anfwered, upon the 11. of Decemb. 1640. That his Majefty beleeveth he hath none fuch about him; And therefore concerning that point, he can make no other Declaration, then that he is juft, and that all his Courts of Juftice are free and open to all men. His Parliament in this Kingdome is now fitting, and the current Parliament of Scotland neere approaching the time of their meeting, To either of which, hee doth not prohibite any of his Subjects to prefent their juft grievances, and complaints, of what loever nature, each medling, and judging againft the Perfons, fubject to their own Authority. 11. Decembris 1640.

It is further an fivered upon the faid 11. of December, 1640. To your fourth Demand, Concerning Incendiaries, that his Majefty beleeveth, he hath none fuch about him: Therefore, concerning that point, he can make

SECOND PARLIAMENT. THE

Acr 6 74 make no other Declaration, then that he is just, and that all his Courts of Justice are to bee free and open to all men. His Parliament in this Kingdome is now fitting, and the current Parliament of Scotland neere approaching the time of their meeting, in either of which respective, he doth not prohibite the Estates to proceed in trying and judging whatfoever of his Subjects.

And whereas it was further demanded, that as his Majesty would not hinder any of his Subjects to be tried and judged by the Parliament: fo that none after the Sentence of the Parliament should have accesse to his Majesty, or be maintained, and enjoy Places or Offices, and have credit or authority to informe and advise his Majesty, Conforme to the Paper of December 23.1640.

It is declared in his Majesties name, upon December 30.1640. Besides his Majesties former Answers, His Majesty hath commanded us to declare in his Name, That he will not imploy any Person or Persons in Office or Place that shal be judged incapable by sentence of Parliament: Nor wil he make use of their service without the consent of Parliament, nor grant them accesse to his Person, whereby they may interrupt, or difturbe that firme Peace, which he now fo much defireth, he being confident that they will proceed in a faire & just way, and (according to their feverall professions) with that respect to his honour, which in reafon he may expect from good and dutiful Subjects: 30. of Decemb. 1640.

The fifth Demand, That their ships and goods, and all Dammage thereof may be reftored.

Is condefcended unto, and to be reciprocal, That all Ships and Goods taken at Sea or stayed in Ports, with dammage bee restored on both sides. And that some summary course be agreed upon for the performance thereof upon the Demands of the particulars on both fides, Conforme to the Paper of December 30. 1640.

And further it was agreed upon the 7. of Januarie, 1641. Stilo Scotico That all Ships taken and stayed should be reciprocally restored on both fides, And that the Scottish Commissioners having informed that about fourescore Ships of Scotland are yet stayed in the Ports, and are like to fuffer much further losse and dammage, if they shall not be delivered into some hands who may have care of them: It is agreed, for the more speedy expedition of the Scottish Ships, and that the owners thereof be not longer damnifyed by the want of them, that warrants shall bee presently granted for delivery of all their Ships, and that foure thousand pounds be prefently advanced for Cauking, Sailes, Cordage, and other necessaries for helping the present setting forth of the faid Ships: And for the rest of this Article, when it shall come in the fixt Demand, it shall be agreed unto, 7. of Januarie, 1641. Stilo Scotico.

To the fixth Demand, aconcerning the loss which the Kingdome of Scotland hath fustained, and the vast charges they have been put unto by occasion of the late troubles, and the reparation defired from the Justice, and kindnesse of the Kingdome of England towards reliefe thereof, in manner, and upon the ground exprest in the Paper of the 7. of Januarie, 1641. Stilo Scotico.

It is answered, that this House thinks fit that a friendly affistance, Аст 6. and relief shall be given, towards supply of the loss & necessities of the Scots, & that in due time this Houfe wil take into confideration the meafure & maner of it, Conform to the paper 22.0f Jan. 1641. Stilo Scotico.

And further, the Parliament upon the 3. of February did declare, that they did conceive, that the fumme of three hundred thousand pounds is a fit proportion for the friendly affiftance, and relief formerly thought fit to be given towards supply of the loss, and necessities of their Brethren of Scotland, and that the House would in due time take into consideration the manner how, and the time when the fame shall be raifed, Conforme to the Paper of the 3. of Febr. 1641. Stilo Scotico, and given into the Treaty upon the 5. of the faid Moneth.

And whereas it was defired by the Scottifh Commissioners, that the English Commissioners would let them know from the Parliament, the fecurity, manner, and termes of Payment of the forefaid fumme of three hundred thousand Pounds, and of the Arrears due for. reliefe of the Northerne Counties, It was agreed unto by warrant, and order of the Parliament, that they should have fourescore thousand Pounds, as a part of the forefaid fumme of three hundreth thousand pounds, with the whole Arrears due to the Army, before the difbanding thereof, Conforme to the Paper of the 26. of May, 1641. and given in to the Treaty upon the 27. of the faid Moneth.

And concerning the fecurity for paying of the remnant of the faid fum of three hundred thousand pounds, which is Arreare, extending to 200 and 20000 Pounds, It is refolved, and agreed unto by both Houfes of Parliament, That an act of Parliament of publike Faith shall passe for fecurity thereof, And that one moity, or equall halfe of the fame, exrending to one hundred and ten thousand Pounds, shall be payed at Midsommersin Anno 1642. And the other moity, or equall halfe thereof to be payed at Midsommer, in Anno 1643. as the order of the houses of Parliament, of the 19 & 25. daies of fune 1641. doth more fully purport.

And in like maner, whereas it was defired by the Scottish Commisfioners, that they might know to whom they should addresse themfelves, for payment of the fummes at the dayes appointed by the Parliament, Conform to the Parliaments determination of the 19.0f June: Secondly, at what place the payment fhould be made: Thirdly, that a fafe conduct may be granted for the fecure transporting of the moneys to Scotland, at the times of the payment agreed upon.

It is answered and resolved by the Parliament, That these Earles, Lords and Commissioners following, shall be the persons to whom the Scots shall address the for the receiving of the summes at the dayes appointed by the Parliament, Earl of Bedford, Earle of Eller, Earle of Warwick, Earle of Holland, Earle of Stanford, Lord Wharton, Lord Mandevill, Lord Brook, Mr. Martin, Sir Thomas Barrington, Mr. Capell, Sir Ar.Ingram, Sir Gilbert Gerrard, Sir Robert Pyc, Mr.H.Bellasis, Sir Walter Earle, Sir William Litton, Sir Henry Mildmay, Sir Thomas Cheek, Sir John Strangewayes, Mr. Arthur Goodwine, Mr. Hampden, Alderman Soam, Alderman Pennington.

Refolved upon the question, That the place of payment shall be the Chamber of London. Refolved upon the question, that a fafe conduct fhall fhall be granted for the fecure transporting of the moneyes to Scotland, at the termes of Payment agreed upon at the charge of the Scots, Conforme to the Paper, June 22.1641. yeares.

To the feventh Demand, defiring that as his Majestie hath approved the acts of the late Parliament, wherein all fuch Declarations, Proclamations, Books, Libels, & Pamphlets as have bin made, written, or published against his loyal and dutifull fubjects of Scotland, are re-called, and ordained to be fuppreffed, and destroyed, So his Majesty may be pleased to give order that the fame may be fuppreffed, recalled, & forbidden in England and Ireland, and that the loyalty, integrity, and faithfulneffe of his Majesties subjects of Scotland towards his Majesties Royall Person & Government, may at the clofing of this Treaty of Peace, and at the time of publick thank fgiving for the fame, be made known in all places, and all Parish Churches of his Majesties Dominions. This was the more earnestly defired, & confidently expected from his Majesties Justice & goodnesse, Because no calamity or diftreffe hath fo fore vexed, or fo deeply wounded the hearts of his Majefties Subjects, as that their loyalty and love towards their Native King should have been controverted, & by the malignancy of bad Instruments brought into fulpition, And becaufe they unfainedly defire, & pray for his Majeffies happineffe, and are refolved by all meanes, and at all occafions to deny themselves, and what they have for his Majesties Honour: As is more fully contained in the Paper of the 8. of February 1641. Stilo Scotico.

It is answered upon the 10. of February 1641. Stilo Scotico. We do agree, that all declarations, proclamations, acts, books, libels, and pamphlets that have been made, & published against the loyalty & dutifulnesse of his Majefties fubjects of Scotland, shal be recalled, suppressed, & forbidden in England & Ireland. And that this be reciprocall in Scotland, if any fuch have bin made, or published there in prejudice of his Majesties honour: And this upon diligent inquiry to be done by the authority of the Parliament next fitting in Scotland, of which the Commissioners of Scotland doe promise to have an efpecial care: And we do alfo agree, that when it shall please Almighty God to grant a happy close of this Treaty of Peace, the loyalty of his Majesties said Subjects shall be made known at the time of publick thankigiving in all places, & particularly in the Parish Churches of his Majefties Dominions. Unto which we are the rather induced, for that you expreffe how deeply it hath wounded the hearts of his Majefties faid Subjects, that their loyalty & love to his Ma^{tie} their nativeKing fhould be brought in question, & suspition: Wheras they unfainedly defire & pray for his Majeflies happines, & are refolved by all means, & at all occations to deny themfelves, & what they have, for his Majesties honor, 10. Febr. 1641. stile scotice.

Concerning the eighth Demand, for an happy and durable Peace, which is the chiefeft of all our defires, and unto which all the former feven Articles being now agreed upon, are as many Preparations.

We do first of all defire, that all monuments, tokens, & shews of hostility upon the borders of the two kingdoms may be taken away, & that upon the reasons & confiderations particularly express in the paper, of the 10. of Febr. 1641. stillo fcotico. That not only the Garrisons of Barwick, and Carlile may be removed, but that the works may be flighted, and the places difinantled.

It is answered, and agreed upon the 14. of June, That his Majesty is defirous, that all things betwixt the Kingdomes of Scotland and England, bee reduced into the same state they were in, before the beginning of the late troubles.

And therefore Hee doth give his Affent to the advice of the two Houfes of Parliament, that the Garrifons of Barwicke and Carlile, upon the disbanding of the Scottish Army now in England, and of all fuch Forces as are gathered together in Scotland, be likewife prefently removed: And that the Fortifications of Barwick and Carlile bee also reduced to the fame condition they were before the late troubles. So that all Fortifications in Scotland bee likewife put in the fame condition they were before the faid troubles; And that the Workes bee not repaired, but fuffered to decay, and that the Ordinance, and Ammunition bee removed: And that it bee without prejudice to his Majesties former grant of the scotland, 14. of June, 1641.

To their defire concerning unity in Religion, & uniformity of Churchgovernment, as a fpeciall meanes for conferving of Peace betwixt the two Kingdoms, upon the grounds and reafons contained in the Paper of the 10. of March given into the treaty and Parliament of England.

It is anfwered, upon the 15. of June, That his Majefty, with the advice of both Houfes of Parliament, doth approve of the affection of his Subjects of Scotland, in their defire of having Conformity of Churchgovernment betweene the two Nations, and as the Parliament hath already taken into confideration the Reformation of church government, fo they wil proceed therin in due time, as that beft conduce to the glory of God, the peace of the Church, & of both Kingdoms; 11. of June 1641.

To their defire of the Kings Majesty, and the Prince their comming, and refiding fome times in Scotland, upon the reasons given in, Fe-bruary 16. 1641. Stilo Scotico.

It is anfwered upon the 9.0f fune, that his Majefty doth take in good part the fenfe his Subjects of Scotland have of his abfence, and the dutifull expression they make of their desire to have Him, and the Prince his Sonne frequently among them; and assuring himselfe that they have no other intention in this Demand, but meerely to expresse their love to his Person, and the welfare of his ancient Kingdome, He declares unto them, that as he shall finde the urgency of those affaires require his presence, and his other conveniences here permit, He will repaire thither, and the Prince his Sonne, so farre as he may know and be acquainted with the People there, 9. of fune 1641.

To the defire concerning the manner of choofing and placing of the officers of State, Countellors, and Seffioners, within the Kingdome of Scotland by advice of the Parliament, upon the grounds and reafons given in, March 15. 1641. Stilo Scotico.

It is anfwered the 9. of June, in his Majefties name; We intend nothing more heartily, and really then that our People shall be governed by the Laws of the Kingdome, and that all Judges in their severall Judicatories should judge accordingly.

Therefore we wil never allow nor permit, that either Counfellors, officers of State, or Judges be exeemed from our, & our Parliaments tryall and cenfure, for the difcharging of their duties in their feverall offices,

SECOND PARLIAMENT THE

78 Act 6. and places : Likewife we conceive that nothing will more conduce to the good of our fervice, and the peaceable and happy government of the Kingdome, then that officers of State, places of Councell and Seffion, and other Judicatories be provided with honeft, able, and qualified men. For which end, and because of our necessary absence from that Kingdom, which maketh the qualification of Perfons fit for places leffe known to us, We shal so far give eare to the Informations of our Parliament, and when our Parliament is not fitting, of our Councell, and Colledge of Juffice, as that we shal make choise of fome one of fuch, as they by comon confent upon the vacancie of the place shal recommend unto us: Or if wee shall conceive another perfon to bee fitter then any of these recommended, wee shall make the same knowneto the Parliament, or in the time betweene Parliament, to our Councell and Seffion, that from them wee may be informed of the Qualification and Abilities of the perfon named by us, to the effect, that if by their Information it shall appeare to us, that there is just exception against the life, and qualification of the faid party, wee may timely nominate fome other, against whom there shall bee no just exception.

By which meanes wee doubt not, but that wee shall from time to time choose fuch honest men, as for their knowne Integrities and Abilities shall bee fit to discharge their places, and Offices , with that duty and fufficiency which wee and our Subjects may justly expect.

Which intention of ours being now fo cleerely and fully expressed, wee doubt not, but will give good fatisfaction to our enfuing Parliament.

And as wee never intended to remove just and able men from their places in the Colledge of Juffice : So doe wee now declare for our peoples full satisfaction, that their places shall be provided unto them, Quam diu se bene gesserint.

And if this our Anfwer cannot content the Scottifh Commissioners, Wee doe then remit the whole Anfwer to be confidered by us, or our Commiffioner, and the Parliament, at the next fitting thereof, 9. of June, 1641.

To their defire of placing fome Scottish men of respect about the King, and Queenes Majefties, and the Princes Highneffe, upon the grounds and realons given in the 9. of Aprill, 1641.

It is anfwered, His Majefties goodneffe, and grace towards his Subjects of Scotland in placing them about his owne Person, in places of greatest neerenesse and trust, hath beene such, as ought to give them full fatisfaction of His Royall Affection towards His Subjects of His Native Kingdome.

Therefore, for this point, His Majestie needeth onely to affure them that hee shall continue the fame care, which hitherto hee hath done for their fatisfaction in this particular: and not onely fo, but shall also recommend the fame to the Prince his Sonne, that fucceffively the Kingdome of Scotland shall so taste of the care of their Soveraignes, That by the Grace of God, they shall never want a fufficient number of honest, and fufficient perfons of that Nation about the Kings Perfon and Princes, against whom there shall be no just exception, the 9. of June, 1641. To their defire that none may have place about his Majefty, and the Prince, but fuch as are of the reformed Religion, in manner expressed in the paper. 1. April 1641.

It is answered, His Majesty doth conceive, that his Subjects of Scotland have no intention by this proposition, (efpecially by way of demand) to limit, or prescribe unto him the choice of his Servants, but rather to fhew their zeal to Religion, wherein his owne piety will make him do therein that which may give just latisfaction to his people, 9.June 1641.

To their defire given in the first of April, concerning the Copper Coine.

It is answered, Whereas the Scottish Commissioners have reprefented unto his Majesty, the great prejudice suffained by the Kingdom of Scotland, through the coining of Copper money, which hath paffed there this long time by-gone, for feven times and above as much as the true value and worth thereof, contrary to the continuall cuftome of that Kingdome, And therefore defiring that no Copper money bee coined hereafter, without confent of the Estates conveened in Parliament, who may remedy the prefent prejudices the Country fuftains thereby : And who upon good confideration of the neceffity thereof in time to come, may appoint fuch a competent proportion as is fit, and as the Countrey shall require for the use of the poore, and for change in buying and felling of commodities, and that the fame shall not passe, but according to the intrinsick value thereof, with the allowance of a tenth part or fuch a proportion as the Parliament shall think fit to allow for the impreffion, and workmanship in coyning. His Majesty is graciously pleafed to recommend to the enfuing Parliament of Scotland the whole matter of copper coine, and remits to their confideration to take fuch order therein as they shall thinke fitting, not onely concerning the copper coine to be coyned hereafter, but alfo the copper money already coyned, how the fame shall take vent, and passe in payment in time comming, Conforme to the paper of the ninth of June, 1641.

CONCERNING AN ACT O F Pacification and Oblivion.

Аст б.

T is agreed unto, that in the approaching Parliament of Scotland there shall be an Act of Pacification, declaring that the late commotions, and troubles arifing from the innovations of Religion, and corruption of Church Government, by the mercy of God, and the Kings Royall wifdome, and Fatherly care, are turned into a quiet calme and comfortable Peace, lest either his Majesties love, or the constant loyalty of his Subjects in their Intentions and Proceedings be hereafter called in queftion, and that fuch things

SECOND PARLIAMENT. THE 80 Acr 6 things as have falne forth in these tumultuous times, while Lawes were filent, whether prejudiciall to his Majesties Honour and Authority, or to the Lawes and Liberties of the Church and Kingdome, or to the particular interest of the Subject, (which to examine in a strict court of Justice might prove an hinderance to a perfect peace) may be buried in perpetual Oblivion : So it is expedient for making the Peace and Unitie of his Majesties Dominions the more firme and faithfull, and that his Majesties countenance against all feares may shine upon them all the more comfortably, that an Act of Pacification and Oblivion be made in the Parliaments of all the three Kingdomes, for burying in forgetfulnesse all Acts of hostility, whether between the King and his Subjects, or between fubject and fubject, or which may be conceived to arife upon the coming of any English Army against Scotland, or coming of the Scottish Army into England, or upon any Action, Attempt, Assistance, Counsell, or Advise having relation thereunto, and falling out by the occasion of the late troubles preceding the conclusion of the Treaty, and the return of the Scottish Army into Scotland, That the fame, and what foever hath enfued thereupon, whether trenching upon the Lawes and Liberties of the Church and Kingdom, or upon his Majesties Honour and Authority, in no time hereaster may be called in question, nor resented as a wrong Nationall, or Personall, whatsoever be the quality of the person, or persons, or of whatsoever kind or degree, Civill or Criminall, the injury is supposed to be, and that no mention be made thereof in time coming, neither in judgment, nor out of judgment, But that it shall be held, and reputed, as though never any fuch thing had been thought, nor wrought. And this to be extended, not onely to all his Majesties subjects now living, but to their Heires, Executors, Succeffours, and all others whom it may concerne in any time to come. And for that end, that by the tenour of this Statute, all Judges, Officers, and Magistrates what soever, be prohibited and discharged of directing of Warrants for citation, processing, or executing any sentence or judgment upon Record, or any way molesting any of his Majesties lieges concerning the premisses in all time coming. Like as that his Majestie for himselfe and his Successionry, promiseth in verbo Principis, never to come in the contrary of this Statute and Sanction, nor any thing therein contained, but to hold the fame in all points, firm, and stable, And shall cause it to be truly observed by all His Majesties Lieges, according to the tenour and intent thereof for now and ever, And that in all time coming these presents shall have the full force and strength of a true and perfect fecurity, as if they were extended in most ample and legall forme. Providing that the benefit of the faid Statute shall no wayes be extended to any of the Scottish Prelates, or to John Earl of Traquair, Sir Robert Spotswood, Sir John Hay, and Master Walter Balcanquall, cited and pursued as Incendiaries betwixt the Kingdomes, and betwixt the King and his People, , and for bribery, corruption, and many other groffe crimes contained in their charges generall and speciall, nor to any other persons, who are cited, and shall be found by the Parliament of Scotland, in his Majeftie or his Commissioners their owne hearing, to be so extraordinarily guilty guilty of these and the like crimes, as they cannot in justice, and with the honour of the King, and Countrey, passe from them. Provided further that the benefit of this Act shall not bee understood to extend to the favour of Theeves, Robbers, Murtherers, Broken men, Sorners, Out-lawes, nor their Receptors, With refervation also of the legall pursuits and processes of the Scots in Ireland, for the reparation of their loss according to justice, against such who have illegally wronged and perfecuted them, fince by one of the Articles of the Treatie they are appointed to be reftored to their means and estate. It is also to be understood, that nothing is meant hereby to be done in prejudice either of the payment of the debts owing upon promise or fecurity, by the Scottish Army to any of the Counties, or to any perfon there, (the fame being instructed before the removall of the Scottish Army) or of the Arrears due to the Scottish Army, or to that brotherly assistance granted them by the Parliament of England.

That the great bleffing of a constant and friendly conjunction of the two Kingdomes now united by alleageance, and loyall fubjection to one Soveraigne and Head, may be firmly obferved, and continued to all Posterity, it is agreed that an Act be past in the Parliament of England that the Kingdomes of England or Ireland, shall not denounce, nor make warre against the Kingdome of Scotland, without confent of the Parliament of England, As on the other part it shall be enacted there, that the Kingdome of Scotland shall not denounce nor make warre against the Kingdoms of England or Ireland, without confent of the Parliament of Scotland. No thips either of the Kings or Free-booters, or others, shall stop the trade of the Kingdome, or hinder, or harme their neighbour Kingdome without confent of Parliament declaring a breach of Peace, And if any armies shall be levied, or trade stopped and Neighbours harmed, or wronged, the States of the Countrey by which it is done to be obliged to purfue, take, and punish the offenders with all rigour, And if any of the Kingdomes affift, receive, or harbour them, they are to be punished as breakers of the Peace, And if after complaint and remonstrance to the Commissioners after mentioned, and to the Parliament, redreffe, and reparation be not made, then, and in that cafe, the fame to be counted a breach of the Peace by the whole Kingdome, And in cafe any of the fubjects of any of the Kingdomes shall rife in arms, or make war against any other of the Kingdoms, and subjects thereof, without confent of the Parliament of that Kingdome, whereof they are fubjects, or upon which they doe depend, that they shall be held, reputed, and demained as traitours to the States whereof they are fubjects, And that both the Kingdomes in the cafes aforefaid bee bound to concurre in the repressing of these that shall happen to arife in Armes, or make warre without confent of their owne Parliament, And that the way of conveening Forces for fuppreffing fuch as levie warre bee as in cafe of Invation, Provided that this bee not extended to particular quarrells upon the borders, And that it bee enacted that in fuch cafe, It shall be lawfull for any of the fubjects to conveene to fuppreffe fuch evill affected perfons, And that each Kingdome shall bee bound by publike faith

82 THE SECOND PARLIAMENT Acr 6. faith punctually to performe this Article: And if eyther parliament shall denotince warre, they shall give three moneths warning.

That the Peace to be now established may be inviolably observed in all time to come, It is agreed, that fome shall be appointed by his Majestie, and the Parliaments of both Kingdomes, who in the interim betwixt the fitting of the Parliaments may be carefull that the peace, now happily concluded, may be continued, and who shall endeavour by all means to prevent all trouble and division: And if any debate or difference shall happen to arife to the disturbance of the common peace, they shall labour to remove, or compose them according to their power, It being supposed, that for all their proceedings of this kinde they shall be answerable to the Kings Majestie, and the Parliaments : And if any thing shall fall forth, which is above their power, and cannot bee remedied by them, they shall informe themselves in the particulars, and represent the same to the Kings Majestie, and the enfuing Parliaments, that by their wifedome and authoritie all occafions, and causes of troubles being removed, the peace of the Kingdome may be perpetuall to all Posteritie. And it is declared, that the power of the Commission shalbe restrained to the articles of peace in this treatie.

Whereas it is defired, that an Act may be made in the Parliament of England for ratifying of the Treatie, and all the Articles thereof, which is likewife to be ratified in the Parliament of Ireland (which in all the Articles is comprehended under the name of England) and after the Treatie is confirmed in the faid English Parliament, and all other necessarie conditions performed, the Armies on both fides shall at a certain day to be appointed for that effect, remove and disband : So that when the Scottish Armie shall remove from New-castle, the English Armie shall likewise be disbanded, and repaire home to their severall Countries, and places of their refidence, and the Irifh Army to disband before that time, that hereafter a quiet and durable peace may bee kept according to the Articles. And that this Treaty and whole proceedings thereof may be likewife ratified in the Parliament of Scotland, and a firme Peace established, It is defired, that his Majestie may bee gracioully pleased now to declare, That the ensuing Parliament of Scotland shall have full and free power, as the nature of a free Parliament of that Kingdome doth of it felf import, to ratifie and confirm the Treatie, and whole Articles thereof, and to receive account of all Commiffions granted by them, examine their proceedings, and grant exonerations thereupon, And to treat, deliberate, conclude and enact whatfoever shall be found conducible to the settling of the good and peace of that Kingdome. And that his Majesties Commissioners shall be authorized with full power to approve whatfoever Acts and Statutes which upon mattire deliberation frall happen to be accorded unto by the Estates in that behalfe, and shill sit and continue without interruption or prorogation, while all things necessary for that effect be determined, enacted and brought to a finall conclusion, unlesse for better conveniencie of affairs his Majesties Commissioner, with the speciall advice and confent of the Estates shall thinke sit to adjourne the fame to any other time, which shall no wayes derogate from the full full and perfect concluding of the whole premisses, before the faid Parliament be diffolved.

This whole Article is affented unto, but in fo farre as concerns the dayes and circumstances of disbanding to be agreed upon.

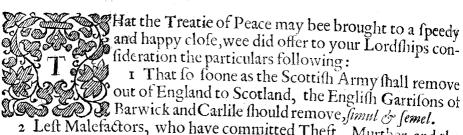

Forafmuch as the feverall jurifdictions, and administrations of Juffice in either Realme may be deluded or frustrated by delinquents for their owne impunity, if they shall commit any offence in the one Realme, and thereafter remove their perfons, and make their abode in the other: Therefore that no perfon fentenced by the Parliament of either Nation as Incendiaries betwixt the Nations, or betwixt the King and his people, shall enjoy any benefit, Civill or Ecclesiasticall, or have any shelter, or protection in any other of his Majesties Dominions, Like as where Malefactors, and Criminals guilty of the crimes mentioned in the Act of Parliament 1612. Cap. 2. and others of that nature, and committed by Scottishmen within the Kingdome of England or Ireland, or any part thereof, are taken and apprehended in England or Ireland, that it hall be lawfull to the Jufticiars of England or Ireland to remand them to Scotland, as the Act beares: And further, if any Malefactors committing crimes in Scotland, England, or Ireland, being duly proceffed in the Kingdome where the crimes are committed, and being Fugitives, and remayning in any other of the Kingdomes forefaid, that the Judges of either Kingdomes shall be holden at the instance, and fuit of the party offended, to take and remand the Criminals and Malefactors to the Kingdomes where the Crimes were committed, And the like Act to be made in Scotland, and this Act would be extended as well to debts as crimes : And what further is requifite concerning this and other particulars, for fetling of Peace in the middle shires, and accelerating Justice upon delinquents, both Civill and Criminall, Is to bee confidered by the Committee to be appointed for that effect.

It is answered, that fuch perfons as shall be Natives in either Kingdome, and shall commit any offence in the Realme whereof they shall be Natives, and shall afterwards remove their perfons into the other, and fuch perfons as shall be inhabitants in either Kingdome, and shall commit any offence in the Realme, where they shall be inhabitants during the time of their habitation there, and shall afterwards remove their perfons into the other, and shall be for that fame cenfured by the Parliament of that Nation where the offence was committed, as Incendiaries betwixt the Nations, or betwixt the King and his people, shall not enjoy any benefit, Civill or Ecclefiasticall, or have any protection in any other of his Majesties Dominions, And that such Scotish Natives, incenfing the King of England against the Kingdome of Scotland, shall be remanded at the defire of the Scottish Parliament, into Scotland to abide their tryall and cenfure there, fo that the fame be reciprocall to both Nations, but other Criminalls and Debtsto be referred to the Laws.

THE PROPOSITIONS AND ARTICLES Given in by the Scots Commiffioners, after the Lord Loudoun his return from the Parliament of Scotland.

2 Left Malefactors, who have committed Theft, Murther, and the like crimes, crave the benefit of the Act of Pacification and Oblivion, (for whom it is no wayes intended) there would be an exception from the faid Act of all Legall purluit intended or to be intended within the fpace of an yeere after the date of the Treaty. Again, all Theeves, Sorners, Out-laws, Fugitives, Murtherers, Broken men, or their Receptors for what soever Theft, Reifs, Harships, Oppressions, Depredations, or Murther done or committed by them, and all lawfull Decrees given, or to be given by the Parliament, or any Commissioners to be appointed by them for that effect, who shall have power to dignosce and take cognition, whether the same fals within the said A& of Pacification and Oblivion, or not.

3 It is defired, that the demand concerning the not making or denouncing of warre with Forraigners, without confent of both Parliaments, may be condescended unto by the King and Parliament of England, which is ordinary and univerfally obferved in all mutuall Leagues which are both defensive and offensive. And because the wars denounced by one of the Kingdomes with Forraigners, although made without confent of the other Kingdome, will ingage them by neceffary confe-quence, or if the confideration of that Proposition shall require longer time then the present condition of the important affaires of the Parliament may permit, and lest the speedie close of the Treaty bee thereby impeded, It is defired, that this Demand, with the two other Articles of the fame nature, the one concerning Leagues and Confederations, and the other concerning mutuall supply in case of forreigne invasion, may all three be remitted to Commissioners, to be chosen by both Parliaments, who shall have power to treat and advise thereupon for the good of both Kingdomes, and to report to the Parliaments respective.

4 It is defired, That the Articles concerning Trade and Commerce, Naturalization, mutuall Priviledge and Capacity, and others of that nature already demanded, may be condefcended unto by the King and Parliament of England, And namely, that demand about the prefsing of ships or men by Sea or Land : Or if shortnesse of time and exigencie of affaires may not permit the prefent determination of these Demands, It is defired that the fame (except fo many of them as are already agreed unto by the Commissioners for Trade) may be remitted to the Commissioners to be chosen by both Parliaments, who shall have power to treat and advife thereof for the good of both Kingdomes, And to make report report to the Parliaments respectively. And that the Charters or Warrants of the Scottish Nation for freedome of shipping in England or Ireland, from all Customes, Imposts, Duties, and Fees, more then are payed by the Natives of England and Ireland, granted by King Fames under the broad Seal of England, upon the eleventh of April, the thirteenth yeere of his Reigne, and confirmed by King Charles, the nineteenth of April, the eighth yeere of his Reigne, may be ratified and enacted in the Parliament of England.

5. That the extracts of Bands and Decreets put upon Record and Register in Scotland, may have the like faith and execution as the French Tabelliones have in England or Ireland, seeing they are of alike nature, and deserve more credit : and if this cannot be done at this time, that it be remitted to the former Commission from both Parliaments.

6. The manner of fafe conduct for transporting the money from England to Scotland by Sea, or Land, would be condescended upon in fuch a way as the charges be not exorbitant.

7. The tenour of the Commission for conferving of peace would be condefcended unto, together with the times and places of meetings, and whole frame thereof: the draught whereof, when it is drawn up in England, is to be represented to the Parliament of Scotland, that they may make like Commission, and name their Commissioners for that effect.

8. The Parliament of Scotland doe joyne their earnest & hearty defire, and crave the Parliament of Englands concurrence, that none be in place about the Prince his Highnesse, but such as are of the reformed religion.

9. That an Act of Parliament of publike faith for payment of the 220000. pounds of the brotherly affistance which is arrear, may be prefently framed, and expedited according to the termes agreed upon.

10. It is defired, that the Quorum to whom the Scots should addresse themfelves for payment of 220000. pounds, be condeficended upon.

11. That the order for recalling all Proclamations &c. made against his Majesties subjects of Scotland, be drawn up, and intimated in due forme and time, with the publick thankfgiving at all the Parifh Churches of his Majesties Dominions.

12. It is defired, that the Articles concerning the Caftle of Edinburgh, and other strengths of that Kingdom may be understood to be, that the fame shall bee disposed of for the weale of the Kingdome, as the King and Parliament shall think expedient.

THE ENGLISH LORDS COMmillioners answer.

Hat upon the disbanding of the Scottish Army, the Garri-fons of Barwick and Carlile shall be removed, according to the Article of the Treatie on that behalfe. The second Article is condescended unto, according to the provision added to the Act of Oblivion and Pacification.

SECOND PARLIAMENT. THE

Acro against forraine invasion, is agreed to be referred to Commissioners to be chosen by his Majesty and the Parliaments. As likewise the 4.5. and 6. Articles, concerning Trade, Commerce, Naturalization, mutuall priviledge and capacity, and others of that nature, and the demands concerning the extracts of Bands and Decreets, and the maner of fafe conduct for transporting of moneys from England to Scotland, are all referred to be taken in confideration by the Commissioners to be appointed by both Parliaments, who shall have power to advise and treat thereupon, and report to the Parliaments refpectively.

7 It is just that the tenour of the Commission for conferring of peace fhould be agreed upon by mutuall confent, but the clofing of the treaty not to stay hereupon, but to be left to the Commissioners to be named.

8 To that defire concerning fuch as should be placed about the Prince, the King hath already given a cleere and fatisfactory answer.

9 That there be an Act of Parliament of publike faith, for fecuring the paiment of 220000 pounds, which is arreare of the brotherly affiftance, is just, and order is given for it accordingly. And it shall be communicated with the Scottish Commissioners that it may be a perfect security.

10 The tenth, for appointing a Quorum for attending the paiment of the money, is already moved to the parliament, & will be done as is defired.

11 The eleventh article is very just, and order shall be given accordingly for recalling all Proclamations, &c. and for publick Thankfgiving.

12 This Article for the Castle of Edinburgh and other strengths of Scotland, is to be fetled betwixt his Majesty and the Commissioners of Scotland, or by his Majefty and Parliament of Scotland.

All which Articles are affented unto, and approved by his Majestie, with advice of the Parliament of England, and by the Committees of the Parliament of Scotland, and are necessary, for publick declaration of mutuall confent, and for firme obfervation, to be confirmed and ratified in the Parliaments of both Kingdomes.

TE it therefore enacted by his Majesty, with the assent of the Lords and the Commons in this prefent Parliament affembled, that the I faid Treaty, and all the Articles thereof, affented to, as aforefaid, be and stand for ever ratified, and established, and have the force, vigor, ftrength and authority of a Law, Statute, and Act of Parliament.

Like as this afore-written Treaty, and whole Articles thereof, are by his Majesty and the States of the Parliament of Scotland, enacted and ordained to have in all time comming the full force and strength of a true and perfect fecurity, and Act of the faid Parliament.

And his Majefty for himfelfe, and his Succeffors doth promife, in verbo principis, never to come in the contrair of this Statute & Sanction, nor any thing therein contained, but to hold the fame in all points firme & stable, and shall cause it to be truly observed by all his Majesties Leiges, according to the tenor and intent thereof for now & ever.

Like as the Parliament of both Kingdomes give full affurance, and do make publick faith in name of both Kingdomes refpectively, for the true and faithfull obfervance of this Treaty, and whole Articles thereof inviolably, hinc inde, in all times to come.

Like as his Majesty, with advice of the estates of Parliament, commands the clerke of Parliament, to infert and registate the same in the bookes of Parliament, and to give the extract of this Act under his hand to the director of the chancellary, Whom they command to write the same to the great Seale, and the keeper of the great Seale to append the great Seale thereto. And declares that the same being so fealed and returned to the Parliament of England, is and shalbe unto them a full and perfect security, By this their act, given at Edinburgh the 25. of August 1641. yeares.

O Parliament against the gift and patent granted to parliament against the gift and patent granted to to the country and lieges: Have therefore referred to

to the country and lieges : Have therefore rescinded, retreited, caffed, annulled and difcharged, and by the tenour hereof, rescinds, retreits, casses, annuls and discharges simpliciter, the foresaid gift & patent granted to the faid James Bannatine anent pearling, And declares the famine gift and patent to be extinct, null and ineffectuall in all time comming. And also our faid Soveraigne Lord, with advice and consent of the estates of Parliament, prohibits and discharges all importation and inbringing of forraigne pearling within this kingdome in any time comming, under the paine of confilcation thereof to his Majesties use. And siclike our said Soveraigne Lord, with advice forefaid renewes the act of Parliament made, in anno, one thousand fix hundred twentie one yeares, Intituled anent banquetting and apparell, in the fecond head and article thereof, viz. That no perfon of whatfoever degree shall have pearling or ribbining upon their ruffes, bands, ferkes, napkins and focks, except the perfons priviledged in that act: And the pearling and ribbining to be fo worne by them (if any be) to be of these made within the kingdome of Scotland, under the pain of an hundered pounds toties quoties, as the faid act in that article thereof beares: And ordains the famine act in that head and article forefaid, to have ful ftrength, force and execution, and to ftand as a Law, conforme to the tenour thereof.

ACT VIII.

ACT DISCHARGING UNLAWFULL Marriages, 1. September, 1641.

Ur Soveraign Lord and Estates of this present Parliament, confidering the great abuse and dangerous evill that hath followed, and may follow upon frequent marriages of the persons Inhabitants within this kingdome, going to the neighbour Kingdomes for getting themselves married there, which they could not obtaine in this Kingdome by the lawes and conflictutions thereof, Therefore, and for remedy of that evill, and for preventing fuch in time comming, prohibites and discharges all men and women, having both their ordinary refidence within this Kingdome, to get marriage to themfelves with others within the Kingdome of England, or Ireland, without Proclamation of Banes here in Scotland, and against the order and constitutions of this Church or Kingdome, under the pains following: viz. for ilk Nobleman fo married, one thousand pounds, for ilk landed Gentleman one thousand markes, for ilk Burges five hundred pounds, and for ilk other fubstantious perfon five hundred marks, for a Yeoman one hundred pounds, for ilk perfon of inferiour qualitie one hundred marks: The one halfe of the which penalties shall belong to the King, the other to the Parish or Parifhes where the married parties did refide: And ordains the King and Kirks Advocate to purfue before the civill Judge therefore: And in case of the poore condition of any man married in manner forefaid, Ordains him to be punished by ftocks or irons : Which paines corporal and pecunial shall no wayes be prejudiciall or derogate from the order and cenfures of the Kirk, to be inflicted against the delinquents.

ACT IX.

ACT ANENT NON-COVENANTING Patrons, 2. September 1641.

CONTUR Soveraign Lord and Estates of Parliament, confidering, that all his Majefties fubjects within this Kingdome are by Acts of Parliament ordained to fublcribe their Nationall Oath and Covenant, There-fore his Majestie and Estates ratifie and approve the Act of Parliament made by his Majesties dearest Fa-ther of blessed memorie, Parl. 1.c.9. whereby it is ordained, that no perfon be Judge, Procurator, Notar, or Member of Court, who profefieth not the true Religion, together with the Act of ratification thereof, with the addition and declaration thereof therein contained, made by his Majesties faid umwhile Father, Parl. 20. cap. 3. And finds and declares, that the faids Acts shall be extended to all perfons what soever, who have not fubscribed, or refuse to subscribe the faid National Oath and

OF KING CHARLES. ACT 10. 11. 89 and Covenant. And fuch like findes and declares, That where any of the faids refufers to fubfcribe have right to prefentation of Kirks, that it shall not be lawfull to them, to present any persons to the Kirks vacand, but that the planting of the faids Kirks and admitting of Ministers thereto, and to the stipends and provisions thereof, upon sute and calling of the Congregation, shall pertaine pleno jure, to the Presbyteries, within the which the faids Kirks lye, ay and while the faids patrons fubscribe the faids Nationall oath and Covenant.

ACT X.

ACT FOR FREEING OF VICCARAGES, Provided to Ministers for their stipends, of taxations. 2. September, 1641.

MUr Soveraigne Lord and Effates of Parliament , confideng the distractions that Ministers are brought into, and other prejudices and loss fustained by them, by taxations craved of viccarages, which are assigned and provided to them as a part of their stipends, in so far as they are affigned and provided: and that it is against all reason and equitie, and former Acts of Parliament,

That Ministers stipends should be burdened with impositions and taxations : Therefore Statutes and Ordaines (for efchewing of these inconveniences and prejudices) that no viccarages teinds, nor rents thereof affigned and provided, or to be affigned and provided to Ministers as a part of their stipends, be burdened or affected with any taxations of impositions by-gone, resting, owing, unpayed, or in time coming, in fo far as can be extended to the faids teinds, and rents of viccarages affigned, or to be affigned to them, and whereof they are, or shall be in possession by the faids affignations : But declares the fame to be free thereof in all time comming.

ACT XI

ACT ANENT RAISING OF MALICIOUS Sufpenfions, against Ministers, Colledges, Schooles and Hospitals. 9. September 1641.

Ur Soveraigne Lord and Estates of Parliament, considering the great inconveniences that the Minifters of this Kirk are brought into, by malicious delayes, or refusing of the payment of their stipends, by unreafonable suspensions, or by contempt of decreets ob-The tained against perfons oblished for payment of their flipends, and that the Ministers charges are so exorbitant in the fute of law, that their stipends craved will not defray the lame, and that they are exceedingly distracted from their callings, to the great prejudice of their congregations, and that they doe fuffer many other prejudices and loss: Therefore Statutes and Ordaines, that no fuspensions be hereafter granted against Ministers charging for their stipends, without confignation of the fummes of mony charged for, if the ftipend confift in money: or of an hundreth markes for ilk chalder of victuall, and of the just proportion of an hundreth markes for ilk quantity of victuall under a chalder, if the flipend confift in victuall, where the fame is not converted: and where the fame is converted, upon the confignation of these fummes whereunto the victual is liquidate and converted. Which confignation of money for victual as abovefaid, is without prejudice to the judges, to decerne the greater or leffer price for victual charged for, according to the probation: Providing alwaies, that if the perfon charged make reall and timous offer to the minifter at his dwelling house, or (at the least) at the place where he is obliged or accustomed to deliver the faid victual, before a notar and two witnesses, at the least, of the whole victual adebted or charged for, in good and sufficient stuffe at the termes of paiment thereof, lawfull requifition being first made to the minister to receive the same before a notar and witnesses, as faid is, then the perfon charged for, shall not be astricted to configne money for victual in manner forefaid. And fuch like it is provided, that the judge shall discerne twentie markes of expences for ilk hundred markes (at the least) against the malitious charger or fulpender. And in cafe any perfon charged for ministers stipends shall contemptuously goe to the horne and lie thereat, Our Soveraigne Lord and Eftates foresaid, Statutes and ordaines, that the donators to the fingle or life-rent efcheat of the rebell, having writ either from his Majestie or any Lords of regality, or any superiours whatfoever intrometters with the faids escheat, goods and geir, mails and dueties of Lands, or Tithes falling within the compasse of the faid efcheate, fingle or life-rent, and all and whatfoever intrometters shall be lyable in paiment of the ministers stipends, and of all charges, penalties and dammage which the faid rebell fhould have been lyable to himfelfe, and that actions shalbe competent therefore against them, Providing the caufes of the horning, whereupon the gift is taken, and the expences of the passing thereof be first fatisfied, and that the donator hath intrometted or might have intrometted with as much as might have paid the ministers Ripend : and that no fuspension shalbe granted of decreets obtained against the said donators and intrometters but in the manner forefaid. And our Soveraigne Lord and Estates foresaid declares, that this Act shall extended to universities, colledges, schooles and hospitals, masters and members thereof, for the more ready and thankefull paiment to them of their stipends, provisions, mortifications, revenues, and their dueties whatfoever.

ACT XII

ACT FOR ABOLISHING OF MONUMENTS Of Idolatrie. 10. September. 1641.

Pa Pa An Control Contr

Ur Soveraigne Lord with confent of the Effates of Parliament, understanding, that the generall Affembly of the Kirk hath by their special Act, made 30. July, 1640. Self.3. Ordained all Idolatrous Images, Crucifixes, Pictures of Christ,& all other Idolatrous Pictures, to be demolished and removed forth, and from all Kirks, Colledges, Chappels, and other publick places. Therefore ordaines all Presbyteries to take diligent tryall of all idolatious Pictures and Images, being within Kirkes, Colledges, Chappels, and other publick places, and after tryall intimate the fame, first to the owners and parties themselves, that they may remove the fame : and in cafe they doe neither appeale prefently from the prefbyterie in the ordinarie way to the Synod and generall Affembly, nor remove them within the space of three moneths, then to intimate the fame to all Sheriffs, Stewards, Bayliffs, Magistrates of Burghs or Regalities, within the which the fame shall be found : and ordaines them upon the requisition to be made to them by the saids Presbyteries, Moderator, or Brethren thereof, to raze, demolifh, abolifh, caft down or deface all these Idolatrous Images, Pictures, and other idolatrous monuments forelaids, according as they shall be enjoyned and directed from the faids Presbyteries from time to time, ilk one of them, within their own bounds and jurifdiction respective, except in the case of appellation aforefaid. And if the Presbyteries be negligent, that they be cenfured by the Synods and generall Affemblies, and the Sheriffs, and other officers forefaid (in cafe of their negligence,)to be cenfured by the fecret Councell, as they shalthink reasonable: And prohibites, and difcharges all making of any fuch Images or idols, and all up-putting of the fame in all time comming under all highest paines, to be inflicted upon the contraveeners thereof.

ACT XIII

ACT ANENT NON-COMMUNICANTS And Excommunicate Perfons. 10. September 1641.

UR Soveraigne Lord and Estates of Parliament, Ra-Of excommunicate perfons made by his Majefties Father of bleffed memory, one therof Par. 14. cap. 197. and the other Par. 20. cap. 3. with the addition and declaration following, that no gift of efcheat paft or to bee paft upon excommunication to bee past upon excommunication, or horning upon excommunication shall be vallid, but the samine is declared to have been, and to be null in all time comming, by way of exception or reply: and declares the faids two Acts ratified, as faid is, with the addition foresaid made thereto, to be extended to all excommunication pronounced, or to be pronounced against what soever person or perfons, and for what soever causes : And further, His Majestie and Estates forefaid, Ratifies and approves the Act made by his Majesties Father, Par. 16.cap.17. anent non-communicants every year once, with this declaration and addition, that the penalties of the contraveeners, modified in the faid Act, be payable in all time coming to the feveral Presbyteries within the Jurifdiction, whereof the contraveeners dwell, to be applied by them ad pios use: And that the faidPresbyteries, or any they appoint, shall have power to crave, receive and pursue for the same. And further, Our Soveraigne Lord and Estates foresaids, for the greater terror and the more effectuall reclaiming of all excommunicate perfons, declares that all perfons whatfoever, according to the degrees and qualities mentioned in the faid Act, lying under the fentence of excommunication, shall be lyable to the paines and penalties therein contained, and that yearely after the fentence of excommunication, ay and while they be relaxed therefrom, and reconciled to the Kirk: And alfo declares, that the faid yearely penalties against excommunicate persons shall pertain to every paroch Kirk, and Kirk feffion, in burgh or land-ward, within their owne bounds, to be applyed ad pios use: And that they, or any person they appoint, shall have power to crave, receive, and pursue the famine, to be applyed to the pious uses of the feverall paroch Kirk fessions, where the contraveeners dwell : And in case of the paroch kirk sessions their slacknesse, the Presbyterie to exact after the expiration of yeare and day after the contraveening. And further declares the donators to the excommunicate perfons their fimple escheat and liferent, and all other intrometters with their goods and geir and livings, shall be liable to the payment of the faids paines and penalties in the famine manner, as the excommunicate perfons are lyable themselves. And because in the said Act there is no particular penalty modified against Burgessies, Therefore His Majestie and Estates foresaids, ordaines everie Burges that beares, or hath borne office of Magistracie, so oft as he shall contraveene

the faid Act, To pay the fumme of two hundred marks, and every other burges the fumme of fourtie pounds : And fuch like ordaines the faid perfons, to be liable in the faids penalties refpective, not only for their own perfonall contraveening of the faid Act, but alfo fo oft as the fame fhall be contraveened by their wives refpective, and alfo fo oft as the fame fhall be contraveened by their children, they fhall incurre the fift part of the faids paines, refpective, for every bairne, not forisfamiliat, and of the age of fifteen yeares compleat, and that toties quoties they fhall contraveene the faid Act : And fuch like, that every fervant fo oft as he fhall contraveene the faid Act ; fhall pay one yeares fee, toties quoties, lawfull requifition being alwaies made to the faids Wives, Children and Servants by their Paftor or Presbyterie to give obedience to the faid Act.

ACT XIIII.

ACT ANENT THE BULLION. 10. September, 1641.

Acr 14.

UR Soveraigne Lord and Eftates of Parliament, Confidering that one of the chiefe waies for bringing in of money into this Kingdome, hath been bullion, which now for lacke of the true way of managing thereof, is become unprofitable. Therefore our Soveraign Lord, with advice and confent of the faids Eftates, Statutes and Ordaines that in time comming all and every Merchant paffing forth of this Kingdome with any Merchandize, or fending the fame forth of this Countrie, at the cuftoming of the faids goods, Thall find fufficient fecurity to the cuftomers, for importing and inbringing fuch quantity and proportion of Bullion as by the Lawes of this Kingdome is due for the faids goods transported by them, and shall accordingly deliver the fame, and cause be delivered to the Master of the Coine house, and shall receive back again his Majesties coine of this Kingdome : And shall make faith, that the fame was brought by them from forraign parts, or by others in their name: and discharges all payment of Bullion before the hand, and all pactions made anent Bullion one with another, and paying of the fame with his Majefties coyne, or with any filver that is within the Countrey already, under the pain of doubling of the faid Bullion : As alfo becaufe the Bullion is ordained to be payed to the mafter of His Majefties coine houfe, who hath his only refidence in Edinburgh, and that thereby many Merchants who dwell not within the faid Burgh will be put to great and unneceffary charges, for a fmall matter of Bullion, Therefore it is declared, that it fhall be lawfull to the faids Merchants to fend the famine to the faid Master of the coine house, providing he fend therewith an atteftation under his oath and hand, if he can write, and under his mark if he cannot write, and both before two fub-

ACT XV

THE ELECTION ANENT ACT OF Officers of Estate, Counsellours, and Sessioners. 16. September, 1641.

BUR Soveraigne Lord and the Estates of Parliament, confidering, that whereas there was an Article in the O Treatie anent the manner of choosing and placing of Officers of State, Counsellours, and Sessioners, whereof the answer was remitted to be determined by his Majeftie and this Parliament : And his Majeftie being willing to give this his ancient and native

Kingdome all fatisfaction poffible, That fit and qualified perfons shall ever fill these places, And confidering that his Majesties residence (because of his great affaires) will be more ordinary in England then here, whereby the qualification of perfons may not at all times be fo well knowne to him : Therefore his Majestie, with advice and confent of the Estates of Parliament, Declares for himselfe and his Successions, That he will nominate and make choice of fuch able and qualified perfons to fill these places, as shall be fittest for his service, and may give most contentment to the Estates of Parliament : Which nomination and choice His Majestie will make, with the advice and approbation of the faids Eftates of Parliament, during their fitting: And if any of the faids places shall happen to vake, and must be provided in the intervall betwixt Parliaments, his Majestie will choose and nominate Officers of State and Counfellours, with the advice and approbation of the Councell, all that number being warned upon 15. daies calling to meet thereanent, and most part of the whole consenting: And in like manner the Seffioners, with the advice and approbation of the most part of that House. Which elections, made in the intervall, shall be allowed or difallowed in the next enfuing Parliament, as the Kings Majeftie and the Parliament shall think expedient: And the Officers of State, Counfellours, and Lords of Seffion, fo nominated and chofen by his Majestie and the Parliament, or allowed by his Majestie and them, shall be provided ad vitam vel culpam, and they all shall be lyable to the cenfure of the Kings Majestie and Parliament.

ACT XVI

ACT ANENT THE ELECTION OF THE Lord LOWDOUN to be Chancellour. Ultimo Septembris, 1641.

HE which day the Kings Majefty, with the advice and approbation of the Effates of Parliament, did nominate and elect fohn Lord Lowdoun to exerce and difcharge the place and office of High Chancellour of this his Highneffe ancient native Kingdome, and gave and difponed to him, during all the dayes of his life time, the faid office, with all honours, dignities, profits, liberties, and priviledges, which have beene poffeft and bruiked by any preceding Chancellours, and which may be now bruiked by the Lawes of this Kingdome: Like as his Majeftie, with advice and approbation forefaid, makes and conftitutes the faid fohm Lord Lowdoun, during all the dayes of his life time, High Chancellour of this his faid Kingdome, to be bruiked and enjoyed by him, with all dignities, honours, commodities, liberties, and priviledges, which have beene poffeft and bruiked by any preceding Chancellours, and which may be now. bruiked by the Lawes of this Kingdome: and ordaines a gift and patent to be paft under His Highneffe great Seale to the faid fohm Lord Lowdoun thereupon.

ACT ANENT THE CHANGE OF THE Termes. 29. October, 1641.

Acr 16.17.

UR Soveraign Lord and Eftates of Parliament, Confidering the great prejudice his Majefties Lieges doe fuftaine by the inconveniencie of the prefent ufuall termes of payment of their debts and annuall Rents at Whitfunday and Martinmas heretofore; Where as if the famine were altered and changed to Lammas and Candlemas yeerly, they might get in their owne rents and dueties to pay their lawfull creditors therewith, more eafily at the faid Termes of Lammas and Candlemas, then at the former termes of Whitfunday and Martinmas : Therefore Our Soveraign Lord and Eftates of Parliament, have now altered and changed the forefaid former courfe of the Termes of payment from Whitfunday and Martinmas, to the Termes of Lammas and Candlemas, in all time hereafter, And ordains the fame to be the ufual Termes of payment of all debts and annuall, and for ufing of all order of Redemption, & ordains all Premonitions & Requifitions to be made before the faid Termes of Lammas and Candlemas, in place of the Termes of Whitfunday and Martinmas, in time coming: Notwithftanding of any clau-

ACT XIX-

FAVOURS OF THE COMMIS-ACT IN fioners for the Sherifdome of Sutherland, 11. November, 1641.

O Conventions, allowance fhall be given to the faids Conventions for their whole charges and expen-

ces, in manner specified in the said Act: And that the daily allowance appointed for ilk Commissioner, in manner mentioned and divided in the faid Act, after the rifing of the faids Padiaments, or generall Councels, shall be calculate and put in a summe by the Clerks of Parliament, under their hand, to be divided and imposed proportionally upon the whole Freeholders of the Kings Majefty and the Prince, according to the stent of their lands lying within the Shire: And that letters be direct thereupon by the Lords of Session to charge the faids Freeholders of his Majefty and Prince, to conveen at the head Burgh of every Shire upon a special day, for dividing & setting down the proportion thereof, in maner forefaid, as the faid Act made in favours of the faid whole Commissioners of small Barons and Shires at more length bears. And his Majestie and the faids Estates, confidering, that in the Parliament in the year of God 1633.a particular Act of Parliament was made in favours of the Free Barons, and others Inhabitants within the Sherifdome of Sutherland, giving power to them to elect and choofe their own Commissioners for the faid Sherifdome, to compeir at Parliaments, meetings, and generall Conventions within this kingdom, at all occafions, And confidering likewife, that by the faid Act, made in favours of the faids whole Commissioners, the Commissioner chofen and attending this prefent Parliament for theSherifdome of Sutherland, and the Commissioners who shalbe chosen and sent from the faid Sherifdome of Sutherland to attend thir Parliaments, Generall Councels, and other Generall meetings and Conventions of Estates hereafter in all time comming, shall have no allowance of their expences and charges to be depurft by them in the faid fervice, albeit the faid Shire be one of the remotest and farthest distance in the Kingdome : Becaufe there is onely two Inhabitants within the faid Shire holding Lands of the Kings Majesty, the whole remanent heritors being either Vaffals to the Earle of Sutherland, or holding their Lands of fome other Superiour : And fo according to the faid generall Act, the allowance of the Commissioner of that Shire cannot be divided, nor imposed for payment and satisfaction of his charges and expences, except the famine be extended against the Heritors, Fewars, and Freeholders within the faid Sherifdome, holding lands of other Superiours in manner under written. Therefore His Majesty, and Estates

99 of Parliament, ordains the allowance appointed by the faid generall Act, in favours of the Commissioners of the said Sherifdome of Sutherland, to be extended, divided, and imposed proportionally upon all and fundry Heritors, Fewars, Life-renters, and Freeholders within the faid Shire, whether they bee Vassals to his Majefty, or holding their lands of any other Superiours what sever, according to the stent of their lands lying within the faid Shire : and that letters be direct thereupon by the Lords of Seffion, to charge all and fundry the Heritors, Fewars, Life-renters, and Free-holders within the faid Shire, holding of any Superiour what soever, to conveene at Dornoch, being the head Burgh of the faid Shire, upon a special day, for dividing and fetting down the proportion thereof, in manner forefaid : With power alfo to ftent all and fundry the faids Heritors, Fewars, Life-renters, and Free-holders, holding of whatfoever; Superiour within the faid Shire, for the tenth penny more of the faids whole fummes fo calculated for the expences of the letters to be railed therefore, and others charges in collecting thereof: With certification that fuch as shall conveene, shall have power to proceed, notwithstanding of the absence of the rest: And that letters of horning and pounding be direct thereupon at the inftances of the faids Commissioners for payment thereof, in manner above written : And if payment be not made within the dayes contained in the charge, so that the said Commissioners shall be forced to pound therefore, then, and in that case it shall be lawfull to pound for the double of the summe charged for by and attour the Sheriffe: And that no fuspension passe thereupon, but upon confignation allanerly. And if the fuspension shall discusse against the Suspender, in that case the Suspender shall be ordained to make payment to the Commissioners of the double of the sum charged for, by and attour the Commissioners others charges and expences in difcuffing the suspension : And this Act to take effect for the Commisfioners of this prefent Parliament, and all Parliaments hereafter.

ACT XLIV.

ACT DISCHARGING THE TRANS. Portation of Eggs. 16. November, 1641.

U R Soveraigne Lord and Estates of Parliament finde that it is necesfary and expedient, for the good of the publick, that the transporting of egges out of this Kingdome be reftrained, in respect it brings not any confiderable moneyes into the Countrey, no wayes comparable to the losse, confidering the diet of poore labouring servants, who eate only bread, and drinke water, if egges were restrained, might be bettered, by getting egges to his meat at an easie rate, or of his own,

The breed of Chickens, Hens, and Capons, would be in farre greater abundance, fo that they might fell at two pence, a groat, and fix pence, where they are now two groats, twelve pence, and eighteen pence: And where the eggs fell now at fourtie pennies, fometimes a groat, might be fold for twelve pennies, or eighteene pennies: And where they give five fhillings fix pence where the falt is made, they might fell their deareft for a two pence: Therefore to grant a reftraint under the paine of confifcation of the egges, and an hundred pound, toties quoties, to be incurred by the party transporter, to be proved by witneffes, or oath of party.

ACT XLV.

ACT AGAINST DESTROYERS OF Planting, and others. 16. November, 1641.

O dikes of either, and fpoiling of the ground and plantdikes of either, and fpoiling of the ground and plantevill affected to policie, is a great difcouragement to many who are vertuoufly difposed to Parking and Planting : Therefore his Majesty, with confent of the Estates, discharges all hawkers, hunters, travellers, and others perfons whatsoever, to whom the samine Parking and Planting doe not belong, from demolishing, downcasting, climing, or any wayes wronging of any of the Dikes forefaids, Parkes Parks and Planting within the famine, under the paine of five pounds toties quoties: Which fines, his Majeftie and Eftates forefaids declares to appertaine to the owners of the faids Parks and Plantings, they or their fervants deprehending the failers: And if any other deprehend them, the one halfe to appertaine to the deprehender, the other to the heritor, With power to the deprehender to purfue the contraveener before the ordinar Judge: And if it shall happen the heritors own tenant to contraveen the Act forefaid, with power to the heritors to unlaw them at their own pleasure, the penalty and unlaw alwayes not exceeding the pain forefaid.

ACT XLVI

ACT ORDAINING THE PURSUER OF The thiefe to be reftored to his owne goods. 16. November 1641.

UR Soveraigne Lord and Eftates of Parliament, underftanding, that when any theeves were taken and executed for theft, or declared fugitives for not entering and under-lying the law, therefore their whole efcheat fell to the Kings Majeftie, and the goods ftollen, pertaining to the purfuer of the faids theeves, and fo the faid party wronged was prejudged of his owne geir: Therefore, and for remeed whereof, our faid Soveraign Lord and Eftates of Parliament statutes and ordaines, that any person, having any goods or geir stollen from them, and having pursued the stealer thereof, shall have their owne goods againe wherever the famine can be apprehended, although the thiefe stealer thereof suffer: And where the faids stollen goods cannot be had, ordaines the pursuers of the faid thiefe to have the just value, price, and availe of the goods and geir stollen from him, out of the readiest of the theeves goods: Together with the expences they shall wair in the faid pursuit, the pursuers alwayes pursuing the thiese, using and femtentiam, referving to the taker and Sheriffe the expences bestowed by them in the taking and execution of the thiese.

ACT ANENT COALE-HEWERS. 16. November, 1641.

R Soveraign Lord and Estates of this present Par-O Farliament, ratifies the eleventh Act of the eighteenth ry, made anent Coale-hewers and Salters, with this addition, that becaufe Water-men who laves and drawes water in the coale heuch hered in the water drawes water in the coale-heuch-head in this Kingdome, and gaits-men who worke the wayes and pasfages in the faids heuchs, are als necessar to the owners and masters of the faid coale-heuchs as the coale-hewers and bearers, It is therefore statute and ordained, that no person shall hyre or seduce any watermen, and windf-men, and gaitf-men without a teftimoniall of the master whom they ferve, under the pains contained in the former Acts in all points: And because it is found by experience, that the giving of great fees hath beene a meane and way to feduce and bring coale-hewers from their masters, It is therefore statute and ordained, that it shall not bee lawfull to any coale-masters in this Kingdome to give any greater fee nor the fumme of twenty markes in fee, or bounteth, under any colour or pretext: And because the saids coale-hewers, and salters, and others workemen in coale-heuchs within this Kingdome, doelye from their worke at Palch, Yule, Whitfunday and certaine other times in the yeare, which times they imploy in drinking and deboishrie, to the great offence of God, and prejudice of their master, It is therefore statute and ordained, that the faids coale-hewers and falters, and others workemen of coale-heuchs in this Kingdome, worke all the fix dayes of the weeke, under the pains following, that is to fay, That every coalehewer or falter who lyes idle, shall pay twenty shillings for every day, by and attour the prejudice sustained by their master, and other punish-

ACT DISCHARGING THE MIXING OF TIN With lead, 16. November 1641.

UR Soveraign Lord and Etlates of this prefent Parliament, of confidering the great hurt fuftained by his Majefties Lieges by the fraudulent dealing of pewterers, in mixing the finer fort of tinne brought from England, France, Flanders, and other parts beyond fea, with bafer and courfer mettall of tin and lead, &their exacting greater prices betwixt the new caffin by them, and the old, which they receive from the lieges : For remeed wherof, it is statute and ordained, that the pewterer or founder of tin shall put the marke of the thriffle, and his owne name upon every piece of worke that hee Lappens happens to cast, and that the same shall bee of the finest of the pewter marked with the role in England : And in cafe the fame be under the finesse of the laid pewter of England, that the fame shall bee confiscate, and hee punished in his person at the discretion of the Magistrates of the Burgh where he dwells: And to that effect, that there bee a visitor appoynted by the Magistrates for trying of the famine: As likewise that he shall take betwixt the pound of old tinne and pewter, marked with the role forelaid which he receives from the Lieges, and the pound of new caffin by him, eighteene pennies allanerly, under the pain forefaid.

ACT XLIX.

ANENT DOCQUETING AND PRESENTING Of Signators. 16. November, 1641.

U R Soveraign Lord, with advice and confent of the Effates of Parliament, Confidering that by the twentieth Act of his Majefties dearest Father King James the fixth his tenth Parliament, for avoyding the prejudice did then arife by the fubleribing of fundry Signators and Letters at the importunate fuite and defire of fundry perfons, His Highnesse not being informed or timely warned to the effect and contents thereof, Therefore his Majefty, with the advice of the Estates conveened in Parliament, did statute and ordaine, that no Signator nor Letter what foever shall bee presented to his Majesty in time coming, but by his ordinary officers, unto whom the famine properly belongeth, or who have power of docqueting and presenting by their patents, as the Act at more length beareth: And his Majesty, with advice and content forefaid, alfo confidering how prejudiciall it is to his Majesties honour, and the peace and good of his Majesties Subjects, That Signators of one and the same thing without his Majesties certaine knowledge, shall passe his Majesties hand in tavours of feverall perfons, or that Letters of contrary tenours shall bee figned by his Majesty, and directed to Officers and Judges within this Kingdome, The onely occasion thereof is, that others then the said Officers, or their Deputes, or others forefaid, to whom the famine may belong, Takes upon them to prefent Signators and Letters to his Majesty for their friends and acquaintance, either not knowing the former Signator or Letters of contrary straine, or of set knowledge to reverse what hath beene done before, without giving true information or reasons to move his Majesty to signe these Signators, or wrest contrary Letters: For remeed whereof, his Majesty, with advice and consent foresaid, ratifies and approves the foresaid Act in all the poynts therof, and declares that it shall not bee leifome or permitted to any person or persons whatsoever, to present any Signator, Writ, Letter, or Warrant to bee figned by his Majesty, except by the saids ordinary Officers, unto whole Office the famine properly belongs, and by others forefaids, having power and warrant, as faid is: And that his Majesty may the

tutes, ordaines and declares, That all thefe fuperiorities which formerly pertained to the faids pretended Bishops and their chapters, now aboli-Thed, as faid is, doe now pertain and belong, and shall hereafter pertain to our Soveraign Lord, & His Highneffe Succeffours in all time coming: And that the Vassals of these Lands, Mils, Fishings, heritable Offices, and others, which formerly held of the famine Bilhops and their chapters, doe now, and shall in time coming hold the famine of our Soveraign Lord the Kings Majesty and His Successions, in the fame form and manner of holding, as they formerly held of the saids Bishops and their chapters, conform to the faids vaffals their infeftments and rights, made and pertaining to them, which are hereby declared to be unprejudged by the abolishing of the faids Bishops and their chapters, their former Superiours : And ficlike , Our faid Soveraign Lord and Estates of Parliament declare all these fervices of heires to their defunct predecessours, to any of the Lands and others, holder of the faids Bishops (fince the excommunication of Bishops,) whereby these heires are ferved to the faids Lands to be holden of the Kings Majefty, to be vallid and lawfull fervices and rights led and done : And ordaines all fuch fervices as are to be led & deduced hereafter, for ferving of the heires of the vassals of the lands and others forefaids, as heires in the famine lands, to be ferved heires thereintill, to be holden of the Kings Majesty and His Successions forefaids, as their superiours of the famine Lands and others above mentioned, in all time coming, with this provision, that the few duties of these lands holden of the chapters now retained in titulo, shall pertaine and be payed them, during the present titulars life-times : And it is declared, that this present act shall not be prejudiciall to the infeftment granted by his Majesty to the Duke of Lennox of the superiority of the whole Lands and Barronies which pertained to the temporality of the Arch-bishoprick of Glasgow, but that the faid infeftment shall stand vallid in the felfe, and the vassals to hold their Lands of the said Duke of Lennox and his Succeffours, as their fuperiours thereof in time coming: And alfo declares thir presents, neither act nor refervation forefaid, shall not be extended to the Deanrie or Sub-deanrie of Glasgow, nornothing holden of the Dean or Sub-dean: As also but prejudice to the Earle of Lauderdaill, of his infeftments of Stobo and Ettilstoun, which is no wayes prejudged by this act nor refervation forefaid, Providing that this provision shall not better, nor strengthen the Earle of Lauderdails right and infeftment forefaid, But the famine to be in that famine condition, as before the date of thir prefents.

ACT LII

COMMISSION FOR REVISING OF The Registers. 16. November 1641.

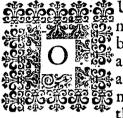

UR Soveraigne Lord and Estates of Parliament, confidering that this long time by-gone the Registers and Records of Parliament have not beene visited, O fo that fome of the ancient Records might have been abstracted, vitiate, or disordered: Therefore our Soveraigne Lord and Estates forefaids, gives full power and Commission to the perfons following, viz. the Lord Chancellour, the Earle of Argyle, Earle of Lauderdaill, and Clerk Register, to meet when the Lord Chancellour shall appoint

To take infpection, and revife and looke over all the whole Registers and Records of Parliament, as well these in the Castle, as these in other mens custodie, and to call for the old Inventars thereof, and compare them with the Registers, and to make two new authentick Inventars thereof, without copying of the faids Registers and Records: Which Inventars shall be subscribed by the most part of the visitors, the one whereof shall be delivered to the Clerk Register, to bee kept by him, the other Inventar shall be laid up, either with their Honours, or some other lockfast place, whereof the Lord Chancellour for the time shall keep the key, and to cause make presses, boxes, buists, or other necesfaries fitting for keeping of the faids Registers and Records, And also to confider of the place and house where the faids Registers lie, and to advise and appoint the best wayes and meanes for preferving and sure custodie of the saids Registers and Records, With power also to them to mark and observe any defect or wants in the faids Registers and Records, and the vitiations thereof, if any be: And ficlike, to marke, number, and put in perfect order, the faids Registers and Records, with power also to make a perfect Index of all the unprinted Acts of Parliament which doe not concerne particularly private perfons, but fuch as import and concerne only generally the whole lieges: And ficlike, gives full power to the perfons forefaids to lay up the principall late Treatie amongst the faids Records and Registers, and generally to doe all and fundry other things, whereby the faids Registers and Records may be preferved, and their perfections or imperfections may be notified : And ordaines them to make report of their faithfull and exact diligence hereintill at the next Parliament. And our Soveraigne Lord and Estates foresaid, declares thir presents is no wayes prejudiciall to the Clerk Register of receiving, keeping, and using of the faids Registers, and keyes thereof, in the meane time conforme to his right and place.

ACT LIII

ACT ANENT COCQUETS, AND ENTRIES of Ships, modifying the entrie to 23. shillings 4. pennies, and the Cocquet to 40. shillings. 16. November, 1641.

UR Soveraigne Lord and Effates prefently convee-ned, understanding there are divers abuses committed by the Customers and Receivers of entries of Ships, and by the keepers of the Cocquet, in sometime ex-acting from Masters of Ships greater summes of money than is due to them, and sometimes absenting themselves, to the great prejudice of the March themselves, to the great prejudice of the Merchants estate, and to the hazard of the losse of their voyage: Therefore our Soveraigne Lord, with advice and confent of the Estates, ordains, that there be no greater price exacted for entring their Ships and Goods, then the fumme of twenty three shillings foure pennies, and for the faid Cocquet, then the fumme of fourty shillings : and that the keepers of the faid Cocquet attend by themfelves, or their fervants, diligently and readily, to answer and give out Cocquets to all Merchants, and Masters of Ships, under paine of losing their place, whensoever they shall be found, either to exact more then the faid fumme above written, or shall occasion to the faids Merchants and Mafter's more delay nor is needfull for writing of the fame.

ACT LIV.

ACT ANENT DISCHARGING THE Registration of comprisings, and appointing the recording and allowing of comprisings, and prices thereof. 16. November 1641.

UR Soveraigne Lord and Effates of Parliament, having taken to their confideration, that the registra-tion of Comprisings hath put the lieges to great, needlesse, and unnecessary charges and expences, and that the famine doth neither adde to the validity of the Comprisings, nor to the benefit of the Com-prifers : And therefore have discharged, and by the tenour hereof discharges all registration of Comprisings, together with all gifts, Acts of Councell, and others warrants, confuetude or cuftome what soever, granted or observed thereanent: And de-clares, that the famine Gifts, Acts of Councell, and others warrants, confuetude or custome, to be null and of none availe, force nor effect, in all time comming. And ficlike, our Soveraign Lord and Estates of Parliament, confidering, that a short Record of all Comprisings of lands lands and rents, heritable bands, contracts, reverfions, and others, and legals thereof, viz, of the comprifers names and defignations, The defenders names, the debt for the which the comprising is used, the lands and others comprised, the Maissers and Clerks names, the times of the denunciations and executions, and witneffes thereto, and date of the comprisings, and of the superiours of the lands comprised, is very necessar for the Lieges their informations : Therefore statutes and ordaines, that all comprifers shall be obliged to bring their comprifings to the clerk of the Bils, within threefcore dayes after the date of the comprisings, to the effect that the famine may be allowed by the Lords of Councell and Seffion, At the which time, ordaines the faid clerk to the bils, to make a record of the faids comprisings in a book, wherein all comprisings shall be recorded in manner above written : for the which allowance and recording of the faid comprising in manner above-written, the clerk shall have forty shillings for the whole record of ilk comprising and allowance : And ficlike for the extract of ilk record of the faids comprisings that shall be extracted under the faid clerk his hands, Our Soveraign Lord and Estates ordaines the fumme of twenty shillings for every extract, to be payed to the faid clerk of the bils, as due price competent to him therefore, Which fumme, the faid clerk shall not transcend, under the paines contained in the acts of Parliament.

ACT LV.

ACT DISCHARGING THE LORDS OF Seffion, to exact twelve pennies for the pound, and all other exactions. 16. November 1641.

Ur Soveraign Lord, with advice and confent of the Eftates of Parliament, Confidering that the Senators of the Colledge of Juffice, are fufficiently provided by His Majefty and Eftates, for ferving their places without further burden of the Lieges : Therefore His Majesty and Estates foresaids, discharges in all time comming, all fentence filver, twelve pennies of the pound, and other exactions imposed upon fentences and decreets to be pronounced by the faids Judges : And difcharges all Acts, Statutes and Ordinances, made for payment thereof : With power alwayes to the faids Judges, to modifie fuch charges to the parties in whofe favours the faids decreets and fentences shall be pronounced, as in equity and confcience they shall think reasonable, and as the malicious and wilfill pleyars, pursuers, or defenders shall deferve.

ACT LVI. ACT ANENT PARDON OF PENALL Statutes. 16. November, 1641.

UR Soveraign Lord confidering, that the precife and rigorous exaction of the paine arbitrary and pecuniall adjected to penall Statutes heretofore made, would prove a burthen to his Majefties Lieges, heavie, and infupportable, if by his Majefties Grace and Favour they fhould not bee eafed and liberate of the fame: In confideration whereof, his Majefty being willing to give ease and reliefe to his Subjects of the foresaid burthen, Hath therefore been graciously pleased, with confent of the Estates of Parliament, to discharge freely, pardon and remit, and by these presents discharges freely, pardons, and remitts all contraveeners of any of the faid penall Statutes, for all deeds done by them, contrary to the tenour of the statutes in time by-gone, Except onely the Statutes concerning the unlawfull taking of usury, transporting of money and gold, slaying of red and blacke fish, with the penalties incurred by the concealers of annuall rents, and wrongous up-givers of the inventars of their money, which are no wayes discharged by this present Act nor comprehended under the same.

ACT LVII

ACT IN FAVOURS OF ORPHANES, Fatherlesse, and others. 16. November 1641.

UR Soveraign Lord, with the advice and confent of the Eftates of this prefent Parliament, Understanding many pitifull effects daily found and encreasing, Anent the mifery and poverty of Orphanes and Fatherlesse children, to have been occasioned in this manner, That many ignorant people, the time of the acquiring to them of bands, contracts, and other fecurities for payment of fummes of money, takes the famine to them, their heires, executors, and affignes, with clause and condition of payment of annuall rent therefore during the not payment of the said principall summe, meaning thereby, that the samine should no wayes remaine unprofitable during the not payment thereof, And no wayes that the faid clause or condition should make the faid fummes and securities thereof to pertaine to the heire in prejudice of their bairnes and others nearest of kinne by the heire, whereas by the contrary by the interpretation now observed, all such summes and securities bearing annuall or profit, are exponed to bee heretable after the terme of payment, and to pertain to the heire, fo that thereby the reft of the children nearest of kinne, and others having interest, are altogether therefrom fecluded, and left pitifully unprovided of any meanes to live on, As alfo the faids bands and contracts, are very oft fraudfully concealed and abstracted, and never knowne to the true owner thereof, that in due time they might make use of the same, Which is against both equity and confcience, and the intention of the party acquirer of confideration the bounty and benevolence of his Majelies most noble progenitors, King James the 2. and King James the 4. in giving their vaffalls Liberty to fet their ward lands few, and herewith also remembring that by the 16. act of his Majefties first parliament, anno 1633. his Majesty and the prince his highnes their vassals of ward lands, are altogether fecluded from that benefit of his Majesties bounty and benevolence foresaid, which prejudice is by the 37. act of that seffion of this present parliament holden in June, 1640. yeares, recommended to be confidered at the next meeting thereafter of the faid parliament, and during that interim the force and execution of the faid act 1633. is suspended and suppressed, And now his Majesty being gratiously pleased of his royall favour and bounty that the vaffalls of ward lands holding of his facred Majesty and of the Prince his highnesse, may enjoy their former libertie, with the benefite of his Majestie and his most noble progenitors their bounty and benevolence forefaid, unprejudged or empared by forefaid act, 1633. Therefore our faid Soveraigne Lord and Estates of Parliament

ACT LVIII

FAVOURS OF THE VASSALS ACT, IN Of ward Lands, holding of the King and Prince. 16. November, 1641.

OF KING CHARLES.

refeinds and annulls the forefaid 16. Act of his Majesties first Parliament, in anno 1633. yeares, intitulate, Anent vassals holding ward, And declares the famine Act to be null, of none availe, force, firength, nor effect in all time coming, in fo farre as the famine Act is, or may bee extended to the lands holden ward of the King or Prince, as faid is: And declares the vassals of the ward lands forefaids, and others his Majefties Lieges and Subjects, to bee in that fame eftate and condition, and have the same libertie concerning ward lands, which they had before the making of the faid Act, and as if the famine had never beene made, Which our faid Soveraign Lord & Estates of Parliament declares to be extinct, and of none availe, force, nor effect in all time hereafter.

ACT LIX. BREADTH OF ANENT THE PLAIDING. 16. November, 1641.

Hereas our Soveraign Lord and Estates presently W difembled, underftanding that the plaiding of this Kingdom is one of the moft ancient & prime commo-dities therof, which of late through the inconftancy of the breadth, is likely to become of no effimation a-broade. Therefore our Soveraign Lord, with advice of the faid Estates, ordains the makers thereof to make the fame of no lesse breadth then of three quarters of an elne, under pain of confifcation of all that shalbe found of a lesser breadth, And farther, understanding that the Lords of his Majefties Councell had, for efchewing of the deceit in making thereof, ordained the fame to bee prefented in Folds and not in Rols to the market, as it was uled of before, Therefore his Majesty, with confent and advice forefaid, ratifies and approves the faid Act of Councell dated at Edinburgh the twentie fourth day of March, 1635. yeeres, in all theheads, claufes, and circumstances thereof, and ordaines the same to takefull execution, and to stand as a law in all time coming.

ACT IN FAVOURS OF LAICK PATRONES Of Provestries, Prebandries, Chaplandries and Alterages. 16. November 1641.

ACT 59.60.

O Construction of the first His Majefties Father of eternall memory, Par. 1. cap. 12. anent Provestries, Prebandries, Alterages, Chaplandries and collegiall Kirks, pertaining to laick Patrones, together with the act of Parliament 12. cap. 158. ratifying the famine, held

and ordaines the faid acts to have full force and effect in all time comming, With this declaration alwayes, that in respect the vassals which

yet the famine hath not as yet made any confiderable progressie, for want of cherishing, entertainment, and right order for profecution thereof: In confideration whereof, His Majesty and Estates of Parliament, being refolved to use all ordinar meanes for erecting, cherifhing , and maintaining of Manufactories within this Kingdome , And His Majesty, with advice and confent forefaid, being graciously pleased to grant all Liberties, Priviledges and Immunities to the erectors thereof, Therefore His Majesty and Estates forefaid, gives, grants and commits to these perfons, or Quorum thereof, who shall be nominate by the Lords of fecret Councell, (to whom the Kings Majesty and Parliament hereby gives the nomination of the faids Commissioners, and Quorum thereof forefaid, to the effect after specified,) full power, warrant and commission, to meet and conveen at Edinburgh, or any other place or places, at fuch dayes and times they or the faid Quorum shall think fitting, and there to confult, advise and determine upon the best rules, overtures and propositions, and wayes for erecting and maintaining of the faids manufactories of all forts : With power to them, or the faid Quorum, To call and conveen before and with them, any perfon or perfons who can give them information or affiftance in the faids bufinesses: As also with power to them, or their faid Quorum, to appoint correction houses in such parts of the Kingdome, as they shall think most conduceable for the good of the saids Manufactories, and reftraint of idle and masterlesse beggars : As also with power to them to prefcribe rules and wayes for afsifting, fupplying, and maintaining of these who have already, or shall, during the time of this Commission, erect and entertaine any of the faids Manufactories, and to direct letters against masterlesse people, and their receptars, as well to burgh as land-ward, commanding them to worke at fuch reasonable rates, as the faid Commissioners, or Quorum thereof, shall appoint : With power likewife to them to make Corporations, and to grant them priviledges, conforme to the lawes of the Kingdome. And ficklike, his Majefty, with advice forefaid, out of his gracious favour and bountie, doth hereby, for the better encouragement to all these who have undertaken, or shall undertake the erecting and maintaining of the faids Manufactories, or any one thereof, gives and grants to them the priviledges and immunities following, vi7. all Spanish and forraigne fine wool, for making of fine cloth, shall be custome free : Item, all litster ware, oyle, and others necessaries for the use of the faids workes allanerly, shall be free of all Customes and Impost: Item, all parcels of cloth, Seyes, and others, made by any who have erected, or shall erect any of the faids works, shall be Cuftome and Impost free for the space of fifteene yeares after the erecting thereof: Item, the workers of the faids works erected, or to be erected, shall be free of any taxation or imposition to be imposed on the Kingdome for any occafion by-gone or to come : Item, it shall not bee leafome to any in the Kingdome to hire, refet, or entertain any of the fervants of the faid works, without confent of the Masters thereof.

ACT LXV.

COMMISSION BY THE KIN G AND Parliament, to the Lords of fecret Councell. 16. November, 164.1.

Ur Soveraign Lord, with advice and confent of the Effates of Parliament, Confidering that his Majeffie being now actually prefent in his royall perfon in this his native and ancientKingdom, and willing before his returne to England (where his Majeffies more ordinar refidence hath been heretofore, and will apparently be in time coming to leave behind him fuch a pledge be in time coming) to leave behind him fuch a pledge and testimony of his tender respect, royall care, and fatherly affection for establishing the good and happie governement of this his Majesties ancient Kingdome, as in fome measure may fupply the want of his royall presence amongst them, Hath to this effect, out of his native goodneffe, condescended to an A& made in this present Seffion of Parliament with confent of the Estates, whereby his Majesty for himselfe and his Succeffours, hath willed, enacted, and ordained, that now and in all time coming, the Officers of State, Lords of fecret Councell, and Lords of Seffion, on whofe care, wifedome, and fidelity in their feverall judicatories (which next unto the fupreme Court of Parliament are the chiefe and principall judicatories) depends the weal and happineffe of the government, shall be chosen now and in all time comming, by His Majesty and his Successions, with advice and approbation of the Estates of Parliament when they are sitting, and for the interim, with advice of the Lords of fecret Councell and Seffion respective, as in the faid A& of Parliamentat more length is contained: Therefore His Majesty hath, with speciall advice and approbation of the faids Estates, nominated, elected and chosen the perfons after following, Lord Loudoun Chancellour, Duke of Lennox, Marquesse of Hammiltoun, Earle of Argyle, Earle Marshall, Earle of Sutherland, Earle of Mar, Earle of Mortoun, Earle of Eglintoun, Earle of Cashils, Earle of Glencairn, Earle of Murray, Earle of Pearth, Earle of Dumfermling, Earle of Wigtoun, Earle of Kinghorne, Earle of Roxburgh, Earle of Sea-forth, Earle of Lauderdaill, Earle of Lothian, Earle of Kinnowl, Earle of Southesk, Earle of Weymes, Earle of Dalhoussie, Earle of Finlater, Earle of Lanerk, Earle of Levin, Lord Angus, Lord Lindefay, Lord Yester, Lord Sinclair, Lord Elphingstoun, Lord Balmerino, Lord Burghlie, Lord Almond, Lord Balcarras, Clerk Register, Advocate, Justice Clerk, Thesaurer Depute, Master of Requests, Sir Robert Gordoun, Sir William Douglas, Sir Patrike Hepburne, Lord Dundas, Lord Fintrie, Lord Cambo, Lord Dun, Lord Innes, Lord Morphie, The Provek of Edinburgh for the time being, and thir fupernumerarie Councellors English, viz. Earle of Arundall, Earle of Pembroke, Earle of Salisbury, Earle of Holland, To whom, or any nine of them, by thefe

these supernumerary above named, His Majesty with advice and consent of the faidEstates hath committed, and commits the administration and governement of this his Majesties native Kingdom in all affaires concerning the peace, good, and happinesse thereof, which by the Lawes and Cuftome of this Kingdome, pertaines to the judgement, cognition, and determination of his Majesties privie Councell, with power to them, or any nine of them, as faid is, to meet and conveen at the place appoynted for the ordinair refidence of his Majesties privie Councell within the burgh of Edinburgh, or at any other place or places, which by common confent in cafe of any necessity or urgent occasion thereof, shall bee found most fit and convenient, and there to advice, confult, deliberate, conclude, decerne, and determine upon all and fundry affaires, purposes, and actions, which may concerne the good and peace of the Kingdome, according to the Lawes and Acts of Parliament established, or to bee established within the famine, and to heare, decide, and determine upon all caufes and actions betwixt Subject and Subject proper to bee decided by the Lords of his Majesties privie Councell, and that none bee present at their meetings but such as are of the privie Councell, with the clerke of the privie Councell, whom his Majesty with advice forefaid continues in his place as of before: His Majefty with advice and confent forefaid hath likewife given and granted, and by the tenour hereof gives and grants full power and Commission to the faid Councell and every one of them upon any interveening occasion of disorder or trouble in such parts of the Countrey, where they shall remaine for the time, To command and charge the perfon or perfons committers of fuch diforders to observe and keepe his Majesties peace, and to charge the contraveeners thereof to enter their perfons in ward, in fuch part or places, or within fuch a short space, as the faid Councellour shall think meet, there to remaine till order bee taken by a full number of the Councell in the matter wherein they have offended, Providing alwayes he be comptable to his Majesty and the rest of the Councell, and that no just cause of complaint be heard against him: And if the person or persons so charged to ward, shall happen to difobey and contemn the charge, his Majesty with advice and consent of the faids Estates declares, that upon report thereof to the Councell, a pecuniall fumme shall be imposed upon the offender, according to the quality of his perfon and nature of his offence, and the Councell is to cause apprehend the offenders, and commit them to ward, with power likewise to the faid Councell to make and fet downe Acts and Ordinances for governement of the Kingdome, and suppressing of diforders within the fame, With power likewife to the faid Councell, to give and appoynt Affessors to the Justice generall and his Deputies in case of neceffity, and to give warrant to the faid Justice, his Deputes, and Asserfors, for continuing execution after conviction, or for mitigating the punishment of the Law in criminall causes, if the nature and quality of the crymes shall require, & to grant Commissions of Justiciarie in matters criminall,& other Commissions in matters concerning the weale of the Kingdome, and als with power to them to give warrant to the faid Justice generall, his Deputes and others Commissioners foresaids, for imponing imponing of fines or pecuniall fummes upon the crimes of Adultery, bearing and wearing of Hagbuts and Pistolets, usury, and such other transgressours of the acts of Parliament, where the punishment by the Law is inflicted upon body or goods, or left to the arbitriment of the Judge: And likewife with power to them, to grant exemptions from hoftes, raids, affifes and licences, for departing out of the Kingdome, according to the conditions contained in the act of Parliament : And alse with power to the faid Councell, in case an open and avowed rebellion shall happen to be raised within the faid Kingdome, which cannot be redreffed but by force, To give commission of Lieutenantrie and Justitiarie for repressing of the said rebellion, and to direct charges to fuch parts of the countrey as they shall think fit for concurrence to be given in execution of the faid commiffion, and to give order and direction to furnish and advance the summes of money that shall be requisite in such expeditions: With power likewife to the faid Countell to raife the Seffion upon any interveening occafion or necessity, and to appoint times and places of their downe fitting: And generally, with power to the faid Councell, to do, use and exerce all and every thing, which the Councell of the faid Kingdome did, or might have done the time of his Majesties late Father : Providing alwayes, like as his Majesty expressly provides, with advice and consent forefaid, that this Commission shall no wayes be prejudiciall to the commission of Exchequer : And it is declared that any nine of the faid Councell shall be a sufficient number and make a Session, providing the Lord Chancellour be one of the nine and in cafe of the abfence of the faid Lord Gharleellour, it is declared that it shall be lawfull to any nine or moe of the Councell conveened in the ordihar place, and at the indicted time of meeting, to choose one of the number conveened, who shall prefide at the meeting als oft as the Lord Chancellour stiall be absent. And his Majesty and Estates, confidering that the often absence of the most part of the Councell, and their not attendance upon the charge and truft concreded unto them, will be a great impediment and hinderance to his Majefties fervice, Therefore his Majesty, with advice foresaid, declares, that it is his speciall pleasure and command, that the Lord Chancellour, or Prefident of the Councell, to be elected as faid is, doe fee and provide that the Councell be frequent, specially in great and weighty matters of Eflate: And if upon occasion that requires the number of the Councell to be more full then the faid Quorum, the Lord Chancellour, or President to be elected in manner forefaid, shall write to such others of the Councell as they think fit to be prefent, and give their attendance : In which cafe, if any difobey, without a licence obtained from his Majesty, or the Quorum of the Councell, or without some reafonable cause (either of which shall excuse their absence) then and in that cafe his Majesty, with advice forefaid, wils, that the absent shall be cenfured by the faid Councell, as a neglecter of his Majefties fervice, and that his Majesty be advertised thereof. And it is declared, that if any of the faids Councellours places vaiks by decease, dimission, or deprivation, that his Majestie in the interim shall nominate another of the same degree and quality in the vacant place, with advice of the most part of the Lords of Privie Councell, they being all prefent at the faid election, at the least lawfully warned to that effect, upon fifteene dayes warning; conforme to the Act of Parliament made thereanent : Which election made in the interim, as faid is, shall be allowed or difallowed by his Majestie, with confent of the Estates in the next enfuing Parliament, as they shall think expedient. And als his Majesty, with confent of the saids Estates, gives power to the saids Lords of Secret Councell, or any nine of them, as faid is, to fet down fuch rules and orders for their meetings and attendance, and spaces and. times thereof, as they shall resolve, appoint, and ordaine amongst themselves: And wils and declares, that the saids Lords of Secret Councell, now nominate, as faid is, and these who shall be furrogate in their places in the interim, in manner forefaid, shall have, bruik, and enjoy their places ad vitam vel ad culpam, and shall be liable to the cenfure of his Majesty and the Estates of Parliament, anent their proceedings therein, firme and stable, holding whatever by the faids Lords, or any nine of them, as faid is, shall be lawfully done in the premisses : And decernes and ordaines all his Majefties lieges and fubjects to reverence, acknowledge and obey the faids Lords of his Majefties councell in all things concerning the charge and truft committed to them, as faid is, under all highest paine and charge which after may follow : And this Commission to indure to the next Parliament and longer, ay and while the fame be exprefly discharged.

ACT LXVI

ACT DISCHARGING THE CUSTOME Of two and an halfe of the hundred, and the Impost of four pounds on the Tunne. 17. November 1641.

UR Soveraign Lord and Effates of Parliament, confidering that the prices of all Merchandize doe daily rife to exceeding great dearths, which is alledged to bee occafioned through extraordinary Cuftomes and Impofitions: For remeed whereof his Majefty, with advice and confent of his faids Effates, doth difcharge all and fundry whatfoever Cuftomes and Impofitions exacted by the Cuftomers, which are not allowed and approved by the Acts of Parliament, and efpecially the late Cuftome of two and an halfe per Centum, and late new Imposition of foure pound upon the Tunne of wine, and all raising of his Majesties Customes, directly or indirectly, without confent of Parliament. And because that the too much troubling of Merchant estate, and drawing of Masters and Mariners from their ordinary charges, doth much impede the trade : Therefore his Majesty, with advice and confent forefaid,

THE SECOND PARLIAMENT Act 67. 156 faid, difcharges the taking of Merchants, Masters, and Mariners oaths in the matter of Customes: and to the end that the subject of trade may not be restrained with unnecessary customes, therfore his Majesty. with confent forefaid, declares, that all goods and Merchandize imported from forraine places to this kingdome and out, paying inward Custome, shall be free of all outward Custome, according as is used in England and Ireland. Like as his Majestie declares, that he confented to the A& above written upon this condition, that commission and warrant be granted to the Exchequer to establish the Booke of Rates according as the prices of merchandize now rules, and his Majesty permitted the option to the Burrowes: Whereupon the Burrowes having advised, they made choice to be ruled by the Booke of Rates anent the Cuftomes, and consented that Commission should be granted to the Exchequer to establish the Booke of Rates, according as the prices of Merchandize now rules : In refpect whereof, our Soveraigne Lord and Estates of Parliament ordaine a Commission to be drawne up to the Exchequer to the effect forefaid, and extracted thereupon, for establishing the Booke of Rates, according as the prices of Merchandize now rules. And therefore our faid Soveraigne Lord and Estates of Parliament, ordaines the Act above mentioned to stand as a law in manner, and to the effect before rehearfed.

ACT LXVII

FAVOURS OF MINORS ANENT ACT IN The duties of the lands comprised from them. 17. November 1641.

22. UR Soveraigne Lord, with advice of Estates of Parliament, ratifies and approves the Act of Parlia-O farre as the famine concernes Minors, and declares, that the true Soft meaning thereof was and is, that Minors, having right to the legall reversion, should be no further obliged, than during their minoritie of 21 yeares of age, but allanerly for the annuall rent of the fummes contained in the comprisings, and that they type not the right of the superplus of the mailes and duties of the lands, fo farre as the famine exceeds the faid annuall rents induring their faid minoritie.

ACT LXVIII

ACT ORDAINING THE COMMISSIONERS For the Thefaurarie. 17. November 1641.

UR Soveraign Lord, Confidering that His Majefty was lately pleafed to condefcend to the humble defire of His Majefties Effates of Parliament, to nominate by their advice and approbation, His Officers of Eftate, of whom his Majefties high Thefaurer is one, And that His Majefty for the prefent is not refolved upon the nomination of any particular perfon, to enjoy the faid place, but hath with advice of the

faids Estates, taken present course to supply the want of a principall Thefaurer, by a Committee, Therefore His Majefty with confent of the faids Effates, makes, nominates and conftitutes, Fohn Earle of Loudoun, High Chancellour of this Kingdome, Archbald Earle of Argyle, Lord Campbell and Lorne, William Earle of Glencairne Lord Kilmars, Fohn Lord Lindefay of Struther, and Sir Fames Carmichael of that ilk Knight, Thefaurer Depute, his Majesties Commissioners to the effect under-written : And gives and grants to them or any three of them, the full place and power of His Majesties high Thesaurer, Comptroller, Collector and Thesaurer of his Majesties new augmentations, with all liberties, priviledges, immunities, benefits and emoluments whatfoever pertaining to the faid place of high Treasurer, Comptroller, Collector and Thesaurer of his Majesties new augmentations, and that in as ample manner and quality, as the famine was in the Perfons of any of His Majesties high Thefaurers, in any time of before: With power to them, or any three of them, to uplift, gather, and intromet with all and fundry His Majefties rents, revenewes, customes, imposts, casualities, commodities, dueties, and others whatfoever, any wayes belonging to his Majefty within this Kingdome, or to his Majesties dearest Sonne the Prince, and that of all years and termes by-gone, and yearely in time comming, and with power to them, or any three of them, with advice of the remanent Commissioners of Exchequer, contained in his Majesties Commission under the great Seale, and according to the tenour thereof, to compone, passe and subscribe signators, gifts, confirmations, escheats, liferents, remissions, tutories, gifts by forfeiture, recognition, wards, marriages, reliefe, non-entresse, legittimations, presentations, taks, rentals, licences, difpenfations and others difpofitions, writs and fecurities what foever, pertaining to the faids Offices, or any of them, or to the power and priviledges thereof, But prejudice alwayes to the faid Sir James Carmichael Thefaurer Depute, of his gifts of the office of Thefaurary Depute, whole liberties, power and priviledges therein contained, which are holden, as herein express, but adding or paring

to
